Re: Resignation from Texas Bar

Dear Ms. Strickland:

By letter dated May 10, 1995, I resigned my inactive Texas Bar membership. By undated memorandum returned to me, signed by one Kathy M. Holder, Chief Deputy Clerk and Subaltern Poobah for Membership, I was informed that I cannot resign without submitting certain documents. In this curious matter, I am reminded of the Eagles' "Hotel California:

"You can check out any time you like.
"But you can never leave."

In any event, I am enclosing the documents the Supreme Court of Texas in its mighty legal wisdom seems to desire with the longing of a jealous god.

Ms. Holder's memo makes clear that the Texas Bar's principal function seems to be to keep the unbridled felonious tendencies of your members in check. In that perhaps-futile endeavor, I wish you well.

Nevertheless, I bid you farewell. It is good to be an ex-member of your organization.

Sincerely,

RE: Voluntary Resignation from the State Bar of Texas

Dear Mr. Sheriff:

The Supreme Court of Texas requires all members wishing to voluntarily resign from the State Bar of Texas to submit a sworn affidavit stating:

- 1) that you (the resigning member) have surrendered all Bar Cards, all Law Licenses, and all certificates issued to you by the Supreme Court of Texas;

This requirement is in addition to the notarized affidavit to be submitted by the resigning member pursuant to Article III, Section 6(A) of the State Bar Rules stating that the purpose in resigning is not to avoid disciplinary action and that there is no knowledge of any unresolved allegations of professional misconduct.

Please be advised that until such time as you comply with the requirements set forth herein you will continue to be shown on the membership rolls as an active member who must comply with the payment of Bar dues and the performance of continuing legal education mandated by the State Bar Act. This means that you would be subject to administrative suspension for any subsequent failure to pay Bar dues and/or failure to perform minimum continuing legal education.

If you are currently on the inactive rolls, you do not have to comply with the continuing legal education requirements; however, you are required to pay $50 annually to remain in good standing.

RE: Voluntary Resignation from the State Bar of Texas

Mr. Sellers:

On April 6, 1994, I sent you a letter listing the requirements to voluntarily resign from the State Bar of Texas pursuant to your letter dated January 12, 1994. Since the date of your initial inquiry, we have heard nothing from you regarding your voluntary resignation. We would appreciate a courtesy of a reply as to whether you intend to follow through or have changed your mind and wish to continue as a Texas attorney.

The Supreme Court of Texas requires all members wishing to voluntarily resign from the State Bar of Texas to submit a sworn affidavit stating:

- 1) that you (the resigning member) have surrendered all Bar Cards, all Law Licenses, and all certificates issued to you by the Supreme Court of Texas;
- 2) if any or all said Bar Cards, Law Licenses, and certificates are no longer in your possession, the reason why each item is no longer in your possession; and
- 3) if any or all said Bar Cards, Law Licenses and certificates have been lost or misplaced, that you shall surrender same to the Court immediately upon discovering same.

This requirement is in addition to the notarized affidavit to be submitted by the resigning member pursuant to Article III, Section 6(A) of the State Bar Rules stating that the purpose in resigning is not to avoid disciplinary action and that there is no knowledge of any unresolved allegations of professional misconduct.

Please be advised that until such time as you comply with the requirements set forth herein you will continue to be shown on the membership rolls as an active member who must comply with
