

Judicial Internships

Fourteenth Court of Appeals

Houston, Texas

FALL 2017

Session: 9/11/17 to 11/22/17

The Fourteenth Court of Appeals is accepting applications from law students who will be rising second and third year students during Fall 2017 for unpaid judicial internship positions. The positions may be volunteer or for-credit. Interns may work during one or both sessions.

The Fourteenth Court's intern program provides an opportunity to improve research and writing skills, while also providing a behind-the-scenes view of how an intermediate court of appeals works. Interns research factual and legal issues, review appellate records, perform substantive citation checks, write memoranda of law, discuss those memoranda with the judges and the Court's attorneys, observe the judges' discussions of issues in cases that are submitted, observe oral argument, and observe postsubmission resolution of legal issues raised in oral argument.

To Apply:

To apply, please submit a single electronic application consisting of (1) a cover letter, (2) a resume, and (3) an unofficial law-school transcript via email to 14th-interns@txcourts.gov. Application packets should be e-mailed in PDF format. E-mail transmission of applications is preferred. If you cannot e-mail your application, the completed package may be mailed to:
