1 (Meeting reconvened at 1:35 p.m.)
2 CHAIRMAN BABCOCK: Back on the 3 record. All right. This afternoon --
4 everybody is going to want to hear this.
5 We're going to finish off with this 1.3(b).
6 And it's been brought to my attention
7 that we have not quite covered two pages out 8 of 19, and that the subcommittee has got some 9 specific areas that they need help and 10 direction on and they want discussion and 11 think that the Supreme Court would benefit 12 from discussion.
13 So after we finish 1.3(b), we're going to 14 go into specific areas that Justice McClure 15 wants to discuss which are outlined in the 16 Report of the Special Subcommittee on 17 Implementation of Family Code Chapter 33. And 18 Ann and I have divided them up into areas of 19 importance.
20 So back to 1.3(b), Version A, and Richard 21 Orsinger had a comment.
22 MR. ORSINGER: I would like to 23 remove the word "opinion" from (b)(3) so that 24 the appellate courts are free to issue 25 opinions about their appellate decisions that

Page 237

1 maintain the anonymity of whoever is to be 2 anonymous. And I'm not trying to take a
3 position on whether that ought to include 4 judges or not. I'm just trying to protect the 5 common law concept of stare decisis in 6 developing case law.
7 CHAIRMAN BABCOCK: Well, is that 8 opinion a court document pertaining to the 9 proceedings?
10 MR. ORSINGER: Definitely.
11 CHAIRMAN BABCOCK: Well, then if 12 that's true, doesn't that run afoul of 13 subparagraph (k) of Section 1?
14 MR. ORSINGER: I hate to say yes
15 because that concedes my point, but it does 16 appear to conflict.
17 MR. PEMBERTON: Richard, in 18 fairness, the appellate provisions refer only 19 to rulings. They don't have -- there's not 20 the counterpart to what you see in 1.3(b).
21 MR. ORSINGER: Good point. Thank 22 you. Bob has kept me from hitting the ground 23 hard.
24 MR. PEMBERTON: I'm not taking a
25 position either. I'm just trying to make sure

1 we're accurate.

2 MR. ORSINGER: Under 33.004(c),

3 which appears to be a separate rule that

4 applies to appeals, they only talk about

5 rulings. And rulings arguably include just

6 judgments, and judgments at the appellate

7 level are separate from opinions. And

8 opinions are the guidance we all look to 9 anyway.

10 CHAIRMAN BABCOCK: So do you think

11 subparagraph (k) is only applicable to the 12 trial court notwithstanding that they refer to 13 court proceedings?

14 MR. ORSINGER: Well, they separately

15 refer to appeals, so I think an argument can 16 be made that Section 33.003 does not relate to 17 what's in Section 33.004.

18 CHAIRMAN BABCOCK: Judge Brister.

19 HON. SCOTT A. BRISTER: My proposal

20 would be, if you look at both the statute,

21 33.003(k), and this one side by side, as I

22 understand it, nobody has a problem with

23 (b)(1). Then I would just pick up from (k),

24 and (b)(2) would be the second sentence of 25 (k), "The court proceedings shall be conducted

1 in a manner that protects the anonymity of the 2 minor." Part (3) is the next sentence, "The 3 application and all other court documents,"

4 dropping out the stuff about the reporter

5 notes. And (4) would be an order of the 6 court, the person of -- (l) would be (4), an

7 order of the court issued under these rules,

8 can be released only to the people, quoting

9 from the statute.

10 The reason for that is, again, that when 11 the hypothetical attorney stands up to 12 challenge the constitutionality of any of 13 these rules and says, "You all just adopted

14 them," the response is, "We just adopted what

15 the Legislature told us to adopt," or "We just 16 approved rules that said exactly what the 17 Legislature said to say, no more and no

18 less."

19 And then the same indication that arises

20 from adding things to this clarifying it. I

21 understand it's kind of chicken just to quote

22 it. But again, if you add to it, clarify it,

23 then I think that's a different thing. And 24 then it's hard to say we weren't making a

25 policy decision when you added to or clarified

1 stuff. I think you have made a policy

2 decision when you adopt it.

3 CHAIRMAN BABCOCK: Justice McClure,

4 what's your reaction to that?

5 HON. ANN CRAWFORD McCLURE: Well,

6 part of this discussion involves the appellate

7 procedure, which, as I mentioned before, there

8 is little or no guidance in the statute itself

9 as to how these are to be conducted. We know

10 that the notice of appeal will be filed in 11 fact to the appellate clerk. We know that the 12 appellate court is expected to rule within

13 approximately 48 hours.

14 The decisions on confidentiality, though,

15 also apply in the appellate court. For 16 example, if we're not going to distinguish

17 between rulings and opinions, and the court

18 decides they want to issue a written opinion,

19 number one, it's going to reflect the county,

20 in all likelihood, that the lawsuit came from 21 or the application came from. It's going to 22 identify the trial judge. It's going to

23 identify the panel of the court of appeals

24 that is rendering the order.

25 We're also being unrealistic to expect

1 the appellate courts to issue written opinions

2 within 48 hours. Most of the courts have --

3 in both the Judicial Conference and in calls

4 to my office -- have been worried about how

5 this process is going to take place.

6 It's also problematic to think that the 7 Supreme Court, in instances where we affirmed

8 the trial court's denial, is going to have the 9 benefit of any sort of analysis of our

10 decision making process if all they get is a

11 little one-page, two-paragraph order, check

12 here affirm, check here reverse.

13 So I want everyone to understand that

14 clearly the statute itself contains none of 15 these proceedings on the appellate process.

16 What we tried to do was bring reality to the 17 project and figure out what we're supposed to 18 do with it. And that's the main issue, when

19 we get to that subject, that I want everybody

20 to consider for guidance, because we're not

21 going to have briefing opportunities or oral

22 argument opportunities or well-researched,

23 reasoned written opinions coming out on this.

24 HON. SCOTT A. BRISTER: Can't you

25 do -- for instance, what was the case with the

1 temporary injunction at the Republican
 2 contention? You issue the order saying the 3 Log Cabin Republicans have no right to be 4 there at the convention, opinion to follow.
 5 HON. ANN CRAWFORD McCLURE: Well,
 6 that's what these rules implicate. What we've 7 suggested was this: You rule by your order
 8 within the time frame in the statute. If you 9 are reversing the trial court's denial so that 10 there is a grant of her right, there will be 11 no appeal to the Supreme Court. So the time
 12 frame is not so critical.
 13 If you are affirming the denial and it's 14 going to go to the Supreme Court, we created 15 an arbitrary deadline in our subcommittee of 16 10 business days after the notice of appeal
 17 was filed. That was after a rather lengthy 18 discussion with Judge Baker, who had been on 19 the Dallas court; on my court; we had input 20 from Judge Schneider; we had input from the 21 Austin court on is it realistic to expect that 22 these courts can circulate and get a consensus 23 of opinion within 10 business days? A lot of 24 courts have a full circulation policy, which 25 means the opinion circulates to every member

1 out. And maybe what we ought to do, as Scott 2 says, is break it down into sections and have 3 a separate paragraph relating to the appellate 4 procedure where we use the language in the 5 statute, subsection (c), that the ruling of a 6 court of the appeals is confidential and 7 privileged, and we go ahead and later on 8 permit a delayed publication of the opinion.
 9 HON. ANN CRAWFORD McCLURE: But that 10 is contained within the rules relating to the 11 appellate process.
 12 MR. ORSINGER: Well, except if you
 13 leave "opinion" in here, right here, it 14 arguably doesn't allow the appellate courts to 15 publish an opinion.
 16 MR. PEMBERTON: It is set up that 17 way.
 18 CHAIRMAN BABCOCK: That's the way
 19 it's set up.
 20 MR. ORSINGER: I think you need to 21 take the word "opinion" out of here to leave 22 that prospect.
 23 HON. ANN CRAWFORD McCLURE: Well,
 24 Version A contemplates that the opinion will 25 not be published.

1 of the court regardless of whether they're on 2 the panel. In the larger courts that can be a
 3 problem.
 4 So the overwhelming consideration you
 5 have to make first is, do we want to create 6 unique appellate rules that are going to apply 7 to these proceedings to give guidance to the 8 intermediate courts? Or do you want to be 9 silent, and then figure out what we're going 10 to do with the time frame? You have to decide 11 what your purpose is, or what you expect the 12 purpose to be.
 13 HON. SCOTT A. BRISTER: But not 14 necessarily in this provision. I'm not saying 15 there shouldn't be some appellate timetable, 16 I'm just saying this section on 17 confidentiality, in my view, just ought to 18 quote from the statute.
 19 HON. ANN CRAWFORD McCLURE: But what 20 I understood Richard's comment to be was to 21 leave opinions in there. Richard, isn't that 22 what you said?
 23 CHAIRMAN BABCOCK: No, he wanted to 24 take it out.
 25 MR. ORSINGER: I want to take it

1 MR. ORSINGER: I know. That's why I
 2 would like to remove the word "opinion." That 3 way we're free to do something sensible to 4 have appellate review of trial courts that 5 develop some kind of law about how the trial 6 courts ought to discharge their 7 responsibility.
 8 CHAIRMAN BABCOCK: Alex Albright.
 9 PROFESSOR ALBRIGHT: How do you
 10 publish an opinion and make the ruling 11 confidential?
 12 MR. PEMBERTON: That's what bothered
 13 the subcommittee.
 14 PROFESSOR ALBRIGHT: I think to 15 follow the statute, you can't do that. And I 16 think we've got to follow the statute.
 17 HON. SCOTT A. BRISTER: On a lot of 18 issues they could.
 19 PROFESSOR ALBRIGHT: And then Paul
 20 Wattler and his client can sue whoever to get 21 a copy of the opinion, and then the Supreme 22 Court has to deal with it.
 23 HON. SCOTT A. BRISTER: All these 24 questions about case or controversy, about 25 does ruling mean opinion, you could write that

1 opinion without saying how this case comes 2 out. You could write about the procedure and 3 say that this is what the procedure is going 4 to be and this part of the procedure is 5 unconstitutional without saying how this case 6 came out.
 7 PROFESSOR ALBRIGHT: Well, then it's 8 not an opinion. Then you're really doing what 9 Scott McCown has been saying, which is true, 10 that this is not a case and opinion deal, this 11 is an agency administrative proceeding. And 12 you have the second level of administrative 13 people then issuing guidelines.
 14 Mr. Edwards points out in Rule 47, it
 15 says if you're going to write an opinion, it 16 has to address every issue.
 17 HON. SCOTT A. BRISTER: That doesn't 18 mean you can't -- I've had opinions where the 19 part where I was reversed was published and 20 the part where I was affirmed was not 21 published, which I think ought to be 22 unconstitutional. But you could write about 23 all the opinions and publish the part that has 24 to do with how these rules apply without 25 showing how anything came out. I'm convinced

1 the appellate judges in this room could do
 2 it. Don't shake your head, Sarah.
 3 CHAIRMAN BABCOCK: Well, it seems to 4 me that the question is whether or not 5 striking the word "opinion" runs afoul of the 6 'Legislature, either its precise language or 7 the intent of the legislation.
 8 MR. ORSINGER: I think that the 9 statutory provision that a ruling is 10 confidential and privileged means you can't 11 get a copy of the judgment. I don't think 12 that that means that the reasoning that goes 13 into their arriving at the decision can't ever 14 be revealed. I think that's a defensible 15 interpretation of this.
 16 PROFESSOR ALBRIGHT: Yeah. But you 17 can't write an opinion that we always know of 18 and publish the opinion without disclosing the 19 ruling. You have to do it in some very 20 different fashion. And it seems to me that we 21 need to make it -- we have to say in here the 22 ruling is confidential. And then if the 23 San Antonio Court of Appeals wants to have 24 some rules where they issue guidelines based 25 upon cases that have come before them, they

1 can do that.
 2 CHAIRMAN BABCOCK: Well, Justice
 3 McClure, do you accept Richard's request to 4 strike the word "opinion"?
 5 HON. ANN CRAWFORD McCLURE: No.
 6 CHAIRMAN BABCOCK: Okay. Let's have 7 a quick vote on that. How many people are in 8 favor of Richard's proposal to strike the word 9 "opinion" from subsection (b)(3)?
 10 How many against?
 11 24 to six against, it fails.
 12 Okay. Now, what about Judge Brister's
 13 idea of tracking the language of the statute 14 in subparagraphs (k) and (c), rather than the 15 somewhat different language that is found in 16 our draft, subparagraph (b) on 17 confidentiality? Justice McClure, do you 18 accept or reject that idea?
 19 HON. ANN CRAWFORD McCLURE: I reject
 20 it.
 21 CHAIRMAN BABCOCK: Okay. How many 22 people are in favor of -- 23 HON. TOM LAWRENCE: Could you
 24 restate how it's going to be phrased?
 25 CHAIRMAN BABCOCK: Judge Brister,

1 let me try, or you can try yourself. Go
 2 ahead.
 3 HON. SCOTT A. BRISTER: Well (b)(1)
 4 would be as is. (b)(2) would be the second 5 sentence of 33.004, subparagraph (k), "Court
 6 proceedings shall be conducted in a manner
 7 that protects the anonymity of the minor."
 8 Then part (b)(3) would be the application
 9 language continuing in that subparagraph (k), 10 "The application and all other court 11 documents pertaining to the proceedings are 12 confidential and privileged and not subject to 13 disclosure under Chapter 552, Government Code, 14 or to discovery, subpoena, or other legal 15 process."
 16 And then (4) would be from subparagraph
 17 (I), "An order of the court issued under this 18 section is confidential and privileged and is 19 not subject to disclosure under 552,
 20 Government Code, or discovery, subpoena, or 21 other legal process. The order may not be 22 released" -- or "the order may be released
 23 only to" -- and then leaving the (A), (B), 24 (C), (D) and (E) as they are in the 25 subcommittee draft.

