

Judicial Internships

First Court of Appeals

Houston, Texas

FALL 2016

Sessions: 9/12/16 to 12/16/16

The First Court of Appeals is accepting applications from law students who will be rising second- and third-year students during Fall 2016 for unpaid judicial internship positions. The positions may be volunteer or for-credit.

The First Court's intern program provides an opportunity to improve research and writing skills, while also providing a behind-the-scenes view of how an intermediate court of appeals works. Interns research factual and legal issues, review appellate records, perform substantive citation checks, write memoranda of law, discuss those memoranda with the judges and the Court's attorneys, observe the judges' discussions of issues in cases that are submitted, observe oral argument, and observe postsubmission resolution of legal issues raised in oral argument.

To Apply:

Please submit (1) a cover letter, (2) a resume, and (3) an unofficial law-school transcript. Please e-mail the completed package with all attachments in PDF format to interns@txcourts.gov. Application materials e-mailed in other formats will be deleted. E-mail transmission of applications is preferred. If you cannot e-mail your application, the completed package may be mailed to:
