PROPOSED AMENDMENT TO SECOND COURT OF APPEALS LOCAL RULES

SUBMISSION OF ELECTRONIC BRIEFING

For the convenience of the Court, the Court asks, but does not require, that briefs filed in this Court be accompanied by an electronic copy of the brief, submitted as a courtesy to the Court in compliance with the following guidelines:

- A. The submission of a brief in electronic format (eBrief) is not considered a filing in this Court. Electronic filings will not be considered in determining whether a brief is timely filed under the Rules of Appellate Procedure. All eBriefs submitted must have been previously filed in compliance with the Texas Rules of Appellate Procedure and this court's Local Rules, requiring that a printed original of the brief and four printed copies be filed with the Court.
- B. All eBriefs should be submitted either by email attachment addressed to ebrief@2ndcoa.courts.state.tx.us or on a CD.
- C. Each email attachment or CD must include information or a label, that identifies the case name, the docket number, type of filing (i.e. appellant's brief, appellee's brief, appellant's reply brief, etc.), and the word-processing software and version used to prepare the brief. If submitting by email, please attach a Certificate of Compliance. A link to the certificate can be found at the bottom of this page. If submitting an eBrief on CD, please enclose a Certificate of Compliance with the CD.
- D. The Court prefers eBriefs be submitted in a searchable PDF format. If this format is not available to you, please use updated Word Perfect or Word formats.
- E. The email attachment or CD must contain only an electronic copy of the submitted filing. The email attachment or CD must not contain any document or material that is not included in the original hard copy of the filing with the Court. The CD version of a brief may include hyperlinks to documents that could be included in an appendix but were too voluminous or impracticable to be attached to the hard copy. See Tex. R. App. P. 38.1(j)

F. The email attachment or CD must be free of viruses or any other files that would be disruptive to the Court's computer system.

G. By submitting your brief electronically you are consenting to its publication through the court's web page.

CERTIFICATE OF COMPLIANCE

At the request of the Court, I certify that this submitted computer CD (or email attachment) complies with the following requests of the Court:

(1). This filing is labeled with or accompanied by the following information:

a. Case Style:

b. Case Number:

c. The Type of Brief:

d. The Word Processing Software and Version Used to prepare the filing:

(2). This CD (or email attachment) contains only an electronic copy of the original document which was filed in the Second Court of Appeals Clerk's office and does not contain any document or portion thereof that is not included in the original filing, except for hyperlinks to documents that could be included in an appendix but were too voluminous or impracticable to be attached to the hard copy.

(3). The electronic filing is free of viruses or any other files that would be disruptive to the Court's computer system. The following software, if any, was used to ensure the filing is virus-free:_____. I understand the submission of a brief in electronic format is not considered a filing in this Court. All eBriefs submitted must have been previously filed in printed form in compliance with the Texas Rules of Appellate Procedure.
