1. Please describe any formal mediation training including continuing mediation training:

2. Are you a full-time mediator? _____(yes/no)

2a. If yes, for how long?

2b. If you are not a full-time mediator, what percentage of your practice is devoted to mediation? _____%

3. When did you first begin serving as a mediator?

4. Approximately how many cases have you mediated?

5. What is your "batting average" or percentage of settled versus non-settled mediations?

6. How many mediations have you handled while the case was on appeal, and what is your "batting average" on these cases?

7. In what particular substantive areas do you specialize (i.e., what are your former areas of practice, not necessarily board certification)?

8. Appellate mediators must frequently operate within short time frames due to impending appellate deadlines, e.g. due dates for the record, briefs, submission, etc. Normally, appellate mediation needs to be completed within 45 days after the court orders mediation. An appointed mediator is expected to act as the coordinator in promptly scheduling the mediation in order to meet the appellate court's deadlines. Do you perceive any problem which might hinder you from mediating cases within this limited time frame?

Yes.

No.

Other.

If you answer other than "no," please explain.
