ORDER GRANTING DEFENDANT'S MOTION TO DECLARE PLAINTIFF A VEXATIOUS LITIGANT & REQUEST FOR SECURITY

On the 24th day of September, 2014, came on to be considered Defendant, COLONIAL COUNTY MUTUAL INSURANCE COMPANY'S, Motion to Declare Plaintiff, Marqueth Wilson, a vexatious litigant and Defendant's request for security. The Court, after consideration and review of the documents on and arguments of counsel and Plaintiff, is of the opinion that Defendant's Motion should be in all things GRANTED.

It is therefore ORDERED, ADJUDGED, and DECREED that Plaintiff is declared a Vexatious Litigant and that Plaintiff furnish security in the amount of $5,000 by October 24, 2014, to guarantee payment to Defendant for reasonable expenses, including his costs and attorney fees incurred in the defense of this lawsuit. If Plaintiff does not furnish the security within the time set by this order, the court will dismiss all Plaintiff's claims against Defendant Colonial County Mutual Insurance Company.

It is further ORDERED, ADJUDGED, and DECREED that the Plaintiff is prohibited from filing, pro se, a new litigation in any court in this state without permission of the appropriate local administrative judge.

SIGNED on Sept. 24, 2014.
