Scheduling

1. The following court schedules are established to reduce occupancy in the court building: Each Court will determine the capacity of their courtrooms to determine the appropriate number of individuals keeping in mind social distancing measures. Additionally, Courts will reduce their docket size per day and further reduce that docket by differing times throughout the day.

Vulnerable Populations

1. Individuals who are over age 65 and individuals with serious underlying health conditions, such as high blood pressure, chronic lung disease, diabetes, obesity, asthma, and those whose immune systems are compromised such as by chemotherapy for cancer or other conditions requiring such therapy are considered to be vulnerable populations.
2. Each judge will include information on orders setting hearings, dockets notices, and in other communications notifying individuals who are in vulnerable populations of the ability to contact the court to identify themselves as a vulnerable individual and receive accommodations. A notice with this information will be posted on the courts' websites and in conspicuous locations around the court building (a copy of which is attached).
3. Vulnerable populations who are scheduled for court will be accommodated on a case-by-case basis, including teleconferencing, hybrid teleconferencing or an in-person proceeding in a limited access courtroom.

Gallery

5. The maximum number of persons permitted in the gallery of each courtroom has been determined and posted. The maximum capacity of the courtroom will be monitored and enforced by court staff.
