

Notes about Data for Statutory County Courts for FY 2013

In 2013, 88 of the state's 254 counties had at least one county court at law in operation. Assuming one report for each county for each month, 1,056 reports were possible.

At the time of publication, there was a 100.0 reporting rate overall for the fiscal year. However, some reports were missing certain sections, or one of the two offices in a county (county clerk or district clerk) may not have reported as required.

The following counties had incomplete reports:

Calhoun: Juvenile reports were missing for November 2012 to August 2013.
El Paso: Criminal reports were missing for July and August 2013.
Waller: Civil, criminal, juvenile, and mental health reports were missing for September 2012 through August 2013.
