

Summary of Reporting Requirements

Department of Aging and Disability Services to Judicial Branch Certification Commission
For Calendar Year 2014

Reporting requirements are the same as for last year, except reports are now submitted to the Judicial Branch Certification Commission (JBCC), not the former Guardianship Certification Board.

Estates Code § 1104.258 [formerly Probate Code § 697A(b)] and Rule 7.3(g) of the JBCC Rules

DADS is required to submit a statement to the GCB containing

- name, address and telephone number of each DADS employee who is or will be providing guardianship services to a ward or potential ward on behalf of DADS
- each county in which each DADS employee provides or is authorized to provide guardianship services

The statement must be submitted no later than January 31 of each year.
