RE: *Commission for Lawyer Discipline v. Timothy Gerard Pletta

Dear Mr. Adams:

In connection with the referenced cause of action, enclosed are the following documents:

1. Original and two (2) photocopies of the Disciplinary Petition;
2. Check for $223.00 in payment of the filing and service fees; and
3. Transmittal letter (with postage paid, self-addressed return envelope attached) addressed to the Dallas County District Clerk.

The enclosed documents are being forwarded to you with the request that an active District Judge who does not reside in the Administrative Judicial Region in which Respondent resides be appointed to preside in this case. Respondent, Timothy Gerard Pletta, is a resident of Dallas County, Texas. Once the Judge has been appointed, please inform the Respondent and me of the Judge's name and address. Respondent's address is:

Timothy Gerard Pletta
[REDACTED]
[REDACTED]

As a practical matter, I would respectfully suggest that you ask the Judge who is being considered for appointment, if he/she will be able to set the case for trial within 180 days, as required by Section 3.07 of the Texas Rules of Disciplinary Procedure. If the Judge under consideration would be unable to comply, I respectfully request that you make an alternate appointment.
