

FOURTH COURT OF APPEALS

UNIFORM SOCIAL DISTANCING PROTOCOLS

While it is anticipated that oral argument will occur in the courtroom, as the COVID-19 situation continues to evolve, this protocol is subject to change.

If circumstances permit, this courtroom proceeding will be streaming live and archived on the court's YouTube Channel:

In the courtroom, the following social distancing protocols will be observed and are subject to modification by any court order granting oral argument:

Courtroom occupancy is limited to 27 persons, including three justices, one clerk, one staff attorney, and counsel of record for the appellant and appellee presenting argument (a maximum of 2 per side). For additional and necessary accommodations for any party on appeal, please contact the Clerk of Court. Mask wearing is optional for fully vaccinated individuals.

If you do not want to appear in person for oral argument, please contact the Clerk of Court immediately.
