On Appeal from the 269th District Court
Harris County, Texas
Trial Court Cause No. 2016-14025

CORRECTED ORDER

On May 13, 2020, relator Oprona, Inc. filed a petition for writ of mandamus in this court. See Tex. Gov't Code Ann. § 22.221; see also Tex. R. App. P. 52. In the petition relator asks this court to compel the Honorable Cory Don Sepolio, presiding judge of the 269th District Court in Harris County, Texas, to set aside his (1) April 1, 2020 order granting the real party in interest's motion for new trial and (2) May 3, 2020 order denying relator's motion to void the April 1, 2020 new trial order entered in trial court trial number 2016-14025, styled Erika Arroyo v. Oprona, Inc.

Relator has also filed a motion for temporary stay of proceedings below. See Tex. R. App. P. 52.8(b), 52.10. On May 13, 2020, relator asked this court to stay proceedings in the trial court pending a decision on the petition for writ of mandamus.

It appears from the facts stated in the petition and motion that relator's request for relief requires further consideration and that relator will be prejudiced unless immediate temporary relief is granted. We therefore GRANT relator's motion and issue the following order:

We ORDER the filing of the response to the motion to compel discovery due on May 14, 2020 and the hearing on the motion to compel discovery on May 18, 2020, in trial court number 2016-14025, styled Erika Arroyo v. Oprona, Inc., STAYED until a final decision by this court on relators' petition for writ of mandamus, or until further order of this court. This order does not stay the mediation scheduled for May 19, 2020.

In addition, the court requests Erika Arroyo, the real party in interest, to file a response to the petition for writ of mandamus on or before May 19, 2020. See Tex. R. App. P. 52.4.