1 CHAIRMAN BABCOCK: And are you going 2 to also have the ruling of the court of 3 appeals issued under this section? You 4 wouldn't do that?
 5 HON. SCOTT A. BRISTER: I would 6 track the statute. Because again, the idea is 7 not to -- I don't think we should be giving 8 our interpretation of whether "ruling" means 9 "opinion" or not. I think that ought to be 10 decided after somebody has more time to brief
 11 and think about it. We ought to just quote a 12 new paragraph from (c), "A ruling of the court 13 of appeals is confidential and privileged."
 14 Just quote from the statute. And then when 15 people have time -- I assume what will happen 16 is then, in that instance, the court of 17 appeals, some might give notice that they were 18 going to publish it; some might not.
 19 Obviously, nobody would publish it in any way 20 that would disclose who the minor was, because 21 the rules and the statute will be clear about 22 that, but as to whether people could fight out 23 on mandamuses, or whatever they wanted to, 24 about whether that means the opinion is 25 published or not.

1 CHAIRMAN BABCOCK: All right. Is 2 everybody clear on what Judge Brister is 3 proposing? Justice McClure does not accept 4 it, so what we're doing is voting on whether 5 or not we like Judge Brister's proposal and 6 will so advise the Supreme Court.
 7 MR. ORSINGER: Chip, can I ask one
 8 thing? It appears that the statute does not 9 require that the Supreme Court not issue an 10 opinion or even keep its judgment
 11 confidential, unless I'm misreading this. And 12 if that's correct, that the statute doesn't 13 require this kind of confidentiality at the 14 Supreme Court level, then we shouldn't have a 15 rule that imposes that requirement on the 16 Supreme Court.
 17 HON. ANN CRAWFORD McCLURE: In 18 subsection (f), "An expedited confidential
 19 appeal shall be available to any pregnant 20 minor to whom a court of appeals denies an 21 order authorizing the minor to consent to the 22 performance of an abortion without 23 notification."
 24 MR. ORSINGER: Does that mean to you 25 the same thing that (c) means about how the

1 ruling is confidential and privileged?
 2 HON. ANN CRAWFORD McCLURE: It
 3 doesn't even refer to the Supreme Court, but 4 that is obviously the implication. It is 5 33.004(f).
 6 MR. ORSINGER: I think it's a
 7 stretch to say that (f) means that (c) applies
 8 to the Supreme Court. And your rule
 9 definitely treats the Supreme Court the same 10 as the court of appeals.
 11 HON. SCOTT A. BRISTER: My point is 12 just that either one of you may be right, but 13 we shouldn't try to vote on that today. The 14 statute is ambiguous. We ought to leave it 15 ambiguous, and let the process work it out.
 16 MR. TIPPS: But the mandate of the 17 Legislature was that the Supreme Court come up 18 with rules that will ensure confidentiality.
 19 And my response to Judge Brister would be that 20 we have had a committee that has sat down and 21 thought about it, and that's Judge McClure's 22 committee.
 23 CHAIRMAN BABCOCK: Yes. And that's 24 why we're giving substantial deference to her 25 accepting or rejecting. So this is really

1 only a vote on what we put into our report to 2 the Court. We're not going to physically
 3 change the language of the rule, even if Judge
 4 Brister's proposal is accepted. Yes, sir.
 5 MR. HAMILTON: Section 2 also says
 6 "such rules as may be necessary," and if 7 they're not necessary, we ought not do them.
 8 CHAIRMAN BABCOCK: Yes, Bonnie.
 9 MS. WOLBRUECK: I just noted on 10 number (1) where it says, "Court personnel 11 must ensure that the minor's contact with the 12 clerk and court remains confidential." Could 13 that be interpreted as placing additional 14 duties on other court personnel like bailiffs 15 or court reporters to ensure that the clerk or 16 the court are handling things confidentially?
 17 HON. ANN CRAWFORD McCLURE: That was 18 not the intention.
 19 MS. WOLBRUECK: I'm just wondering, 20 the way the wording is, could it be 21 interpreted like that? I'm just questioning
 22 if it needs to be reworded.
 23 HON. ANN CRAWFORD McCLURE: There
 24 was some concern about -- particularly in more 25 rural areas, if you've got additional people

1 in the clerk's office, ensuring that the clerk
 2 takes steps to ensure the deputy clerks also 3 understand the nature of the proceeding. That 4 was the intent.

5 MS. WOLBRUECK: Yeah. And I was 6 wondering if court personnel must ensure,
 7 wondering if that's placing additional duties 8 maybe on other court personnel besides the 9 clerk's office.

10 HON. ANN CRAWFORD McCLURE: There
 11 was also some concern, based on the incidents 12 in Tarrant County, that if we allowed these to 13 be filed with the local court coordinator, 14 that we wanted the language to be broad enough 15 so that the court coordinator, who may not be 16 a deputy clerk, would also be responsible to 17 ensure the confidentiality, if it is filed 18 with her.

19 MR. ORSINGER: Chip, over on Page 8,
 20 Paragraph 2.2(a), Bonnie, on where you file, 21 they list under "Clerk's Duties," they say 22 "The clerk or other court personnel with whom 23 the application is to be filed," so you could 24 literally hand one of these to a bailiff and 25 probably be filing it.

1 MS. WOLBRUECK: Yeah. And we have 2 questioned that also, and I know that Justice
 3 McClure has a concern also.

4 CHAIRMAN BABCOCK: Okay. Let's vote
 5 on Judge Brister's proposal. Everybody in 6 favor of it raise their hand, please.
 7 All against, please.

8 Judge Brister's proposal passes 18 to 12.

9 So Bob, we'll have to note that it's the 10 recommendation of this committee that 11 Paragraph 1.3(b) be revised in accordance with 12 what Judge Brister articulated, which was to 13 leave (b)(1) the same, and to replace the 14 language in (b)(2), (3) and (4) with the 15 language that tracks from the statute.

16 All right. Richard.

17 MR. ORSINGER: I'd like to draw 18 attention to (b)(4), if in fact it stays in 19 there. In the first line, where we talk about 20 guardian, throughout these rules they use the 21 word "guardian," but in the form they use the 22 word "legal guardian" when they say "without 23 requiring the consent of the parents or legal 24 guardian or managing conservator."
 25 I think it clarifies to call it a legal

1 guardian to differentiate from guardian ad
 2 litem. And I would move that we substitute
 3 "legal" everywhere that we're talking about 4 the probate court appointed guardian.

5 HON. ANN CRAWFORD McCLURE: That's 6 fine.

7 CHAIRMAN BABCOCK: Justice McClure
 8 accepts that. Is anybody opposed to that? So 9 we'll insert the word "legal" in subparagraph 10 1.3(b)(4) and anywhere else in the rule that 11 similar language appears. Okay, Bob? Good.
 12 Richard.

13 MR. ORSINGER: Since you're going to 14 submit the minority report to the Supreme 15 Court, can we comment on drafting issues in 16 Alternative B, the minority report?

17 CHAIRMAN BABCOCK: Briefly.

18 MR. ORSINGER: Okay. On Paragraph 19 (5), you talk about the public is entitled to 20 secure records. And since there is no such 21 thing as "the public," I think you ought to 22 you say something like a person, any person.
 23 And throughout this provision they talk 24 about the judgment entry, like in (5)(C), "The 25 judgment entry." I think it's used on four

1 different pages in here. But in other parts
 2 we use "judgment," and in other parts we use
 3 "order." I think we need to be consistent 4 throughout. It's either a judgment, which is 5 what the form says it is, or it's an order.
 6 And I've never heard of a "judgment entry,"
 7 and this must be Ohio law or something, but I
 8 would suggest that we be consistent and use
 9 the Texas phrase.

10 And then over on Page 5, paragraph (iii),
 11 "If disclosure is unavoidable." It says, 12 "If, in the judgment of the court," and that 13 gets very confusing to me, because the 14 judgment of the court in this context is 15 usually the written decision. And I would 16 just suggest that we say, "If the court 17 determines that it's impossible to release an 18 opinion." And then furthermore on paragraph 19 (iii), where, if the court decides you can't 20 preserve anonymity, you never tell the court
 21 then to deny the request to publish. And it 22 seems to me the first thing you ought to do is 23 tell the court, then, deny publication, and at 24 the same time put in there the grounds for why 25 you denied it.

1 I'm not putting that up for a vote, I'm 2 just putting that in the record.
 3 CHAIRMAN BABCOCK: Okay.
 4 MR. HAMILTON: Did Judge Brister's
 5 motion include 33.004(c) or not?
 6 CHAIRMAN BABCOCK: Yes, it did.
 7 MR. HAMILTON: I thought it did not.
 8 CHAIRMAN BABCOCK: No, it did.
 9 MR. HAMILTON: About the ruling in a 10 court of appeals?
 11 CHAIRMAN BABCOCK: Right.
 12 MR. HAMILTON: It did include that 13 also?
 14 CHAIRMAN BABCOCK: I believe it
 15 did.
 16 HON. SCOTT A. BRISTER: Well, I
 17 intended it to.
 18 CHAIRMAN BABCOCK: Okay. Anybody
 19 else? Yes, Justice Duncan.
 20 HON. SARAH B. DUNCAN: 1.3(b)(2), 21 the last sentence, was that intended to give 22 the court reporter discretion as to where his 23 or her notes are to be filed?
 24 HON. ANN CRAWFORD McCLURE: It's to 25 ensure that they're not inadvertently

1 disclosed, that they're kept with the
 2 proceedings.
 3 HON. SARAH B. DUNCAN: But it says
 4 "may," and my question is, is it intended to 5 convey "may" or "must"?
 6 CHAIRMAN BABCOCK: Or shall?
 7 HON. SARAH B. DUNCAN: We can't use
 8 "shall" anymore. We have to use "must."
 9 HON. ANN CRAWFORD McCLURE: My 10 thinking is that we meant to say must. But 11 Cindy is not in here, and she actually drafted 12 that language, but that was -- oh, there you 13 are.
 14 CHAIRMAN BABCOCK: Quit moving
 15 around.
 16 HON. ANN CRAWFORD McCLURE: Wasn't 17 that your intention, so that it would be kept 18 with the records?
 19 MS. GROOMER: The court reporters
 20 had a concern that some of the confidentiality 21 did not expressly extend to them through the 22 rules. And by them being able to file their 23 court reporter notes with the clerk, similar 24 to the way they file them in criminal cases, 25 that would annex those reporter notes into the

1 record and they would be kept confidential.
 2 But they did not want it to be a requirement 3 of the court order to file that with the 4 clerk, because some court reporters want to 5 maintain the security of their own notes. So 6 that's why we chose the word "may" there 7 instead of "must."
 8 CHAIRMAN BABCOCK: Is that 9 acceptable?
 10 MR. EDWARDS: I'm not sure that's 11 satisfactory, because I've run into court 12 reporters that are pretty loose with their 13 notes.
 14 HON. F. SCOTT McCOWN: But the 15 contrary problem is that a lot of clerks
 16 offices can't be trusted. They lose them. I 17 mean, lots of things are lost in our clerk's 18 office and can never be found again.
 19 MR. EDWARDS: They only have to keep 20 it for 48 hours when it makes any difference.
 21 HON. SARAH B. DUNCAN: They have to 22 keep it for two years after majority, or the 23 termination of the proceeding.
 24 HON. ANN CRAWFORD McCLURE: Yeah, we 25 opposed retention requirements in here.

