The Office of Court Administration's (OCA) Judicial Information section:

- Collects statistical, directory, and other information from Texas' approximately 2,800 courts;
- Provides technical assistance to clerks and courts on proper reporting and assists with resolving reporting problems;
- Provides information on court statistics, judicial system structure and jurisdiction, and other information to the public;
- Produces, in conjunction with Public Affairs, the Annual Statistical Report for the Texas Judiciary; and
- Produces the Texas Judicial System Directory.

The majority of Judicial Information staff's time is devoted to assisting clerks and courts with their monthly reports (commonly called "OCA Reports") as well as other reporting requirements, if relevant.

The section maintains web pages with important information about the various reports required to be submitted to OCA (www.txcourts.gov/reporting-to-oca.aspx).
