IV.

On or about January 12, 1997, Danny Moon ("Moon") hired Respondent to represent him in a personal injury matter arising from an accident that occurred on September 12, 1995. On October 29, 1997, more than two (2) years after the date of the accident, Respondent filed suit against three (3) defendants. Thereafter, Moon made numerous attempts to contact Respondent by telephone, facsimile transmission and mail. Respondent has failed to return Moon's requests for information about the status of his case.

. . . V.

On February 26, 1999, the State Bar of Texas sent, by personal service, a letter to Respondent notifying him that a complaint alleging professional misconduct on his part had been filed against him by Moon. In said letter, Respondent was advised that, pursuant to Rule 2.09 of the Texas Rules of Disciplinary Procedure, he was required to file a written response with the State Bar of Texas within thirty (30) days of his receipt of the letter. Respondent failed to furnish the State Bar of Texas a written response to the complaint within the required thirty (30) days of his receipt of the notification letter, and he failed to timely assert a privilege or other legal ground for his failure to furnish his response.

Upon appointment, request is made that you notify the Respondent at the address shown below and the undersigned of the identity and address of the judge assigned:

As a practical matter, I would respectfully suggest that you inquire with the judge to be appointed as to: (1) whether he or she will be able to comply with the 180 day deadline by which the case must be set for trial set forth in Section 3.07 of the Texas Rules of Disciplinary Procedure. If not, I would respectfully request that an alternate appointment be made.