1 CHAIRMAN BABCOCK: Must or may?
 2 HON. ANN CRAWFORD McCLURE: May.
 3 CHAIRMAN BABCOCK: Okay. Does
 4 anybody want to put a vote on "must"? Sarah,
 5 do you want to? Okay. So it stays "may."
 6 MR. JACKSON: Chip, can I bring 7 something up just while we're on this?
 8 CHAIRMAN BABCOCK: Sure.
 9 MR. JACKSON: The "court reporter's
 10 notes" is really sort of an old term now. I 11 mean, those notes that I write on my machine, 12 I often leave them in New York, if I'm taking 13 depositions there, or whenever I am. The 14 important thing is not what's in that tray, 15 it's what's in that box on the disk. And the 16 court reporter's notes don't mean anything.
 17 HON. F. SCOTT McCOWN: Well, but 18 they do for an official, because the statute 19 requires the official to keep those notes.
 20 MR. JACKSON: But I haven't looked 21 at a piece of paper in 15 years.
 22 HON. F. SCOTT McCOWN: But the 23 officials keep them. I mean, we've got them 24 in a locker. They're in a whole file and 25 they're locked up. So to the official court

1 reporter, that may mean something there.
 2 HON. SAMUEL A. MEDINA: Chip, I
 3 don't remember if we said something to that 4 effect, but I think that was brought up.
 5 Court reporter's notes, I don't know if it's 6 in a comment or something, something about it 7 meant anything that they would record, whether 8 it be a disk, whether it be -- I remember some 9 things, some discussion about that. And the 10 reason we didn't want to say just a disk was 11 because who know what we'll have a year from 12 now, three years from now, five years from 13 now. And so the comment -- I think there was 14 something about a comment, wasn't there, Bob?
 15 HON. ANN CRAWFORD McCLURE: We 16 discussed it, but we didn't put it in the 17 comment.
 18 HON. SAMUEL A. MEDINA: Okay. We 19 discussed it, but we did not put it in a 20 comment. But we discussed that issue, and to 21 limit, say, something else that we might have 22 now, but what about three years from now?
 23 Five years from now? Do we come back and redo
 24 it?
 25 CHAIRMAN BABCOCK: David, is there a

1 broader term that court reporters would 2 understand?
 3 MR. JACKSON: Well, we got into this 4 debate on the discovery process, appellate 5 process, the TRAP process, about the court
 6 reporter's record. And you know, "the record"
 7 conflicts with what Bonnie is putting together 8 as the the record. But "the record" in our 9 sense means whatever we're preparing for that 10 statement of facts, whether it be the disk or 11 the paper. However the court reporter puts it 12 together, it's his record. His record is in 13 his box on that disk. His record is not in 14 that tray.
 15 CHAIRMAN BABCOCK: What if we said,
 16 "To assure confidentiality, court reporter 17 notes, in whatever form," how does that 18 sound?
 19 HON. ANN CRAWFORD McCLURE: That's 20 fine. The court reporter that visited with 21 our subcommittee wanted to be sure that, if 22 the diskette happened to be put with the court
 23 files, that there was still some precaution 24 for the other notes to ensure confidentiality.
 25 MR. BABCOCK: Is anybody

1 opposed to that, if it reads, "To assure 2 confidentiality, court reporter notes, in 3 whatever form, may be filed with other court
 4 documents in the proceeding?" Does that solve 5 your problem, David?
 6 MR. JACKSON: Sure. Well, it gets 7 you what you want.
 8 CHAIRMAN BABCOCK: Okay. Does
 9 anybody have any problem with that? Okay.
 10 Anything else about that rule that anybody
 11 wants to talk about?
 12 MR. PEMBERTON: So we're tracking
 13 the statute --
 14 CHAIRMAN BABCOCK: No. No, we're 15 not.
 16 MR. PEMBERTON: -- but adding the 17 court reporter notes by using this language.
 18 CHAIRMAN BABCOCK: What we're doing
 19 is we're telling the Supreme Court that a 20 majority of this committee disagrees with the 21 subcommittee with respect to 1.3(b), 22 subparagraph (b), in that this committee, by 23 an 18 to 12 vote, believes that, rather than 24 the language that's here, the language ought 25 to track the statute in the way that Judge

1 Brister articulated.
 2 All right. If you all will take out the 3 eight-page report on the Special Subcommittee, 4 there are topics that the subcommittee needs
 5 input from us on, and accordingly, the Supreme 6 Court would as well. And to ensure that we 7 deal with all these topics and don't get 8 bogged down in other issues of lesser 9 importance, given our time constraints, let's 10 go to Page 5, which has Paragraph D, "Where an 11 Application May Be Filed." And while you're 12 looking over those couple or three paragraphs, 13 Ann will tell us what the issue is here.
 14 HON. ANN CRAWFORD McCLURE: Under 15 the statute, the application can be filed in 16 the district court, county court at law, a 17 court having probate jurisdiction. A number 18 of the probate judges have expressed their 19 personal opinion that, unless the minor is 20 involved in a guardianship proceeding or some 21 other proceeding in their probate court, that 22 they are not to be involved in these 23 decisions. As you might expect, the general 24 jurisdiction judges don't think that is an 25 appropriate reading of the statute.

1 So the concept of the rule was to clarify
 2 that any of these particular judges have 3 jurisdiction to make these rulings, a district
 4 judge, a family district judge, county court
 5 at law, and a court having probate
 6 jurisdiction. And we put that point into the 7 comment to the probate judges.
 8 The other issue that we had to address is 9 associate judges that are routinely used in 10 all the major metropolitan areas with the 11 exception, I think, of San Antonio. I don't 12 know if you all are using associate judges.
 13 Lots of locations are. They hear 14 traditionally all of the temporary hearings in 15 divorce, if it's affecting the parent-child 16 relationship; they can hear contempt matters.
 17 Under the new statute, they can now hear jury 18 trials. They have a number of roles that they 19 play under the Family Code, but they are only 20 authorized by the code itself to handle
 21 matters arising under Title 1, 4 or 5. This 22 is a Title 2 proceeding. So our rules do not 23 contemplate that associate judges will be 24 making these decisions.
 25 There was also some concern about how you

1 go about handling the filing of the 2 application. Are we going to mandate a 3 statewide implementation scheme, or allow the 4 local administrative judicial councils to make 5 that decision?
 6 And we have left that decision making
 7 process to the local areas. Whether they want 8 them all filed with the district clerk, 9 whether they want them all filed with the 10 county clerk, whether they will let them be 11 filed with the individual judge's clerk, it 12 needs to be made on a local basis. And so we 13 have not defined exactly where the application
 14 will be filed. We refer to the clerk or other 15 court personnel.
 16 And I want you to be aware that that was 17 the thought process of the committee.
 18 CHAIRMAN BABCOCK: Let's just stick 19 with where the application may be filed, and 20 that applies to Rule 2.1, does it not?
 21 HON. ANN CRAWFORD McCLURE: Uh-huh.
 22 Well, it says "courts in which applications 23 may be filed." It doesn't designate a 24 facility, and that's why.
 25 CHAIRMAN BABCOCK: That's why.

1 Okay. If everybody will turn to Rule 2.1 of 2 Rule 2, Application to Trial Court for Order
 3 Bypassing Parental Notification Requirement.
 4 Rule 2.1 is "How to File an Application."
 5 Given what Justice McClure has said, does 6 anybody have comments on Rule 2.1?
 7 MR. EDWARDS: On the first part,
 8 (a), where it says "may be filed in," it 9 probably makes sense that, if we're going to 10 follow the statute, we ought to insert "any" 11 after "in," just like the statute says.
 12 CHAIRMAN BABCOCK: So it would read,
 13 Bill, under your proposal, "An application may 14 be filed in any: (1), District court,
 15 including family district court; (2)" -- 16 MR. EDWARDS: Which is the exact
 17 language of 33.003(b).
 18 CHAIRMAN BABCOCK: Justice McClure.
 19 HON. ANN CRAWFORD McCLURE: I'm not 20 opposed to that. We reference it "any 21 county," but we don't reference multiple 22 courts within a county. And I don't object to 23 that.
 24 CHAIRMAN BABCOCK: Okay. Does
 25 anybody have opposition? Do you have

1 opposition to that, Alex?
 2 PROFESSOR ALBRIGHT: No, I just have 3 a different comment.
 4 CHAIRMAN BABCOCK: Okay. Is 5 everybody okay with that? Judge Rhea.
 6 HON. BILL RHEA: Well, that doesn't 7 really address the issue which I think was 8 raised in one of these subparagraphs. In our 9 filing system in Dallas County, you file it at 10 the desk downstairs where it's randomly
 11 assigned. Is there a suggestion here that you 12 can pick the court that you want it to be 13 filed in?
 14 HON. ANN CRAWFORD McCLURE: We
 15 debated that. And I think clearly the 16 intention of the subcommittee was that it can 17 be filed with any court. You have the option 18 to file with any court, but that doesn't 19 guarantee that the judge of that particular 20 court will be the judge that will hear the 21 case. That will be decided on a local basis 22 by either local rule approved by the Supreme 23 Court or administrative proceedings in the 24 individual areas.
 25 CHAIRMAN BABCOCK: But Bill's point

1 is that, if you insert the word "any," that 2 means that I could go up to Judge Rhea's court
 3 in either Dallas or Harris County, actually,
 4 with a different spelling, and file it if I
 5 wanted to get Judge Rhea.
 6 HON. BILL RHEA: That's right. And 7 it would completely totally make a mess of our 8 automated filing system, which has got 9 preassigned numbers for cases that have to be 10 filed and randomly assigned.
 11 HON. ANN CRAWFORD McCLURE: Do your 12 local proceedings not allow you to have 13 another judge hear that if it's assigned to 14 your court?
 15 HON. BILL RHEA: Well, any sitting 16 judge can sit for any other sitting judge.
 17 But why would we do that? How are we going to 18 make that random then?
 19 HON. SCOTT A. BRISTER: It depends
 20 on whether you think "any" in the statute
 21 modifies "court" or "any district courts." I 22 agree with Judge Rhea. I think we ought to 23 stick with the committee's original idea.
 24 It's any, but it's filed in district court,
 25 it's not filed -- I don't know even in Harris

1 County if you can file in the 333rd District
 2 Court. I think you just file it in the 3 district court.
 4 HON. BILL RHEA: It would have to be 5 very expressly stated that we are to do that 6 for us to do that.
 7 PROFESSOR ALBRIGHT: It seems to me
 8 that the statute is a jurisdictional statute.
 9 But where you file things under the Rules of 10 Procedure is with the clerks office. And then 11 different counties have local rules about how 12 cases are assigned to different judges or 13 different courts within that county. So if 14 distric courts, county courts at law, and 15 courts having probate jurisdiction including 16 county courts, have jurisdiction, then it 17 seems that different counties could have 18 different arrangements for how those cases are 19 assigned to all those courts with 20 jurisdiction.
 21 HON. ANN CRAWFORD McCLURE: That's 22 exactly what I tried to say not nearly as 23 articulately as you did. I can tell you in 24 El Paso County what they're going to do. It's 25 filed with the district courts and they're

1 going to be kicked to the family courts.
 2 Those are the only judges that are going to 3 hear these cases. Other counties may address
 4 it differently. So all of these courts have 5 the jurisdiction to make the decision, but by 6 local rule you can decide how that's going to 7 be processed with who is going to hear it and 8 in what court it is going to be assigned.
 9 PROFESSOR ALBRIGHT: So isn't it a 10 function of the rule to say that it should be 11 filed with the clerk of the court? Or maybe 12 we don't even have to address it, because 13 those are in the Procedural Rules that are 14 already in place about filing. And then 15 there's also a rule, isn't there, that says
 16 you can file it with a judge?
 17 HON. ANN CRAWFORD McCLURE: That was 18 Tarrant County's concern. They did not want 19 to specify filing it with the clerk or the 20 clerk's office because of the problem they 21 have there. They wanted the flexibility to 22 allow for filing in the particular court.
 23 PROFESSOR ALBRIGHT: So maybe we 24 should leave it alone and not talk about where 25 to file, because jurisdiction is established

1 by statute, and you file where you file under 2 the regular rules. Does that -- I don't 3 know.
 4 CHAIRMAN BABCOCK: Paula.
 5 MS. SWEENEY: Well, there are a lot
 6 of things that can be filed that go straight 7 to the court. With an injunction or a TRO or 8 a motion to perpetuate testimony or pretrial
 9 discovery, pre-filing discovery, you don't go 10 to the district clerk, you can go straight in 11 and select your judge and get your injunction.
 12 CHAIRMAN BABCOCK: Not in every 13 county.
 14 MR. ORSINGER: That's not true with 15 every filing system.
 16 HON. ANN CRAWFORD McCLURE: That's
 17 the problem.
 18 HON. BILL RHEA: It's the deputy 19 district clerk who sits in our court who takes 20 that filing, not the court.
 21 MS. SWEENEY: You can walk the halls
 22 and find a judge to give you pretrial
 23 discovery or pre-filing discovery. You walk in 24 and you say, "I want this order."
 25 CHAIRMAN BABCOCK: Judge McCown and

1 then Richard.

2 HON. F. SCOTT McCOWN: The statute,

3 it seems to me, is pretty clear that you can

4 file it in any court. And I would point out

5 that even the counties that have

6 administratively set up a random filing

7 system, as we have, on occasion break that

8 system.

9 For example, bill of reviews have to be

10 filed in the district court that rendered the 11 original judgment. If a litigant walks in 12 with a bill of review, they say, "File this in 13 the 345th," and the clerk has to do it,

14 regardless of the random assignment process

15 that's been set up.

16 And I'll also point out that the Rules of 17 Procedure allow a judge to accept a document

18 and file it and then require the judge to 19 promptly transmit it to the clerk. So I think

20 they can walk into any court in the state and 21 say, "I want to file this with you."

22 CHAIRMAN BABCOCK: Yeah. If you

23 take all the commas and the paragraphs and 24 everything, this statute says, "The 25 application may be filed in any district court

1 in this state."

2 HON. SCOTT A. BRISTER: No, that's

3 not right. See, if you put "any" before a

4 colon, like in the committee draft, then the 5 "any" goes to any district court, any county

6 court or any court with probate.

7 CHAIRMAN BABCOCK: Right.

8 HON. SCOTT A. BRISTER: But that's 9 not what the statute does. The statute in 10 33.003(b) says it can be filed in any county

11 court, court having probate jurisdiction, or 12 district court. That could be construed as 13 just any one of the following types of court.

