PROTECTIVE ORDERS

What is a Protective Order?

It is a court order that protects you from someone who has been violent or threatened to be violent. Violence can include sexual assault.

How can a Protective Order help me?

It can order the other person to:

- Not hurt you or threaten to hurt you
- Not contact you or go near you, your children, other family relatives, your pets, your home, where you work, or your children's schools.
- Not have a gun or a license to carry a gun

The police can arrest the other person for violating any of these orders.

Can I get a Protective Order?

You can get a Protective Order if:

- Someone has hurt you, or threatened to hurt you, and
- You are afraid that person may hurt you again, and
- Either you, or your spouse or dating partner has a close relationship with the person who hurt you (a close relationship includes: marriage, close relatives, dating or living together, or having a child together).

You can also get a Protective Order if you have had a Protective Order against the other person before and the other person violated the parts of the Protective Order designed to protect you.

You can also get a Protective Order if you have been sexually assaulted or stalked, even if you do not have a close relationship with the person who sexually assaulted or stalked you. To get more information about this kind of Protective Order, contact the Texas Advocacy Project, Inc. at 800/374-HOPE or the Texas Association Against Sexual Assault at 512/474-7190.

How much does it cost?

It is free for you.

How do I ask for a Protective Order?

Fill out the forms in this kit:

- Application for Protective Order and Declaration
- Temporary Ex Parte Protective Order- Protective Order
- Respondent Information

Where do I file the forms?

After you fill out the forms, take the forms with 2 copies to the courthouse. File them in the county where you or the other person lives. But if you have a divorce or custody case pending against the other person, file the forms in that same county or the county where you live.

What if the other person and I live together or have children together?

The judge can make orders about who gets to use the house, apartment or car.

The judge can also make other orders, like child custody, child support, visitation, and spousal support. The judge can also make an order to protect pets.

Can I get protection right away?

The judge may give you a temporary order that protects you until your court hearing. This order is called a "Temporary Ex Parte Protective Order". Please note: if you do not receive a court document entitled "Temporary Ex Parte Protective Order" that is signed by the judge after you apply, you do NOT have a protective order yet. You must go to a hearing and ask the judge for a Protective Order.

In some cases, the judge orders the other person to leave the home right away. If you want this, you should ask the judge. Be ready to testify at a hearing when you file your Application.

Do I have to go to court?

Yes. Even if you get a Temporary Ex Parte Protective Order, you must go to the next hearing. It should be in about 2 weeks. The judge will decide if you should have protection and for how long. If you do not go, the Temporary Ex Parte Protective Order may end.

Read Get Ready for Court in this kit. Or get it from the court clerk or from: www.texaslawhelp.org/protectiveorderkit

How will the other person know about the Protective Order?

You must have the other person "served" before the court hearing. This means someone—not you—will serve (give) the other person a copy of your application for a protective order. Please note: when the other person receives your application for a Protective Order, they will also receive a copy of your signed Declaration. Also, if the other person is in the military, a copy of the application for protective order and Declaration will be sent to the officials on base.

The clerk can arrange for law enforcement to serve the other person the court papers for FREE (for you).

How long will the Protective Order be in place?

In most cases, a Protective Order will last up to two years. There are some situations where a court can issue a Protective Order that lasts longer than two years.

Need help?

There is an instruction sheet for each form. But, if you need more help, contact: Family Violence Legal Line:

800-374-HOPE (4673) Or, go to:

www.texaslawhelp.org/protectiveorderkit

Although you may file these forms without having a lawyer, you are encouraged to get a lawyer to help you in this process. Your county or district attorney or legal aid office may be able to help for free. The State Bar of Texas may also be able to refer you to a lawyer if you call 800-252-9690.

Get Ready for Court

Don't miss your hearing!

If you miss it, your Temporary Ex Parte Protective Order may end and you will have to start from the beginning.

Get ready.

- Fill out a Protective Order before you go to court and bring it with you.
- Bring any evidence you have, like photographs, medical records, torn clothing. Also bring witnesses who know about the violence, like a neighbor, relative or police. The judge may ask them to testify.
- If you had a Protective Order in the past bring a copy of it.
- Bring proof of your and the other person's income and expenses, like bills, paycheck stubs, bank accounts, tax returns.
- If the Proof of Service was returned to you, file it with the clerk and bring a copy to court. Proof of Service is a document that shows when and where the other person was given a copy of the Application for Protective Order and Declaration.

Get there 30 minutes early.

- Find the courtroom.
- When the courtroom opens, go in and tell the clerk or officer that you are present.
- Watch the other cases so you will know what to do.
- When your name is called, go to the front of the courtroom.

What if I don't speak English?

When you file your papers, tell the clerk you will need an interpreter. Ask the court clerk if you qualify for any free interpretation services.

If a court interpreter is not available, bring someone to interpret for you. Do not ask a child, a protected person, or a witness to interpret for you.

