ORDER

On the ___ day of _____, 2021 this Court, after notice to all parties that had made an appearance, conducted a hearing and considered MIC General Insurance Corporation's vexatious litigant motion. After considering this motion, any responses and/or replies thereto, the applicable law, the evidence material to the grounds of the motion and/or the arguments of counsel or pro se parties, the Court finds that this motion is meritorious and should be GRANTED in all respects.

It is, therefore, ORDERED, ADJUDGED and DECREED that MIC General Insurance Corporation's vexatious litigant motion is GRANTED in all respects.

It is further ORDERED, ADJUDGED and DECREED that Plaintiff is a vexatious litigant pursuant to Texas Civil Practice and Remedies Code §§ 11.054(1)(A) and 11.054(2)(A) and (B).

It is further ORDERED, ADJUDGED and DECREED that, pursuant to Texas Civil Practice and Remedies Code § 11.055, Plaintiff must furnish ~~$10,000~~ $2,500 security for the benefit of MIC within thirty days from the date of this Order. This security is an undertaking by Plaintiff to assure payment to MIC for its reasonable expenses incurred in connection with this case, including MIC's costs and attorneys' fees.

It is further ORDERED, ADJUDGED and DECREED that, pursuant to Texas Civil Practice and Remedies Code § 11.056, this Court will dismiss Plaintiff's claims against MIC in this case if Plaintiff does not furnish the security within the time set by this Order.

It is further ORDERED, ADJUDGED and DECREED that, pursuant to Texas Civil Practice and Remedies Code § 11.101, Plaintiff is prohibited from filing, pro se, a new litigation in any other Texas court without permission of the appropriate local administrative judge.