14 That's different from having "any" in front of 15 each one of those items.

16 CHAIRMAN BABCOCK: Well, what do you

17 do with the phrase "in this state" then?

18 That's the one that catches you.

19 HON. F. SCOTT McCOWN: I think what

20 the Legislature envisioned is pretty clear,

21 and it's wishful thinking on our part to try

22 to rewrite it. I think Judge McClure's point

23 is, it doesn't matter where it's filed. You

24 can set up by local procedure what judge is 25 going to hear it, and we're going to have to

1 do that, but I don't think we can deprive them

2 of their filing rights.

3 PROFESSOR ALBRIGHT: If they have

4 jurisdiction and somebody walks in and they

5 decide it, they have jurisdiction to do it,

6 right?

7 CHAIRMAN BABCOCK: Did the 8 Legislature in a macro sense envision forum

9 shopping? They did, didn't they?

10 HON. ANN CRAWFORD McClURE: Yes.

11 CHAIRMAN BABCOCK: Because you can

12 go to El Paso, if you want to, even if you're 13 from Dallas. So why wouldn't a reading of 14 this be consistent with "any district court"

15 in this case if that was their intent?

16 HON. SCOTT A. BRISTER: My guess is 17 the judges in Harris County will be very 18 opposed to this.

19 CHAIRMAN BABCOCK: You don't have to 20 guess about that.

21 HON. SCOTT A. BRISTER: This is why

22 we had to change all of our ancillary rules,

23 because of the perception that attorneys file

24 when they know which one of the 59 judges

25 they're going to get and that that is a bad

1 perception and we shouldn't, unless we

2 absolutely -- I mean, if the Legislature says

3 we have to, we have to. But I don't see

4 that. This is broad enough language, we don't

5 have to read it that way. And to go back to a

6 system where all of these show up -- I mean,

7 in Harris County we have one Democratic judge

8 left. If these are all filed in her court, we 9 have a political problem we don't need. This

10 ought to be handled randomly like everything

11 else.

12 HON. F. SCOTT McCOWN: It doesn't

13 mean she has to hear them, if you have a local 14 procedure that determines how they get heard.

15 HON. SCOTT A. BRISTER: But then she 16 or somebody has got to make a ruling. I've

17 got to either reach in her court and grab it

18 or transfer it somewhere. I mean, we're

19 getting into a political problem.

20 MR. YELENOSKY: And all within

21 48 hours.

22 CHAIRMAN BABCOCK: Bill Dorsaneo.

23 PROFESSOR DORSANEO: Well, sometimes

24 we want to embrace the statutory ambiguity and 25 sometimes we don't. A fair reading of this is

1 that it can be filed in any of the enumerated
 2 courts, specific courts, in this state. And I 3 frankly would have a hard time saying that 4 that only is paperwork.
 5 We had venue legislation, you know,
 6 sometime back, and we tried to improve on it 7 in the Rules of Civil Procedure. And when the 8 matters got argued in the Supreme Court at 9 some point later, when the Court's personnel 10 was different, many of us were surprised that 11 the statutory language seemed to be the most 12 important language to the Court, even though 13 the Court's rules said otherwise. And I just 14 think it's a silly idea to try to be changing 15 this from what it says and probably what it 16 means.
 17 HON. BILL RHEA: Well, I have to say
 18 amen to Scott's interpretation. I think it's 19 plain on its face that it means any of these 20 different types of courts. I think you're 21 going to have a problem in El Paso if you 22 relegate it to only family courts. They have 23 the right to have it in civil court or 24 criminal district court or probate court.
 25 There are several discrete areas, but it's

1 not -- this whole idea that there's this 2 absolute forum shopping and you can do 3 anything you want to in any court you want to 4 in the state, that's ridiculous.
 5 We have a system of jurisprudence in 6 place that's working, and this one issue I
 7 don't think was intended to destruct the whole 8 thing.
 9 CHAIRMAN BABCOCK: Justice Duncan.
 10 HON. SARAH B. DUNCAN: Just 11 grammatically, if the intent were to say this 12 type of application can be filed in these 13 types of courts, that's what would have been 14 said. What it does say is, "The application 15 may be filed in any court at law, court having 16 probate jurisdiction, or district court, 17 including family district court, in this 18 state."
 19 CHAIRMAN BABCOCK: Are you reversing
 20 and remanding to those guys?
 21 HON. BILL RHEA: She wouldn't remand
 22 it to me, I don't think.
 23 HON. SARAH B. DUNCAN: I'm agreeing
 24 with Professor Dorsaneo.
 25 CHAIRMAN BABCOCK: Yeah, I knew

1 that.
 2 HON. SARAH B. DUNCAN: Can you tell?
 3 CHAIRMAN BABCOCK: Yeah, I could 4 tell that. Richard.
 5 MR. ORSINGER: I agree that there
 6 ought to be a lot of local autonomy, and I
 7 disagree that you could say only district
 8 courts can accept them in this county and not 9 county courts and not probate courts, but the 10 language in this rule really doesn't say 11 that. It doesn't say you can do that, nor 12 does it say that you can't do that.
 13 CHAIRMAN BABCOCK: Right.
 14 MR. ORSINGER: And either we ought 15 to just stick with vague language like this or 16 we ought to use the statutory language. But 17 are we really debating something of substance 18 here?
 19 HON. ANN CRAWFORD McCLURE: Well,
 20 apparently.
 21 CHAIRMAN BABCOCK: Apparently we 22 are.
 23 MR. ORSINGER: I'm not sure I
 24 understand. Are we arguing over the 25 interpretation of these words, or are we

1 trying to change specific words?
 2 CHAIRMAN BABCOCK: What I think the 3 fight is about is, if we insert the word "any" 4 as it is in the statute into 2.1(a), the 5 introductory sentence, then Judge Rhea and 6 Judge Brister are concerned, and rightly so,
 7 that somebody would view this as license to go
 8 down to Katie Kennedy's court in Harris County 9 and file it with her, because she's the only 10 Democratic judge, as opposed to filing it with 11 the clerk and having it randomly assigned.
 12 That's what they're concern is.
 13 The counter to that is that the statute, 14 in some people's view, is clear and that this 15 rule should track the statutory language which 16 would permit that very thing. So that's what 17 the fight is over.
 18 MR. ORSINGER: If we track the 19 statutory language, then we could just leave 20 it to litigation to decide whether the local 21 presiding system is overridden or not 22 overridden.
 23 CHAIRMAN BABCOCK: Buddy.
 24 MR. LOW: Chip, most people don't 25 care where their lawsuit is filed, they care

1 where it's heard.
 3 right.
 4 MR. LOW: And the Legislature may 5 say it's got to be filed there, but it doesn't 6 say that that court has to hear it. So I 7 don't think they intended to circumvent what 8 the judges are doing, so I think it can be 9 done and heard by anybody. How it's filed 10 doesn't matter.
 11 CHAIRMAN BABCOCK: Okay. I think
 12 this issue has been fully explored. Let's 13 vote on it. The issue was raised by Bill
 14 Edwards, so --
 15 HON. HARVEY G. BROWN, JR.: Can I
 16 just ask about one point?
 17 CHAIRMAN BABCOCK: Yes, sir.
 18 HON. HARVEY G. BROWN, JR.: We've 19 said the local rules can administer who hears 20 it, et cetera. Well, if we think that, maybe 21 we should say that, because otherwise, I think 22 it appears that the court is compelled to hear 23 it in which it's filed. It's not saying that 24 it can be filed in this court but another court
 25 can hear it. Maybe we should say that to tell

1 all the local regions that they can adopt
 2 their own rules under this statute.
 3 CHAIRMAN BABCOCK: Okay. How we 4 vote on "any" may impact whether we do that,
 5 so let's vote on that.
 6 Everybody who is in favor of inserting 7 the word "any" after "An application may be 8 filed in" in Rule 2.1(a) raise their hand.
 9 All right. Everybody opposed. The 10 insertion of "any" carries 19 to 12.
 11 Did you accept that or not?
 12 HON. ANN CRAWFORD McCLURE: I did.
 13 CHAIRMAN BABCOCK: Okay. So it will 14 be inserted.
 15 Now, Judge Brown, do you want to raise an 16 issue of adding some language about local 17 autonomy?
 18 HON. HARVEY G. BROWN, JR.: Yes. I
 19 don't have it in front of me, but something 20 along the lines of "Subject to the local rules 21 determining the particular court that shall 22 hear the matter" -- in other words, if we're 23 going to treat filing as just the act of 24 filing, I want to make that separate from 25 hearing.

1 CHAIRMAN BABCOCK: So you would 2 propose in 2.1(a) putting a semicolon after 3 "to be performed" and saying, "Subject to any 4 local rules regarding or regulating who hears 5 the matter."
 6 HON. ANN CRAWFORD McCLURE: You
 7 might, if you want some suggested language,
 8 you might look at Comment 1. We addressed it
 9 by comment, not by rule.
 10 HON. F. SCOTT McCOWN: Well, didn't 11 we address it by rule? Doesn't Rule 1.1 12 already say that local rules apply to the 13 extent they're not consistent?
 14 CHAIRMAN BABCOCK: Right.
 15 MR. PEMBERTON: Right. And then we 16 cross-referenced back to that in Comment 1 to 17 Rule 2, because that's a particularly 18 important issue, that it may need to be 19 addressed by local rule.
 20 HON. F. SCOTT McCOWN: The only 21 reason I would hesitate to reference the local 22 rules specifically here is because I think the 23 local rules apply throughout to everything, 24 which is what we said in 1.1. And if we 25 reference them specifically here, then that

1 would seem to imply that maybe they don't 2 govern anywhere but there.
 3 CHAIRMAN BABCOCK: Okay. Does that 4 solve your problem, Judge Brown?
 5 HON. HARVEY G. BROWN, JR.: I think
 6 so. At first blush it does.
 7 CHAIRMAN BABCOCK: Okay. While
 8 you're looking, Buddy Low has got a comment.
 9 MR. LOW: It's not just the local 10 rule. One judge without local rule has the 11 power to assign to another judge, and that's 12 not a local rule. So if you're going to refer 13 to assignments, you don't want to limit it to 14 local rules.
 15 MR. PEMBERTON: Comment 1 covers
 16 that. It talks about Chapter 74 of the 17 Government Code, which is the provision for 18 assignment of -- one distinction that the 19 subcommittee focused on that really hasn't 20 been brought up here and I just want to focus 21 on now, there's a distinction between a court
 22 and a judge. Just because a case is in a 23 court doesn't mean that a judge other than the 24 one ordinarily assigned to the court couldn't 25 hear the matter.

1 MR. HAMILTON: By inserting the 2 world "any," do we need to change the form
3 now? Because that top part was to be filled 4 out by court personnel as to the court. Does 5 that now mean the applicant can fill out what 6 court the application gets filed in?
7 CHAIRMAN BABCOCK: Justice McClure.
8 HON. ANN CRAWFORD McCLURE: The
9 subcommittee didn't take a position on that.
10 I suspect if it were brought blank to the 11 court to be filed, then the court personnel in 12 that individual court would fill it out.
13 CHAIRMAN BABCOCK: But you have the 14 instructions there that it's only to be filled 15 out by court personnel.
16 HON. ANN CRAWFORD McCLURE: But 17 whether it's the court clerks office or -- 18 CHAIRMAN BABCOCK: -- the deputy 19 clerk of Judge Rhea's court.
20 HON. ANN CRAWFORD McCLURE: Right.
21 I think they're the individual that would fill 22 it out.
23 CHAIRMAN BABCOCK: By the way, we're 24 talking about 14-year-old kids here. I'm not 25 sure that --

1 MR. HAMILTON: Well, but they may 2 have a lawyer.
3 CHAIRMAN BABCOCK: Yeah, they may 4 have a lawyer. That's true. Richard.
5 MR. ORSINGER: It's not clear to me
6 whether the local random assignment for filing 7 process is still in place. I know that it's 8 the consensus that the random assignment
9 hearing is in place, but in some counties you 10 walk in and they randomly assign the court.
11 Are we allowing that to continue? Or can you 12 pick your court but you just can't pick who 13 hears you?
14 CHAIRMAN BABCOCK: That's exactly
15 what Judge Rhea and Judge Brister were worried 16 about. That's what we just voted on.
17 MR. ORSINGER: You can pick your 18 court to file in? In other words --
19 HON. BILL RHEA: That's what this 20 says.
21 MR. YELENOSKY: I don't think it 22 says that.
23 MR. ORSINGER: Okay. So that means
24 that in Dallas, where they do have random 25 assignment, and even in San Antonio, where we

1 have random assignment, there is no random
2 assignment on these petitions anymore?
3 HON. F. SCOTT McCOWN: Do you
4 randomly assign bills of review?
5 MR. ORSINGER: You know what you're 6 doing --
7 HON. SCOTT A. BRISTER: You randomly
8 assign --
9 MR. YELENOSKY: Because of a
10 specific rule --
11 CHAIRMAN BABCOCK: Whoa, whoa, whoa,
12 guys. Don't talk over each other. Bill can't 13 get any of this.
14 Okay, Judge Brown, you were musing about 15 this?
17 we can make it work.
18 CHAIRMAN BABCOCK: All right. So
19 we're okay on that. Does anybody --
20 MR. ORSINGER: Well, I'd still like 21 to know whether it was the committee's vote 22 that the applicant can pick the court in which 23 it is filed, separate and apart from whether 24 they can pick the court in which it's heard.
25 CHAIRMAN BABCOCK: The committee's

1 vote was 19 to 12 to insert the word "any,"
2 which some people are worried, on both sides
3 of that vote, it might mean just what you 4 said.
5 MR. ORSINGER: So we're not taking a
6 position on that?
7 CHAIRMAN BABCOCK: I don't think 8 that we're taking a position on that, nor 9 should we. Yeah, Nina Cortell.
10 MS. CORTELL: I just want to raise a
11 question, and that is whether the El Paso
12 practice that's being proposed of immediately
13 channeling all the cases to the family court
14 is really contrary to at least the apparent 15 intent of the statute, which is to provide an 16 array of courts to hear it.
17 I understand there's going to have to be 18 some judicial flexibility, but to have this 19 automatic channeling, I think that you're 20 effectively depriving them of the forum.
21 HON. ANN CRAWFORD McCLURE: That's
22 probably going to be litigated. That was done 23 by local rule. Our family courts, all but one 24 of our family courts are not statutorially
25 designated family courts.

