Re: State Bar Membership 02961700

Dear Mr. Guerrero:

I have received your letter concerning my voluntary resignation from the State Bar of Texas. I have been a resident of Colorado for almost four years now and do not wish to maintain my license in Texas any longer.

I have searched my files and cannot find my State Bar Card. I assume I destroyed it after my move to Colorado. Somewhere in storage is my license to practice in Texas, but I cannot locate it at this time. I certainly am not and will not use any of these materials at any time in the future. Enclosed is an affidavit to this effect.

Please let me know what else might be needed to terminate my active status in Texas. Thank you.

Sincerely,

Denise A. Bretting

Re: State Bar Membership

Dear Sir:

I have decided not to renew my membership in the State Bar of Texas. I am in practice here in Colorado now, and find that I have not had any dealings in Texas within the last couple of years. I have misplaced my membership card, so I am not returning it.

Thank you for your service in past years.

I closed my law office at the end of October, 1993. I presume I received a "written law license" in 1955 - if I had, I don't know where it is. Let me assure you that I have no intent of practicing law or furthering the State Bar of Texas in any manner whatsoever. I have no plans to attend any of the 325 hours of CLE.
