NO. 380-81972-07

THE STATE OF TEXAS

$ IN THE 380th JUDICIAL

$ DISTRICT COURT OF

$ COLLIN COUNTY, TEXAS

CHARGE OF THE COURT

MEMBERS OF THE JURY:

By the verdict returned in this case you have found the defendant, Kosoul Chanthakoummane, guilty of the offense of capital murder as charged in the indictment. It is now your duty to determine, from all the evidence in this case, the answers to certain questions called "Special Issues" in this charge. The Court instructs you in answering these "Special Issues" as follows:

1.

The mandatory punishment for the offense of capital murder of which you have found the defendant guilty is either death or confinement in the Institutional Division of the Texas Department of Criminal Justice for life without parole.

2.

You are instructed that in answering Special Issue No. 1, you shall answer "Yes" or "No".

The State has the burden of proving beyond a reasonable doubt that Special Issue No. 1 should be answered "Yes".

In deliberating on Special Issue No. 1 you shall consider all the evidence at the guilt or CHARGE OF COURT - Page 1 innocence stage and the punishment stage, including evidence of the defendant's background and character or the circumstances of the offense that militates for or mitigates against the imposition of the death penalty.

You may not answer Special Issue No. 1 "Yes" unless you agree unanimously.

You may not answer Special Issue No. 1 "No" unless ten (10) or more jurors agree.

Members of the jury need not agree on what particular evidence supports a negative answer to Special Issue No. 1.

You are further instructed that you are not to be swayed by mere conjecture, passion, prejudice, public opinion, or public feeling in considering all of the evidence before you and in answering Special Issue No. 1.

You are instructed that if you return an affirmative finding, that is a "Yes" answer, to Special Issue No. 1, then and only then are you to answer Special Issue No. 2.

3.

You are instructed that in answering Special Issue No. 2, you shall answer "Yes" or "No".

You may not answer Special Issue No. 2 "No" unless you agree unanimously.

You may not answer Special Issue No. 2 "Yes" unless ten (10) or more jurors agree.

Members of the jury need not agree on what particular evidence supports an affirmative answer to Special Issue No. 2.

In answering Special Issue No. 2 you shall consider mitigating evidence to be evidence that a juror might regard as reducing the defendant's moral blameworthiness.

You are again instructed that you are not to be swayed by mere conjecture, passion, prejudice, public opinion or public feeling in considering all of the evidence before you in answering Special

4.

You are instructed that if the jury returns an affirmative answer to Special Issue No. 1 and a negative answer to Special Issue No. 2, the Court will sentence the defendant to death. Should you return a negative answer to Special Issue No. 1 or an affirmative answer to Special Issue No. 2, the Court will sentence the defendant to confinement in the Institutional Division of the Texas Department of Criminal Justice for life without parole.

A defendant sentenced to confinement for life without parole is ineligible for release from the Department of Criminal Justice on parole.

You are instructed that if there is any testimony before you in this case regarding the defendant's having committed offenses other than the offense alleged against him in the indictment in this case, you cannot consider said testimony for any purpose unless you find and believe beyond a reasonable doubt that the defendant committed such other offenses, if any were committed, and even then you may only consider the same in determining the answers to the Special Issues.

б.

You are instructed that a witness may be impeached by showing that he has previously been convicted of a felony offense or a crime involving moral turpitude. Such impeachment evidence may be considered by you to aid you in determining (if it does) the weight, if any, to be given the testimony of the witness at trial and his credibility.

T

Our law provides that a defendant may testify in his own behalf if he elects to do so. This, however, is a right afforded to a defendant, and in the event he elects not to testify, that fact cannot be taken as a circumstance against him. In this case, the defendant has elected not to testify, and you are instructed that you cannot and must not refer or allude to that fact throughout your deliberations or take it into consideration for any purpose whatsoever as a circumstance against the defendant.

8.

You are charged that it is only from the witness stand that the jury is permitted to receive evidence regarding the case, and no juror is permitted to communicate to any other juror anything he might have heard regarding the case from any source other than the witness stand.

In deliberating on this case you are not to refer to any matter or issue not in evidence before you; nor talk about this case to anyone not of your jury.

You are instructed that your answers to the Special Issues shall be arrived at by due deliberation and not by drawing lots or by any other method of chance.

You are the exclusive judges of the facts proved, of the credibility of the witnesses and of the weight to be given to the testimony, but you are bound to receive the law from the Court, which is herein given you, and be governed thereby.

Charles Sandoval, Judge 380th Judicial District Court Collin County, Texas

SPECIAL ISSUE NO. 1

Do you find from the evidence beyond a reasonable doubt that there is a probability that the defendant, Kosoul Chanthakoummane, would commit criminal acts of violence that would constitute a continuing threat to society?

ANSWER: YES

Presiding Juror

If your answer to this Special Issue is "No", and is not unanimous, then the 10 or more jurors who agree should sign individually below.

IF YOUR ANSWER TO SPECIAL ISSUE NO. 1 IS "YES", YOU SHALL PROCEED TO SPECIAL ISSUE NO. 2. IF YOUR ANSWER TO SPECIAL ISSUE NO. 1 IS "NO", YOU SHALL CEASE YOUR DELIBERATIONS.

SPECIAL ISSUE NO. 2

Do you find from the evidence, taking into consideration all of the evidence, including the circumstances of the offense, the defendant's character and background, and the personal moral culpability of the defendant, Kosoul Chanthakoummane, that there is a sufficient mitigating circumstance or circumstances to warrant a sentence of life imprisonment without parole rather than a death sentence be imposed?
