State Bar Card No. 13075000

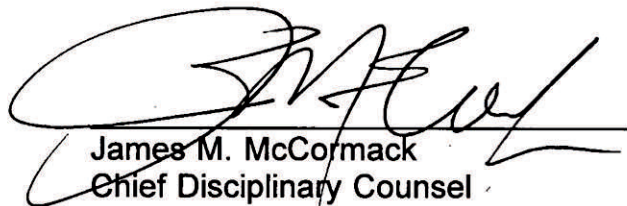

aggravated perjury case. Further, as a condition of the judgment entered in the Martin tampering with a witness case, Martin agreed to resign from the practice of law.

Aggravated perjury and tampering with a witness each constitute an "intentional crime" as that term is defined in Section 1.06(O.) of the Texas Rules of Disciplinary Procedure for the conviction of which an attorney shall be disbarred pursuant to Sections 8.01, et seq., of the Texas Rules of Disciplinary Procedure.

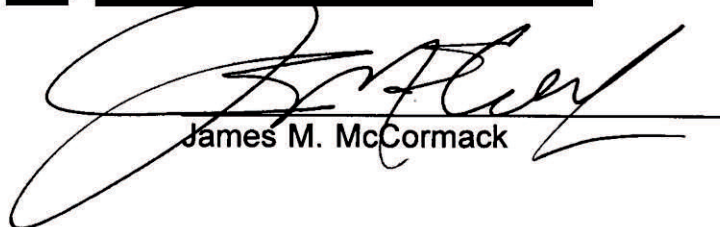

In view of Jack Rupert Martin's execution on or about January 11, 1996, of his resignation as an attorney and counselor at law, and in anticipation of the Court's acceptance of same, the Chief Disciplinary Counsel does not anticipate filing a compulsory discipline lawsuit premised upon Martin's two convictions for felonies involving moral turpitude.
