MEMORANDUM OPINION

On June 26, 2001, appellant filed a motion to “dismiss or affirm for mootness.” In the motion, appellant states he has been released from custody and, therefore, the appeal is moot. As there are no longer any issues in controversy, we find the appeal is moot and grant the motion.

Accordingly, we order the appeal dismissed for mootness. We direct the Clerk of the Court to issue the mandate of the Court immediately.