What if I am deaf?

When you file your papers, ask for an interpreter or other accommodation.

What if I need child support or visitation orders?

Call the Family Violence Legal Line before you go to court: 800-374-HOPE (4673)

What if I am afraid?

If you don't feel safe, call your local family crisis center or the National Domestic Violence Hotline: 800-799-SAFE (7233)

Practice what you want to say.

Make a list of the orders you want and practice saying them. Do not take more than 3 minutes to say what you want.

If you get nervous at the hearing, just read from your list. Use that list to see if the judge has made every order you asked for.

The judge may ask questions.

The other person or his or her lawyer may also ask you questions. Tell the truth. Speak slowly. Give complete answers. If you don't understand, say, "I don't understand the question."

Speak only to the judge unless it is your turn to ask questions. When people are talking to the judge, wait for them to finish. Then you can ask questions about what they said.

What happens after the hearing?

If the judge agrees you need protection, the judge will sign your Protective Order.

Take your signed order to the court clerk. Ask for copies of your order (or make extra copies) and keep one with you at all times.

Make sure copies of your order are sent to your children's daycare, babysitter, school, and to the other person's military superior, if they have one. If the other person violates the order, call the police and show them your order.

Need help?

If you are in danger, call the police: 911

Or call Family Violence Legal Line: 800-374-HOPE (4673)

Or go to:
www.texaslawhelp.org/protectiveorderkit

Make A Safety Plan

A safety plan can help keep you and your children safe. Ask a domestic violence counselor to help you with your plan.

During an Attack

When an attack starts, try to escape. Leave your home and take your children, no matter what time it is!

- Go to a friend's house or to a domestic violence shelter. Call 1-800-799-SAFE (7233) to find a shelter near you.
- Defend and protect yourself. Later, take photos of your injuries.
- Call for help. Scream as loud and as long as you can.
- Stay close to a door or window so you can get out if you need to.
- Stay away from the bathroom, kitchen, and weapons.

Be Ready to Leave

Leaving is the most dangerous time. Thinking about your safety plan before you leave will help you when the time comes.

- Practice your escape. Know which doors, windows, elevator, or stairs are best. Practice with your children if they are old enough.
- Have a safe place to go in an emergency. Memorize their phone number.
- Keep a cell phone or calling card with you always so you can call in an emergency.
- Ask a neighbor and a co-worker to call the police if they see or hear abuse.
- Get rid of guns and weapons in your house.
- Teach your children how to dial 911 to get help in an emergency.
- Have a safety plan for your children when you can't be with them. Teach them the plan.
- Have a "code word" to use with your children, family, friends, and neighbors. Ask them to call the police when you say that word.
- Keep a bag ready with clothes and extra keys for your house and car. Hide it in a place you can get to quickly. Or leave it at a friend's house.
- Get your own post office box so you can safely get checks and mail.
- Open your own checking or savings account and try to get a credit card in your name

- Put important things in a safe place where you can get them easily, such as your:
  - o Medicines
  - o Driver's license, ID, social security card
  - o Cash, check book, credit cards
  - o Legal papers, important phone numbers.
- Make plans for your pets if you have them.
- Review your safety plan a lot and make changes to it if you need to.

Be Safe With Technology

- Get a new email address.
- Change your passwords and PIN numbers often.
- Search your name on the internet to see if your phone numbers or address are listed.
- If you have an online page, "de-friend" your partner or make a new page.
- Use a computer that your partner doesn't know about like at a library or friend's house.
- Get a cell phone that your partner doesn't know about. Call the domestic violence shelter and ask them if they can give you a donated cell phone. Call 1-800-799-SAFE (7233).
- Save emergency phone numbers with a made up name in your cell phone. For example, you can name the domestic violence shelter in your cell as "Angie."

Be Safe When You Live on Your Own

- Change the locks on your doors as soon as you can.
- Put locks on all your doors and windows.
- Ask your phone company for an unlisted number. Sometimes this is free. Don't call your partner from your phone. Screen all your calls.
- If you move, don't tell your partner where you live.
- Give your children's school or daycare a list of who is allowed to pick up your children.
- Tell your neighbors and landlord that your partner no longer lives with you.
- Ask them to call the police if they see your partner near your home.
- Take care of yourself by asking for what you need and going to a support group.
- If you have to see your partner, meet in a public place and bring someone with you.

DRAFT

- If you are thinking about going back to your partner, talk to someone you trust first.
- Be safe at work by asking your co-workers to call the police if they see your partner at your job. Bring a picture of your partner to work.
- Take a different way home and to work. Go to different stores and places. Change your routine.
- If you drive, park where there is a lot of light.
- Have someone walk with you to your car or to the bus stop.

Be Safe With a Protective Order

- Always keep your Protective Order with you and call the police if your partner violates it.
- Give copies of your protective order to your family, friends, neighbors, school, and daycare.
