

Summary of Reporting Requirements
Guardianship Programs to Judicial Branch Certification Commission and County Clerks
For Calendar Year 2015

As of September 1, 2014, the Judicial Branch Certification Commission (JBCC) assumed the duties and responsibilities of the Guardianship Certification Board. Reporting requirements are the same as for last year, except reports are submitted to the JBCC, not the former Guardianship Certification Board

To JBCC

Government Code Chapter 155
Rule 7.3 of the JBCC Rules

The following information must be reported to the JBCC no later than January 31 each year for the preceding calendar year:

- number of wards served by the program, reported by county in which the application to create a guardianship was filed
- total number of wards served by the program
- name, business address, and business telephone of each employee, volunteer and contractor providing guardianship services to a ward or proposed ward of the program
- name of each county in which each employee, volunteer or contractor provides or is authorized to provide guardianship services
- amount of funds received from the State of Texas or other public source for the provision of guardianship services, reported by source
- total amount of public funds received

to County Clerks

Estates Code § 1104.257 [formerly Probate Code § 697A(a)], regarding annual statement filed by guardianship programs

- guardianship programs no longer submit an annual statement to county clerks
- instead, guardianship programs submit a copy of the annual report filed with the JBCC to the county clerk of each county in which the program operates
- copy of report submitted to county clerks no later than January 31 each year