1 CHAIRMAN BABCOCK: If there's 2 nothing further about this, then if you'll 3 turn to Page 6 of the report, Paragraph F,
 4 dealing with guardians ad litem. Richard,
 5 you'll love this one. And Justice McClure has 6 got something to say about this, too.
 7 HON. ANN CRAWFORD McCLURE: I just 8 wanted to relate the thinking of the 9 subcommittee. The statute provides that the 10 court can appoint a person who may consent to 11 treatment for the minor, psychologists or 12 psychiatrists, an appropriate employee of 13 DPRS, clergy or other appropriate person as 14 the guardian ad litem.
 15 We had some concerns about whether any 16 one of those individuals that would fit into 17 those categories must otherwise be qualified,
 18 as we think in terms of qualified guardians ad 19 litem to represent children. It was our 20 consensus that we anticipated they would still 21 be qualified. In other words, they need to 22 have some understanding of what the role of an 23 ad litem is, what the responsibilities are.
 24 We refer in the comments to the other
 25 provisions of the Family Code that outline

1 those requirements, and the fact that the ABA
 2 has also implemented a stack of guidelines
 3 that's about that thick (indicating). I have 4 them with me, if you want to see them.
 5 We also had some concern as to what an 6 appropriate person from DPRS meant. And 7 Marilyn, did you want to address that issue?
 8 MS. SCHRAMM: Thank you. I
 9 contributed to the comment that pointed out -- 10 THE REPORTER: Could you identify 11 her, please.
 12 HON. ANN CRAWFORD McCLURE: I'm 13 sorry. This is Marilyn Schramm from the 14 Department of Protective and Regulatory 15 Services.
 16 MS. SCHRAMM: I'm a policy attorney
 17 for CPS. And in discussing the statute with 18 our personnel, as well as interacting with 19 some of the regional attorneys that do family 20 law cases, SAPCRs that we're involved with,
 21 suits affecting parent-child relationship,
 22 they -- a lot of people saw it as a conflict.
 23 So I raised the issue with -- I guess the 24 opinion is, well, probably the most 25 appropriate place for DPRS to get involved is

1 if there was some notion of abuse, because we 2 would want them involved anyway, they're going 3 to be notified, they're going to be 4 investigating, et cetera. Yet that's exactly 5 where they would be following up, where they 6 would be involved in a SAPCR, either
 7 simultaneously or at some other time following 8 after that.
 9 And the lawyers who are commonly 10 appointed as attorney as litem for parents 11 or -- I mean, attorneys for parents or 12 something like that, saw this as a clear 13 conflict. So I asked somebody in the 14 legislative perspective why they wanted DPRS
 15 included. And there was some thought,
 16 possibly mistaken, that DPRS often serves in 17 the role of guardian ad litem.
 18 So I just added a note, a paragraph in 19 the comment that pointed out that caution must 20 be exercised because of the conflict problem, 21 which may not be apparent. The agency itself
 22 may be the managing conservator that the child
 23 is hoping to avoid. And then, you know, I
 24 just wanted to point out that that potential 25 conflict exists at a time when a judge has to

1 make a quick decision to appoint a guardian ad
 2 litem, and yet it won't see the conflict until 3 after the fact.
 4 HON. ANN CRAWFORD McCLURE: And
 5 you'll find her paragraph that she drafted on 6 the top of Page 22 of the annotated rules,
 7 followed by some of the factors that a
 8 guardian ad litem might want to consider.
 9 Some of the other states that have these 10 parental notification statutes have 11 implemented guidelines for their ad litem to 12 use. Rather than mandate them and specify 13 them in the rules, we opted to include 14 reference to some of those in the guidelines.
 15 CHAIRMAN BABCOCK: These are 16 Comments 3 and 4 to Rule 2.3. Alex Albright.
 17 PROFESSOR ALBRIGHT: I have a 18 question. If a minor has an attorney, she 19 comes with the attorney to the court, does the 20 court have to appoint an additional guardian 21 ad litem?
 22 HON. ANN CRAWFORD McCLURE: Yes.
 23 Now, the court has the option to make it the 24 same person.
 25 PROFESSOR ALBRIGHT: So that

1 attorney could volunteer to be the guardian
 2 ad litem them, or not volunteer, sorry, or 3 suggest someone who might be an appropriate 4 guardian ad litem.
 5 HON. ANN CRAWFORD McCLURE: Right.
 6 CHAIRMAN BABCOCK: Justice McClure
 7 is nodding her head, which in depositions we 8 always say "answer out loud."
 9 HON. ANN CRAWFORD McCLURE: Also,
 10 when we drafted the form for the application, 11 we wanted to give the applicant the 12 opportunity to say if there was someone she 13 wanted to serve as her guardian. Is there a 14 grandmother? You may recall, when this was 15 being debated in the Legislature, there were 16 secondary and third-level bypasses that were 17 discussed. Should we let a grandmother
 18 consent? Should we let an adult older sister 19 consent? And that was not approved, but the 20 concept was, by allowing these other 21 individuals to be appointed as ad litem, we 22 could accomplish much of that same effort.
 23 CHAIRMAN BABCOCK: Steve.
 24 MR. YELENOSKY: Just a point of 25 order or a question. I know we've moved from

1 going section to section to going through the 2 Subcommittee Report as you indicated at the 3 beginning. Are we going to come back to the 4 sections that may have less important points?
 5 CHAIRMAN BABCOCK: We're going to 6 try.
 7 MR. YELENOSKY: Some of us are 8 reserving points, though.
 9 CHAIRMAN BABCOCK: We're going to 10 try. But the reason we're doing this is 11 because there are big issues that need to be 12 discussed for sure. Buddy.
 13 MR. LOW: Chip, let me ask a
 14 question: A minor comes in, and the judge
 15 says, "Okay, I'm going to appoint your Aunt 16 Susie." And she says, "God, I'd rather my 17 mother know about it than her."
 18 Does the minor have any choice at that 19 point other than to say, "Wait, a minute, I'll 20 just tell my mama. I won't go through this 21 procedure." Has that ever been discussed?
 22 HON. ANN CRAWFORD McCLURE: Well,
 23 it's been discussed. I can tell you, the 24 thinking of the subcommittee was, to the 25 extent there is an adult that the minor has

1 faith and trust in, that we want that brought 2 to the trial court's attention to facilitate 3 that process of getting as much information to 4 the applicant as we have to make sure that we 5 get an appropriate determination of maturity
 6 and informed consent. That is the thinking.
 7 And I think, while the statute may not reflect 8 that, that was the thinking in gathering the 9 legislative intent of what they were trying to 10 accomplish.
 11 MR. LOW: Because it can have a 12 pretty chilling effect if the judge wanted to.
 13 HON. SARAH B. DUNCAN: But isn't 14 that built into the statute?
 15 HON. ANN CRAWFORD McCLURE: It is 16 built into the statute.
 17 CHAIRMAN BABCOCK: Carl, did you
 18 have something.
 19 MS. SCHRAMM: May I please make one
 20 other comment, though, on Comment 4. In the 21 event that the agency is pulled into these 22 proceedings through an appointment as guardian
 23 ad litem, when I read Comment 4, I thought 24 this prescription of duties was extremely 25 unrealistic. There were questions raised in

1 my mind as to relevance. And maybe that could 2 be solved by changing "should" to "may." But 3 it seemed extremely prescriptive, unrealistic 4 in light of the time frame between 5 appointment as guardian ad litem and when the 6 hearing is likely to take place, within 7 48 hours.
 8 And I guess I was a little bit concerned, 9 too, in looking at it, that having this as a 10 comment in the rules would be a clear sort of 11 prescription to judges that these are some of 12 the things they should be considering in 13 making this determination. So I just wanted 14 to make that comment, because there are many 15 more judges in this room than there were on 16 our subcommittee.
 17 CHAIRMAN BABCOCK: Justice McClure,
 18 what do you think about Comment 4, third line, 19 where it says, "guardians ad litem in 20 Chapter 33 proceedings should address and 21 consider"?
 22 HON. ANN CRAWFORD McCLURE: I don't 23 mind changing that to "may." These came from 24 those guidelines in other states and that was 25 a drafting process, so I don't mind changing

1 it.

2 MS. SCHRAMM: It actually started

3 out, as we considered it, as a form.

4 Everybody rejected it. It ended up somehow in 5 the comment. I don't recall us agreeing that

6 all of that should be in the comment. And I

7 guess I saw it as a little bit too

8 prescriptive for guardian ad litem, when we

9 had said maybe we can't get into defining 10 exactly what their duties should be.

11 HON. ANN CRAWFORD McCLURE: Yes. We

12 voted against a checklist, of having a

13 checklist that would actually become part of 14 the court record. And I don't mind changing

15 the "should" to "may."

16 CHAIRMAN BABCOCK: Is anybody

17 opposed to changing the "should" to "may"?

18 Scott McCown.

19 HON. F. SCOTT McCOWN: I would like

20 to change it to "might" and have it say,

21 "Chapter 33 proceedings might consider, among 22 other factors."

23 And then I think on Page 23, I would say,

24 "These considerations may not be relevant in 25 every case and are not exclusive," to make it

1 clear that these are things you might

2 consider; they may not be relevant in every 3 case.

4 HON. ANN CRAWFORD McCLURE: I'm not

5 opposed to that either.

7 opposed?

8 HON. MICHAEL H. SCHNEIDER: How

9 about may instead of might?

10 CHAIRMAN BABCOCK: May instead of 11 might?

12 HON. MICHAEL H. SCHNEIDER: Right.

13 CHAIRMAN BABCOCK: Justice Schneider

14 says may instead of might.

15 HON. F. SCOTT McCOWN: Well, I don't

16 have any problem with "may," as long as on 17 Page 23 we say, "These considerations may not 18 be relevant in every case."

19 HON. ANN CRAWFORD McCLURE: And I

20 accepted that.

21 CHAIRMAN BABCOCK: Justice McClure,

22 is that okay? Okay. We're agreed on that.

23 Have you got that language?

24 HON. ANN CRAWFORD McCLURE: We do.

25 HON. F. SCOTT McCOWN: "Might could"

1 would be my suggestion.

2 CHAIRMAN BABCOCK: Richard.

3 MR. ORSINGER: We give the guardian

4 ad litem immunity for acts or omissions that

5 are committed in good faith. We're not

6 setting up a checklist, are we, that if you

7 don't meet it, you're not in good faith?

8 CHAIRMAN BABCOCK: I think that was

9 the point of Judge McCown's language.

10 MR. ORSINGER: Well, I don't know if 11 that language cures my problem.

13 specifically rejected a checklist.

14 MR. ORSINGER: Well, I don't know

15 that that's the same issue either. I would

16 like the record to reflect whether anyone

17 thinks that, by having any articulated

18 standards in here, we're setting up what

19 constitutes that, if you don't do these things

20 in the case, that you have not made a good

21 faith -- you have not operated in good faith.

22 In other words, there are checklists here

23 where these guardians are supposed to decide

24 for themselves, I suppose, whether there's a

25 medical danger to the child; a lot of

1 subjective things like the family

2 relationships and stuff like that. And this

3 isn't going to happen in 48 hours, I don't 4 think.

5 And I would just want to be sure that

6 nobody thinks that we're creating a standard

7 where experts are going to get up and say,

8 "This guardian failed to comply with enough

9 on this list, and therefore, is not operating

10 in good faith." Because if there's any remote

11 fear of that, I would rather that we take out

12 all of the standards.

13 CHAIRMAN BABCOCK: Joe Latting has

14 got a comment on that.

15 MR. LATTING: My question is, why do

16 you oppose a checklist? Are we supposed to 17 give any guidance to guardians? Do they have

18 any duties at all? Or do we contemplate that 19 they'll have no duties and that they're just a

20 formal, sort of a needless touching of the 21 cap, so to speak? Does the guardian have a

22 duty in this situation, and if so, what is the 23 least his duty is?

24 HON. ANN CRAWFORD McCLURE: Well,

25 the statute didn't tell us. And the

1 Legislature has repeatedly in family law cases
 2 told us by giving us guidance in Title 5 as to 3 what they are to consider, or that they are to 4 become familiar with the ABA guidelines for 5 ad litem representation of children. They 6 didn't do that. They didn't even cross-7 reference it.

