COLLIN COUNTY, TEXAS

ORDER DETERMINING PLAINTIFF A VEXATIOUS LITIGANT, REQUIRING SECURITY, AND LIMITING THE FILING OF NEW LITIGATION

On January 11, 2001, a hearing was held on the "Motion for Order Determining Plaintiff a Vexatious Litigant and Requesting Security and Prohibiting the Filing of New Litigation" filed by Lavon Title Holding Company ("the Movant"), successor to Wilson Title Company, one of the Defendants in this cause.

After reviewing the pleadings on file and the evidence presented at the referenced hearing, this Court finds that it is not reasonably probable that the Plaintiff will prevail in this cause and that the Plaintiff, in the seven-year period immediately preceding the date of the referenced motion, has commenced, prosecuted, or maintained in propria person at least five litigations, other than in small claims court, that have been finally determined adversely to the Plaintiff.

IT IS, THEREFORE, ORDERED that the Plaintiff file with the Clerk of this Court and serve on the Movant on or before ~~the~~ close of business on January 25, 2001 a cash or corporate surety bond in the amount of $ 10,000 payable to the Movant upon the order of this Court, as security for the Movant's reasonable costs and attorneys fees to be incurred in this cause.

IT IS ALSO ORDERED that if the bond is not filed with the Clerk of this Clerk and served on the Movant before the deadline, then this cause shall be dismissed as to the Movant.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that the Plaintiff may not file new litigation in any Court sitting in the State of Texas without first obtaining permission from the local administrative judge of the Court in which the Plaintiff seeks to file the litigation.
