Request for Comments on Proposed Rules of the Judicial Branch Certification Commission

The Judicial Branch Certification Commission (JBCC) requests comments on the following proposed Rule of the Judicial Branch Certification Commission.

This rule amendment to Guardianship section 7.2, Requirement of Certification, addresses proposed changes to JBCC Rule 7.2(b)(4) concerning work experience, education and training requirements for certified guardians with approval of degree plan (e.g. degree plan offered by Baylor University Garland School of Social Work).

Comments must be submitted in writing by 5:00 p.m. on July 3, 2020 to the Supreme Court of Texas at P.O. Box 12248, Austin, Texas 78711, or by email to rulescomments@txcourts.gov, Attn: Public Comments. Comments received will be publicly available and may be posted to the JBCC website.

The Supreme Court will consider comments received.