8 So the consensus of the subcommittee was 9 we should not, by rule, set those forth. What 10 we wanted to do was, by comment, indicate some 11 of the things that might be considered,
 12 reference the other places in the Family Code
 13 where those responsibilities are outlined, 14 understanding that ad litem representation in 15 a custody case is not necessarily the same 16 thing as ad litem representation in a judicial 17 bypass to parental notification.

18 That's why we didn't put it in the 19 rules. And that's why we don't want to really 20 craft a checklist and give an indication to 21 either the judge or the ad litem that you must 22 consider these in every case.

23 CHAIRMAN BABCOCK: Does anybody
 24 think that this list in Comment 4 is a litmus
 25 test for good faith, which is what Richard's

1 concern is?

2 MR. ORSINGER: Well, the Rules of 3 Ethics has a specific statement that these do
 4 not set a standard for behavior. This 5 doesn't. And the Supreme Court, if they adopt 6 this comment, is engaging in what is arguably 7 legislation or what is arguably giving 8 opinions about what guardians ad litem should 9 be doing. And I can easily foresee an expert 10 witness getting on the witness stand and 11 saying that "There were 17 factors that the 12 Supreme Court said that they may consider, and 13 they only considered five of them, and 14 something bad happened to this girl, and that 15 was not good faith in my opinion."

16 And here the Supreme Court is rendering 17 an advisory opinion or quasi-legislating or 18 whatever, and we've got ourselves really in 19 the soup.

20 CHAIRMAN BABCOCK: Isn't that cured,
 21 though, by Scott's language that says they're 22 not necessarily relevant in every case?

23 MR. ORSINGER: No, because then 24 there's an argument over what is irrelevant in 25 the case. If we're going to have a checklist,

1 which the Legislature did not authorize us to 2 come up with and which is not pulled out of 3 Texas case law, then we ought to have some 4 provision in here that we're not setting a 5 standard by which anyone's behavior can be 6 measured for liability purposes or other 7 purposes.

8 CHAIRMAN BABCOCK: Is your 9 suggestion, Richard, that we should delete 10 Comment 4, or that we should just have some 11 more clarifying language?

12 MR. ORSINGER: I think it's helpful
 13 to have direction in here. But I would like 14 it if we could borrow some language like we 15 have in the rules, in the Code of Ethics that 16 governs lawyers, that this does not set a 17 standard for liability. And we can use the 18 exact language, if you want. Just stick it in 19 there for what it's worth. And then if an 20 expert gets up there and tries to run this as 21 a checklist, you can check them with that.

 23 think that's a bad idea.

24 MR. PEMBERTON: I think that's a 25 good idea.

1 CHAIRMAN BABCOCK: Okay. Judge
 2 McCown.

3 HON. F. SCOTT McCOWN: Well, it's 4 not worth anything. I think we either ought 5 to take them out -- which would be fine with 6 me. I really don't have any problem with 7 Richard's language, except that in the Ethics
 8 Rules, which he cites as a precedent, courts
 9 routinely ignore that language and still base 10 liability on the Ethics Rules.

11 And I'm just -- this constant concern 12 about lawyers' liability. Either we want the 13 guardians to do it or we don't want them to do 14 it. It either ought to be in or it ought to 15 be out, but we ought not make decisions based 16 on lawyer liability.

17 CHAIRMAN BABCOCK: Spoken by someone
 18 with official immunity. Nina.

19 MS. CORTELL: If you want to keep 20 any of the list in, I have a problem with it.
 21 It's repetitive. I think some of it is highly 22 unrealistic. For example, whether the 23 applicant has given an accurate and complete 24 statement of her medical history to her 25 physician. There are just certain things in

1 here, there's no way a 48-hour guardian is 2 going to be able to opine on certain of 3 these.
 4 So if we're going to have a checklist, I
 5 think it ought to be three to five items. It
 6 can be more globally written. It should pick 7 up, I think, some of the same subject matter
 8 area. I'm not concerned about that. But this 9 particular list I do think is unrealistic.
 10 CHAIRMAN BABCOCK: Judge Patterson.
 11 HON. JAN PATTERSON: I agree with 12 that. I compare it to broad-form submissions, 13 and I think that would serve the interest of 14 justice much better than some of these, which 15 I have problems with as well.
 16 CHAIRMAN BABCOCK: Well, as I see 17 it, we've got two issues: One, whether we 18 have these factors at all; and then two, if we 19 have the factors, whether we have an 20 additional sentence that Richard is 21 proposing. And as I understand it, you're 22 willing to accept some language from Richard 23 further clarifying Comment 4, and that you
 24 would not accept deletion of Comment 4?
 25 HON. ANN CRAWFORD McCLURE: Correct.

1 CHAIRMAN BABCOCK: So that being the 2 case, let's first vote on whether or not our 3 Advisory Committee believes that Richard's 4 language, which is --
 5 HON. F. SCOTT McCOWN: Could we vote
 6 on deletion first? That's easier.
 7 CHAIRMAN BABCOCK: Okay. Let's vote
 8 on deletion first. But that, of course,
 9 hasn't been accepted by Justice McClure.
 10 HON. F. SCOTT McCOWN: But just to 11 advise the Supreme Court.
 12 CHAIRMAN BABCOCK: Right, to advise 13 the Supreme Court. Everybody who thinks 14 Comment 4 should be deleted in its entirety,
 15 raise their hand.
 16 Everybody that thinks Comment 4 should be 17 retained raise their hand.
 18 HON. SARAH B. DUNCAN: In some form?
 19 HON. DAVID PEEPLES: In some form,
 20 yeah. Which is it, Chip?
 21 MS. SWEENEY: Wait, is it in some 22 form, or is it as is?
 23 CHAIRMAN BABCOCK: Judge McCown was 24 trying to make it easy on us. We're going to 25 talk about how we revise it.

1 So in some form, should it be retained?
 2 By a vote of 23 to 11, Comment 4 in some form 3 is going to be retained, or at least that's 4 our recommendation.
 5 And now Richard's language, which is?
 6 MR. ORSINGER: I wish I had a set of 7 rules, but I would be willing to borrow.
 8 PROFESSOR CARLSON: I have a rule
 9 book. "These rules do not undertake to define 10 standards of civil liability of lawyers' for 11 professional conduct."
 12 MR. ORSINGER: Say "persons." Same 13 language, only persons serving as guardians ad
 14 litem under this rule.
 15 CHAIRMAN BABCOCK: Did everybody
 16 hear that? Read it again, Elaine.
 17 PROFESSOR CARLSON: These rules do 18 not undertake to define standards of civil 19 liability of -- 20 MR. ORSINGER: -- persons serving as 21 guardians ad litem under this rule -- 22 PROFESSOR CARLSON: -- for 23 professional product.
 24 HON. DAVID PEEPLES: Chip, I'm not 25 sure I understand why anybody would oppose

1 that. Can I hear it again? Is there some 2 reason for opposing that language?
 3 HON. ANN CRAWFORD McCLURE: I
 4 accepted it. I did not oppose it.
 5 CHAIRMAN BABCOCK: Elaine, Judge
 6 Peeples wants to hear it again, I think.
 7 HON. DAVID PEEPLES: No, I want to 8 hear why anybody would oppose putting that in 9 this rule.
 10 CHAIRMAN BABCOCK: Okay. Is anybody
 11 opposed to that?
 12 MR. LATTING: I'm opposed to that.
 13 CHAIRMAN BABCOCK: One person is 14 opposed. Anybody else?
 15 CHAIRMAN BABCOCK: Okay. Then that 16 will be --
 17 MS. SWEENEY: Could I hear why Joe
 18 is opposed to that? He might have figured 19 something out that we haven't.
 20 MR. LATTING: Because I'm opposed to 21 anything that will make it easier for the 22 abortions to occur. I think anything that can 23 impede that and give more people more pause to 24 think before this event occurs guides me in 25 every one of these decisions.

1 MR. ORSINGER: You're just going to 2 get more people sued and make it harder to do, 3 and the Legislature is going to --
 4 CHAIRMAN BABCOCK: Now, now.
 5 MR. LATTING: That would be a small 6 price to pay.
 7 CHAIRMAN BABCOCK: All right. That 8 language has been approved and accepted by 9 Justice McClure.
 10 Now, any other -- yeah, Judge Peeples.
 11 HON. DAVID PEEPLES: I thought Jan
 12 Patterson had an interesting suggestion that 13 we make it more general and less specific.
 14 CHAIRMAN BABCOCK: That's where 15 we're turning to now. Does anybody have any 16 suggestions on how to revise this in that 17 fashion?
 18 MR. ORSINGER: Can I throw out one
 19 suggestion? I think we ought to say whether 20 or not these people are supposed to testify as 21 witnesses or whether they're supposed to make 22 unsworn statements to the court about their 23 opinions, because that's a pertinent question.
 24 CHAIRMAN BABCOCK: Do you think we 25 ought to do that in a comment, Richard?

1 MR. ORSINGER: Well, if we don't,
 2 we're going to get to litigate it, although 3 there isn't going to be any knowledge of what 4 the results of the lawsuits are.
 5 CHAIRMAN BABCOCK: Hold that 6 thought. Justice Duncan.
 7 HON. SARAH B. DUNCAN: The reason
 8 I'm in favor to include this type of comment
 9 is that, if I were appointed a guardian ad
 10 litem in this situation, I would like some 11 advice that these are factors that have been 12 considered by the courts in other
 13 jurisdictions or courts in general, just so 14 that I will have, for my own use, a checklist
 15 to go through. There may be things on here
 16 that I really hadn't thought about before.
 17 So I would propose saying, rather than 18 the second sentence of Paragraph 4, "Factors 19 that have been considered in other 20 jurisdictions include:" And then, if this is 21 an accurate list, it's an accurate list, which 22 I assume it is. "In this or other 23 jurisdictions," something like that.
 24 HON. SAMUEL A. MEDINA: Where would 25 you put that?

1 HON. SARAH B. DUNCAN: Instead of 2 "However, as a general matter," I would say,
 3 "Factors that have been considered in other 4 jurisdictions include the following:"
 5 CHAIRMAN BABCOCK: Justice McClure,
 6 do you accept that?
 7 HON. ANN CRAWFORD McCLURE: I do.
 8 MS. LOPEZ GARCIA: I have a
 9 question, because if you have in here that we 10 should address and consider among other 11 factors, are we saying there that they should 12 be prepared to address to the court, or what 13 does that mean?
 14 HON. F. SCOTT McCOWN: Justice
 15 Duncan's formulation solves that property. I 16 would like the record to reflect, since I
 17 seldom agree with Justice Duncan, that I think 18 that's a great idea.
 19 CHAIRMAN BABCOCK: Justice McClure
 20 accepts that. Does anybody oppose? Yes, 21 Linda Eads.
 22 MS. EADS: I would like us to 23 rethink this about having the list here. And 24 I think the discussion points out the reason I 25 want this. It's from other jurisdictions.

1 These lists get set in stone. And what we 2 really want is, we want the guardian to be 3 thinking about the individual girl rather than 4 just a checklist. And I'm afraid that's all 5 they'll do, is do the checklist.
 6 And I really agree with Judge Patterson
 7 that it would be better to have some global 8 qualities; for example, for the guardian to 9 look at the medical history, the family 10 history. I mean, that gives the guardian an 11 idea that there are subject matters that need 12 to be inquired to, but not a checklist. And 13 they think that if they just go through the 14 checklist, they've done their job. And that 15 gets carried on from one jurisdiction to 16 another. So I'm in favor of a more global 17 approach to these.
 18 CHAIRMAN BABCOCK: Judge Patterson.
 19 HON. JAN P. PATTERSON: I think the 20 categories that bear on the findings that the 21 court has to make specifically would be 22 helpful, whether the minor is mature, whether 23 the minor is sufficiently well informed, and 24 either couch the categories in those terms, to 25 facilitate the findings by the court, or broad

1 categories that might be helpful so that they 2 can make the findings by the court. But I 3 don't quite see the relationship between the 4 two. And somebody is going to get -- I mean, 5 it's confusing for me to relate those 6 criteria.

7 CHAIRMAN BABCOCK: Okay. Let's try
8 to -- if we could do one thing at a time.

9 There is a discussion in progress about 10 whether or not we ought to change the second 11 sentence in Comment 4 to say basically that 12 these are factors that have been considered in 13 other jurisdictions. Justice McClure has 14 accepted that.

15 HON. JAN A. PATTERSON: And list
16 Iowa and whatever? I mean, what's the point?

17 CHAIRMAN BABCOCK: Well, that's what 18 we're about to vote on. Justice McClure says 19 that she would accept that change to 20 Comment 4, and so now this committee has got 21 to decide whether or not that would be 22 something we would do. Yeah, Wendell.

23 MR. HALL: I was just thinking, if,
24 you know, Judge Peoples grabbed me in the 25 hallway and said, "You're going to be guardian

1 as to having the list. I agree with Sarah,
2 that if I had one of these cases, I would love
3 to have a list about what I might want to ask 4 my client and things to consider. But I think 5 maybe that's not the role of the comments in 6 the rules. I think that may be the role of 7 some agency, whether it be Planned Parenthood 8 or Child Protective Services or whatever, to 9 have pamphlets or booklets--

10 HON. JAN P. PATTERSON: Or Family
11 Law Seminar checklists.

12 PROFESSOR ALBRIGHT: Or just have 13 them available, you know, if I get pulled down 14 the hall. Maybe the judge will have some of 15 these in the office or something. But the 16 more we're talking about it, this is not a 17 rule thing.

