TRAVIS COUNTY, TEXAS

126TH JUDICIAL DISTRICT

ORDER

On the 17th day of September, 2014, came to be considered Defendant the University of Texas at El Paso's Motion to Declare Eric Flores a Vexatious Litigant. The Court, having considered the Motion and the arguments of counsel and Mr. Flores, is of the opinion that such Motion should be granted.

The Court finds that there is not a reasonable probability that Eric Flores will prevail in this litigation. The Court further finds, pursuant to Section 11.054 of the Texas Civil Practice & Remedies Code, that Eric Flores, in the seven-year period immediately preceding the date of Defendant's Motion, has commenced, prosecuted, or maintained at least five litigations as a pro se litigant other than in a small claims court that have been: 1) finally determined adversely to the plaintiff; and 2) determined by a trial or appellate court to be frivolous or groundless under state or federal laws or rules of procedure. Finally, the Court finds that Eric Flores, after a litigation has been finally determined against him, repeatedly relitigates or attempts to relitigate, pro se, either: 1) the validity of the determination against the same defendant as to whom the litigation was finally determined; or 2) the cause of action, claim, controversy, or any of the issues of fact or law determined or concluded by the final determination against the same defendant as to whom the litigation was finally determined.
