Trial Court Cause No. 94-20300

OPINION

After waiving indictment, appellant pled guilty to an information charging him with possession of less than twenty-eight grams of cocaine. Pursuant to a plea bargain agreement, the court placed appellant on probation for six years, assessed a fine of five hundred dollars, and assessed community service. The court subsequently revoked appellant's probation upon the State's motion, finding that appellant violated the terms and conditions of probation by committing a new offense, aggravated robbery, and committing technical violations. The court assessed punishment at confinement for six years in the Institutional Division of the Texas

Department of Criminal Justice.

Appellant's appointed counsel filed a motion to withdraw from representation of appellant along with a supporting brief in which he concludes that the appeal is wholly frivolous and without merit. The brief meets the requirements of Anders v. California, 386 U.S. 738, 87 S.Ct. 1396, 18 L.Ed.2d 493 (1967), by presenting a professional evaluation of the record demonstrating why there are no arguable grounds to be advanced. See High v. State, 573 S.W.2d 807 (Tex. Crim. App. 1978).

A copy of counsel's brief was delivered to appellant. Appellant was advised of the right to examine the appellate record and to file a pro se response. As of this date, no pro se response has been filed.

We have carefully reviewed the record and counsel's brief and agree that the appeal is wholly frivolous and without merit. Further, we find no reversible error in the record. A discussion of the brief would add nothing to the jurisprudence of the State.

Accordingly, the judgment of the trial court is affirmed and the motion to withdraw is granted.