18 CHAIRMAN BABCOCK: Judge Medina.

19 HON. SAMUEL A. MEDINA: It's great 20 for us to think about what would help us or 21 what wouldn't. But you go to, you know,
22 Crosbyton and somebody appointed a nonlawyer 23 as guardian or a member of the clergy or 24 anybody else. I just think they need some 25 help. And I don't know about some global idea

1 ad litem in this thing." And I walk in and 2 I'm a new attorney, new to this area and 3 haven't been exposed to it, I would be very 4 thankful to have these factors, if I just had 5 three or four global topics. I'm not sure I 6 would get in as much detail as what's 7 provided.

8 CHAIRMAN BABCOCK: Bill and then
9 Alex.

10 PROFESSOR DORSANEJO: I don't think 11 you can fix this list without going through 12 the list and ask, you know, what do you do if 13 you find out the applicant's means of 14 financial support are at a high level? What 15 do I do then? Do I then consider whether she 16 lives with her parents? What does that have 17 to do with it? I'm not helped by this list.
18 I'm just given a lot of things to take into 19 account, and then I have to decide what that 20 all means. And I think the list is more 21 trouble than some more general directives 22 would be.

23 CHAIRMAN BABCOCK: Alex.

24 PROFESSOR ALBRIGHT: I think I'm 25 becoming convinced that I should have voted no

1 that they're going to have to interpret what 2 that means.

3 PROFESSOR ALBRIGHT: But are they 4 going to read the rules for it then?

5 HON. SAMUEL A. MEDINA: I think we 6 can correct that by something akin to what 7 you're doing. I don't have any precise 8 language, but it's not a checklist. Maybe we 9 have to say it's not a checklist, I don't 10 know, but some type of guidance, something 11 that gives them an add idea of where to start 12 from.

13 HON. SARAH B. DUNCAN: Maybe I've 14 been misunderstanding what's going to happen.
15 I have been assuming, perhaps erroneously,
16 that when Judge Peoples calls Wendell in and 17 says, "You are now appointed as the ad litem 18 on this case," that there will be a pamphlet 19 that will have the rules and the statute that 20 he can give him. Because there are going to 21 be a lot of lawyers that are not at all 22 familiar with this area of the law or with 23 family law at all.

24 HON. SAMUEL A. MEDINA: And 25 nonlawyers.

1 HON. SARAH B. DUNCAN: And
 2 nonlawyers. And it's not going to be a large 3 pamphlet to include the rules and the statute
 4 in one place, but it could be a primer.
 5 CHAIRMAN BABCOCK: Christina.
 6 MS. CRAIN: Having served as an ad
 7 litem for about five years now in family
 8 court, I will say that every three years there 9 is one seminar that all of us that do this in 10 the family court go to. And we know that when 11 that seminar comes, we cancel everything else 12 because that's the only training we get for 13 this type of work. We get certified. We get 14 a book that we use for the next three years 15 until the next seminar comes out. And that is 16 the only thing that we get.
 17 And every court is different. Every 18 court has the way they like to do it and what 19 their guidelines are. What I'm thinking is,
 20 and I like what Jan said and what Nina said, 21 is that we come up with some more broad,
 22 global, you're looking at what's in the best 23 interest of the child, these kinds of things.
 24 They're already spelled out in the Family
 25 Code.

1 HON. ANN CRAWFORD McCLURE: No,
 2 they're not spelled out in the Family Code.
 3 "Best interest" is not spelled out in the 4 Family Code, unless you want to take the 5 position that we want to quantify that as 6 guidelines.
 7 MS. CRAIN: I think that would be 8 great, if we could do it in conjunction with 9 what we've been doing.
 10 MS. SCHRAMM: May I just offer a 11 point of clarification. Remembering my 12 discussions in the subcommittee, I do recall 13 that we discussed getting rid of this in the 14 form, and I do recall some reference to 15 hopefully bar associations will step in,
 16 somebody will come in and develop guidelines, 17 as they have done in the family law area. And 18 I remember that discussion, and that's why I 19 was a little bit surprised to see us
 20 incorporate it in the comments so
 21 specifically. Because some of these points 22 that have been made, I think we just referred 23 to that as we expect others will come in and 24 make sure that the people in their 25 jurisdictions are properly qualified, know

1 what to do, et cetera.
 2 CHAIRMAN BABCOCK: I don't want to 3 make a habit of this, but I think that enough 4 people have expressed different views than the 5 vote they just took, so we'll vote again.
 6 Just a second, Bill.
 7 And the vote this time will be whether -- 8 and this may be advisory, because I don't 9 think Justice McClure is willing to accept 10 Judge Patterson's more generalized statement, 11 but I think we ought to be on record about 12 it. We're going to vote on whether or not to 13 keep Comment 4, with this list of factors,
 14 with some softening language as Justice Duncan 15 proposed, or whether or not we're going to go 16 to more generalized, specific categories as 17 Judge Patterson suggests.
 18 MR. LOW: I just want to point to 19 one thing for the record. 173, pertaining to 20 guardian ad litem, says nothing other than 21 appoint a guardian ad litem. No standard. So 22 then we're going to have one rule that does 23 and one that doesn't. And I know we voted, 24 but I just wanted to go on the record with 25 that.

1 CHAIRMAN BABCOCK: Well, we're about
 2 to vote again. Judge Rhea.
 3 HON. BILL RHEA: Well, before we 4 make that vote, let me make another
 5 suggestion. It seems to me that it's clear 6 that this -- it probably has been from the 7 beginning of the day and before today that 8 this is an issue about which, the broad issue
 9 about which everybody in this room has a 10 strong opinion. And we're treading on 11 dangerous ground here. Some people are 12 expressing their opinions about it more openly 13 than others. There are suggestions that,
 14 during the course of the conversation today,
 15 that make it pretty clear where people stand 16 on this issue. And I'm concerned that we're 17 kind of losing the focus of, you know, a 18 proper judicious approach to this issue.
 19 We've got a recommendation from the 20 subcommittee that deals with specific issues.
 21 We've had a vote that approved it in some 22 form. Nina Cortell has suggested that there 23 are some factors listed here that probably 24 aren't so appropriate.
 25 I think it would be a much better

1 procedure to ask Nina or Bill or whoever to 2 say, "X, Y and Z items aren't helpful." We've 3 got others that are helpful and could be 4 helpful. It's helpful to me as a judge to 5 have an ad litem that's got some direction.

6 And I don't want to wait for CPS or 7 Planned Parenthood to come in and tell the 8 guardian ad litem what those proper guidelines
9 are. We've got some good suggestions here.
10 Maybe some of them don't need to be in there 11 at all. I would suggest that we go through 12 those, and if we can eliminate some that 13 aren't helpful or offensive or irrelevant or 14 something, let's do that and see what we wind 15 up with.

16 CHAIRMAN BABCOCK: I think that's 17 where I'm headed, Bill, because I think 18 Justice McClure is unwilling to accept a 19 change to Comment 4 that would go to Judge
20 Patterson's more general category. So all 21 we're doing now by this vote is to advise the 22 Court how the committee feels about the issue
23 of Comment 4 with a list of factors, and we'll 24 work on the list in a minute, versus a comment
25 with very generalized issues, as Judge

1 Justice McClure says, "Yeah, I accept deletion
2 of Nos. 4, 6 and 7," we may be where you want 3 to go and where everybody wants to go. But 4 for right now, we're just talking about the 5 two things. So everybody who is in favor --

6 HON. PHIL HARDBERGER: Chip.
7 CHAIRMAN BABCOCK: Yes, Justice
8 Hardberger.

9 HON. PHIL HARDBERGER: You know, it
10 really wouldn't be difficult to have both in 11 this. You could have a general statement on 12 what you're looking for, the global thing of 13 Justice Patterson. And then you could 14 incorporate the language Justice Duncan said, 15 some of the other factors that have been taken 16 into account in other jurisdictions are, and 17 all these won't be appropriate in every case.
18 And then you've got them all. You really 19 don't have to make a choice here.

20 CHAIRMAN BABCOCK: Well, that's 21 another way to do it. In other words, 22 subtraction by addition.

23 So Justice McClure, what do you think 24 about that?

1 Patterson proposes.

2 And we already voted on that, and as I
3 said, I don't want to make a habit of this, 4 but enough people have raised the issue that 5 I'm going to do it this time.

6 So everybody that wants to retain in some 7 form Comment 4, which has list of some 8 18 factors, raise their hand.

9 HON. DAVID PEEPLES: As opposed to 10 general?

11 CHAIRMAN BABCOCK: Yes, as opposed
12 to a more general, kind of generic.

13 MS. CORTELL: Chip, I'm sorry, but 14 I'm not sure it's that far apart. I mean, I
15 can't speak for Judge Patterson, but a more 16 global grouping, let's say, of four would 17 probably encompass some of these specifics.
18 In other words, I don't see them -- I'm not 19 sure I see the big difference between the two 20 proposals.

21 CHAIRMAN BABCOCK: It may not be,
22 Nina. And all we're doing is, if a majority 23 of this committee says yes, then we're going 24 to note that in the report, and then we're 25 going to get down to -- and it may be that if

1 opposed to the broad concept of putting it in 2 there, but I think it's in there. I mean, I 3 think it's in the statute that you are to 4 consider maturity, a well informed decision,
5 and best interest of the child. I don't think 6 that in a broad global statement you can 7 quantify the factors that go into that. I
8 think that's in there. I don't mind putting a 9 general proviso in the rules. What I'm not in 10 favor of doing is deleting these factors from 11 the comment.

12 HON. PHIL HARDBERGER: And I can 13 live with the factors as stated as the 14 committee has recommended. But if there's 15 enough feeling that we need the global, we can 16 certainly put it in.

17 CHAIRMAN BABCOCK: Okay. I think we 18 owe it to the Court to give a sense of whether 19 a majority of this committee disagrees with 20 Justice McClure, what she just said. So 21 that's what we're voting on.

22 How many people think we should not have 23 these 18 factors or some variation thereof, 24 these 18 factors in Comment 4, raise your 25 hand.

1 How many people think we should? By 2 almost the same vote, 21 to 13.
 3 HON. SARAH B. DUNCAN: Chip, can I
 4 say something?
 5 CHAIRMAN BABCOCK: Yes.
 6 HON. SARAH B. DUNCAN: There seems 7 to be a suggestion that that was a vote on 8 one's view on the abortion issue. And I just 9 want to make it clear that my vote at least 10 was not at all related to what my views may or 11 may not be on that issue.
 12 CHAIRMAN BABCOCK: So noted.
 13 HON. SARAH B. DUNCAN: Thank you.
 14 CHAIRMAN BABCOCK: Yes, Richard.
 15 MR. ORSINGER: It seems to me that 16 the Supreme Court promulgating this comment is 17 unprecedented and far beyond the legislative 18 mandate that we have. And I would propose 19 that the Supreme Court consider treating this 20 as a committee comment and not a Supreme Court 21 comment, because this is what should really be 22 in a court opinion, not part of the 23 legislative rules. If we want to have it in 24 there, let's have it in there, but let's not 25 say this has the imprimatur of the Texas

1 Supreme Court on it.
 2 CHAIRMAN BABCOCK: That comment is
 3 noted. Bill.
 4 PROFESSOR DORSANEO: Well, I guess
 5 I'm not sure what the guardian's role exactly 6 is, the guardian ad litem's role exactly is 7 here. Aren't we trying to decide under this 8 statute whether you can bypass the parents, 9 isn't that the idea, not whether the abortion 10 is a good idea or isn't?
 11 This list is about whether it's a good 12 idea to have an abortion or not, in my view.
 13 And the suggestion was made earlier that some 14 sort of list that relates to the findings that 15 the court is supposed to make about the minor 16 being well informed, whether there will be a 17 problem if the parents are notified, physical 18 violence problem or whatever, seems to be the 19 pertinent question.
 20 I go back again to, what does it have to 21 do with anything, the applicant's means of 22 financial support? Does that mean that it's 23 not okay to have abortions if you're rich? It 24 is okay? That if you're poor, that it's a 25 good idea? I don't like these factors. They

1 seem to be talking about something else other 2 than what's the guardian's job.
 3 Richard suggested talking about what the 4 guardian ad litem is going to do, and that 5 would at least help me. What is that role?
 6 And then I would be able to decide a little 7 better what factors ought to be considered.
 8 CHAIRMAN BABCOCK: Carl, I think,
 9 had his hand up.
 10 MR. HAMILTON: I agree with Joe. I
 11 would like to do everything to prevent 12 abortions that we can. But this list, it 13 seems to me, and the duty of the guardian ad 14 litem is to answer the question about whether 15 or not there is consent. And if the minor 16 can't give it, I guess the guardian gives the 17 consent. But I don't see anything in the list 18 that relates to any considerations for 19 adoption or the rights of the baby. I think 20 there needs to be something in there about 21 that, if this is going to relate to the 22 consent question. I think the list is totally 23 incomplete.
 24 CHAIRMAN BABCOCK: Justice Duncan.
 25 HON. SARAH B. DUNCAN: I guess that

1 points out my concern on this vote, and my 2 concern has become even greater. In my view, 3 the question before the court, trial or 4 appellate, is whether one of the avenues for 5 bypass has been met on the facts of the case
 6 given the statute. Whether a child has 7 considered the financial consequences of her
 8 decision one way or the other, or her desire, 9 whether there are medical aspects or 10 indications to the decision, could go to 11 maturity, could go to meeting one of the other 12 bases for bypass.
 13 And that's why I just don't understand
 14 this list to be a pro- or anti-abortion list.
 15 It is, to me, a list that's designed to help 16 an ad litem, whether attorney or otherwise, 17 talk to the applicant and try to help the 18 court in making the decision required by the 19 statute.
 20 MR. PEMBERTON: Can I just throw
 21 something out? Perhaps it would be useful, in 22 consideration of all these comments, and I
 23 think Justice Hardberger was suggesting 24 something along these lines, to break this 25 down into a generalized list of factors going

1 to the maturity, how well the minor is 2 informed, such as, and throw in whatever of 3 these factors are appropriate. Same thing for 4 best interest. Maybe have a catchall for 5 catching the things like sexual abuse of a 6 minor.
 7 You could do it that way, and that 8 perhaps would take some of the inferences or 9 implications, the charge out of this list
 10 here, focus it back where it belongs.
 11 HON. F. SCOTT McCOWN: I think a lot
 12 of us wouldn't mind having a list. But let me 13 point out, if it's a list for the guardian 14 ad litem, it's also automatically a list for 15 the judge. Because if you're saying the 16 guardian should consider these things in 17 making a recommendation to the judge, you're 18 saying the judge should consider these things 19 in making his or her decision. My problem is 20 not the idea of having a list. I think it 21 would be good to have general direction with 22 some level of specificity to the ad litem.
 23 I think this list does not correspond to 24 our statute. And I think that's the real 25 problem here; that what we're called upon to

1 decide is a maturity question, alternatively a
 2 best interest question, alternatively an abuse
 3 question. And this list doesn't capture or 4 correlate very well. I'm not saying it
 5 doesn't correlate at all, but it doesn't 6 correlate in my mind very well. And I don't 7 know if we can write that kind of list now or 8 in a group this large.
 9 I would just say we ought to say to the 10 Supreme Court, "We recommend you give some 11 general direction. We recommend it have this 12 language that Richard wants about no civil 13 liability attaching. But we don't think this 14 is the right direction, and it needs some 15 work."
 16 MR. LATTING: Haven't we voted on 17 this twice?
 18 CHAIRMAN BABCOCK: Well, we have 19 voted twice. Judge Rhea.
 20 MR. YELENOSKY: Well, as a point of 21 order on that, I think you started to announce 22 the results of the last one. You said 21 to 23 13, but I don't think you said which was 24 which.
 25 CHAIRMAN BABCOCK: Yeah, I'm sorry.

1 The vote was 21 in favor of the list and 13
 2 against. Sorry.
 3 HON. F. SCOTT McCOWN: In some 4 form.
 5 CHAIRMAN BABCOCK: In some form,
 6 right.
 7 MR. MEADOWS: A list.
 8 CHAIRMAN BABCOCK: I did want to get 9 to that, but --
 10 HON. SAMUEL A. MEDINA:
 11 Mr. Chairman, I heard, and I don't know if you 12 meant that or not, but you said what we're 13 saying is that they should follow this list.
 14 I thought we disagreed with that. I thought 15 it wasn't "should follow," but that you might, 16 that it's something you might look at. And I
 17 think we're getting off base.
 18 HON. F. SCOTT McCOWN: Well, okay, I
 19 didn't mean "should," that's correct. But I 20 meant that these are things that they ought to 21 consider whether they're applicable or not.
 22 HON. SARAH B. DUNCAN: Not ought.
 23 "Ought" means should.
 24 HON. F. SCOTT McCOWN: They ought to 25 consider whether they are or are not

1 applicable. You have to consider whether they 2 are or are not applicable.
 3 CHAIRMAN BABCOCK: Hold it. Where 4 we are right now is we changed "should" to 5 "may." That has currently been approved.
 6 And there was a further request to amend it to 7 say that these are factors from other 8 jurisdictions, and just say that and not that 9 you ought to follow them or anything else,
 10 just that these are other factors.
 11 And then we were going to have the 12 language that Judge McClure has written down
 13 and then also the language that Elaine Carlson 14 read at the end of it.
 15 And now what I thought we were doing, 16 having voted twice that we were going to have 17 a list, I thought we were going to go over 18 these things and find what the committee
 19 thought was inappropriate to be on the list, 20 present that to Justice McClure for her up or 21 down, and then vote if we had to.
 22 That's where I thought we were. I may be 23 wrong. Does everybody think we're kind of 24 there? We're not there.
 25 HON. JAN P. PATTERSON: Chip.

1 CHAIRMAN BABCOCK: Yes.
 2 HON. JAN P. PATTERSON: I would like
 3 to resurrect Justice Hardberger's suggestion, 4 because I think we can do both. And I would 5 like to preface it with, I agree with Sarah, 6 that I don't think it's a vote for or against 7 abortion, and I didn't take it as that. And I 8 think that, however we come out on that issue, 9 that we could agree upon some general
 10 statements.

11 And just to give you an example, because 12 I don't think perhaps I refined it enough for 13 the presentation, but whether the child is 14 under medical care, instead of, you know, a 15 series of aftercare procedures; whether she is 16 given accurate information; whether it's 17 voluntary; whether there is prior history of 18 sexual -- you know, I think that some of those 19 factors, they don't have to be loaded, and 20 they can get you to the same place however you 21 feel about the issue. But they are not as 22 either specific or -- they're generalized.
 23 And I think they are factors that everybody 24 could agree upon.

25 And these just seem to be kind of a

1 we're making it a list. The very purpose of 2 this is to say these are some things that you
 3 may consider. If they don't fit, don't 4 consider them. If you want to add something 5 else like may or may not.

6 HON. PHIL HARDBERGER: That's 7 exactly my idea. Maybe we ought to say that 8 in English, may or may not consider depending 9 upon the circumstances.

10 CHAIRMAN BABCOCK: Justice McClure,
 11 what's your solution?

12 HON. ANN CRAWFORD McCLURE: Well, I
 13 want, and I think our subcommittee wanted, 14 some guidance in here of some of the 15 appropriate things that you might want to take 16 into consideration to gear people in a very 17 short time frame of what they need to be 18 addressing with their young client who might 19 not be real talkative. I don't mind trying to 20 restructure it into some sort of order of what 21 might relate to informed consent, what might 22 relate to her levels of maturity.

23 I know that there was some concern
 24 expressed by some of the medical care
 25 providers on the subcommittee to ensure that

1 helter-skelter list. I mean, several of them
 2 have to do with voluntariness and informed
 3 consent in various forms. And I think that 4 perhaps maybe both might be helpful to 5 identify this for what it is, but also to have 6 some that relate to the criteria.

7 CHAIRMAN BABCOCK: What do you think 8 about Pemberton's idea that you take the 9 general categories and then put what fits 10 under each?

11 HON. F. SCOTT McCOWN: That's a good 12 idea, but these don't fit under the general 13 categories.

14 HON. PHIL HARDBERGER: I think it's 15 a good idea, but I doubt if you're going to be 16 able to do it in this room.

17 CHAIRMAN BABCOCK: That's for sure.

18 HON. PHIL HARDBERGER: I think it
 19 needs to go back to the drawing board.

 21 Medina.

22 HON. SAMUEL A. MEDINA: Help me out
 23 here, folks. But when we say "may consider," 24 does it not also mean that you may not 25 consider? In other words, I don't see that

1 she had given some thought to "If I don't tell
 2 my mother that I've had this and I go stay
 3 with a friend, what if there are severe 4 bleeding problems after the abortion?" Has 5 she given thought to "If I have complications 6 afterwards, will I have access to medical 7 care? Will I have the finances to be able to 8 pay for that medical care?" Those were some 9 of the issues that they felt needed to be 10 addressed by the ad litem as far as making 11 sure the child understood the consequences of 12 not just the decision that she wanted to 13 bypass parental approval.

14 And remember, you all heard the word
 15 "consent" before. The guardian ad litem is 16 not going to be in a position to give 17 consent. That's not what this is about. The 18 ad litem is going to be in a position of 19 either presenting to the court, maybe or maybe 20 not making a recommendation to the court as to 21 whether the minor can consent without 22 notifying her parents. It's not a question of 23 the judge or the guardian giving that consent.

24 CHAIRMAN BABCOCK: I always tell the 25 witnesses that I'm presenting for a deposition

1 that 3:00 o'clock is a very dangerous time in 2 the deposition because people have been going 3 all day and they've been going hard and they 4 get tired. We cannot lose sight of the fact
 5 that it is just after 3:00 o'clock, number 6 one; and number two, this subcommittee has had 7 the benefit of a tremendous amount of 8 expertise that is extra-judicial, extra-9 illegal, that we don't have the benefit of.
 10 And that's why we set up the procedure the way 11 we have for this, recognizing that, if we go 12 back to the drawing board, this committee is 13 never going to see this again.
 14 So what I think we should do is, as soon
 15 as I'm finished speaking, take our afternoon 16 break. But with respect to this, I think we 17 should note to the Supreme Court that there is 18 considerable concern within our committee 19 about Comment 4; and there's concern about the 20 appropriateness of some and perhaps all of the 21 factors that have been set forth here; and 22 there have been some recommended changes in 23 language, which we have approved, and which we 24 will incorporate into the rule and leave it at 25 that, because this committee cannot rewrite

1 this comment this afternoon. Otherwise, we're 2 never going to do everything else. So that's 3 where I think we ought to leave it.
 4 And since Nina is such a dear friend of 5 mine, she can say one more thing before we 6 take our afternoon break.
 7 MS. CORTELL: Well, I won't be after 8 this comment. If I could, I have just a quick 9 sort of drafting thought. Let me just throw 10 it out and people can think about it.
 11 It seems to me you can group a lot of 12 these into three or four items. One goes to 13 mental capacity. That would cover the 14 education piece, the employment piece, you
 15 know, that sort of thing. Another category
 16 would be considering risks, and that will hold 17 with the procedure, after the procedure. The 18 third would be the circumstances that led to 19 the pregnancy. That would pick up the abuse, 20 incest. Fourth, advisability of further 21 counseling, picking up all the several 22 different ones here about counseling. And 23 then fifth, the consideration of the medical 24 history.
 25 HON. ANN CRAWFORD McCLURE: I didn't

1 hear the fifth one, I'm sorry, Nina.
 2 MS. CORTELL: Consideration of 3 medical history. So I guess what I'm thinking 4 is, one can make this non-litmus-testy, if 5 there is such a word, and eliminate a lot of 6 the duplication and take out some of the 7 irrelevant items, just a quick stab at it.
 8 CHAIRMAN BABCOCK: Thanks, Nina.
 9 After our afternoon break, which is going to 10 be for 10 minutes, we're going to take up the 11 always exciting appellate issues.
 12 (10-minute recess.)
 13 CHAIRMAN BABCOCK: Okay. We're back
 14 on the record. Everybody should have a folder 15 that has subcommittee issues and assignments.
 16 And my experience is that late in the day 17 sometimes we see people drift off for various 18 reasons. So Justice Hecht wanted me to go 19 over this right now while we have just about 20 everybody here.
 21 We have, as I said at the outset, made 22 assignments to the subcommittees. And the 23 subcommittees are organized by rule. And 24 there's nothing particularly magic about how 25 they're organized, although some things are

1 self-evident like the Evidence Subcommittee,
 2 the Discovery Subcommittee, the Sanctions
 3 Subcommittee, that type of thing.
 4 Does anybody have any questions or 5 comments? And for those of you who came in 6 late, if you have a particular interest or 7 experience in a particular area of the rules
 8 and you want to be on that subcommittee,
 9 you're welcome to do that. Just come to me 10 and let me know what subcommittee that is that 11 you're interested in. As I said earlier 12 today, that does not mean that you necessarily 13 can get off the one that you're on. But we're 14 certainly always willing to accept more work 15 from everybody. So with that said, does 16 anybody have any questions? Yes, Sarah 17 Duncan.
 18 HON. SARAH B. DUNCAN: Issues to be 19 addressed, is that exclusive or preclusive?
 20 Or is that just, "Here are these, and if you 21 want to do more, you can"?
 22 CHAIRMAN BABCOCK: That is issues
 23 that are pending before our committee as of 24 today. Justice Hecht sent a letter out that 25 had a whole big laundry list of things, and he

1 and I have assigned them now to the 2 subcommittees. And then there are other 3 letters, like David Jackson wrote one that 4 raises three or four issues, that have come in 5 over the past two years.
6 HON. SARAH B. DUNCAN: For instance,
7 a Law Review article has been written. We 8 might consider adopting or not adopting what 9 was written in that Law Review article.
10 CHAIRMAN BABCOCK: We could
11 obviously consider that. Yes, Judge.
12 HON. SCOTT A. BRISTER: Or the Jury
13 Task Force proposals that aren't on the list.
14 CHAIRMAN BABCOCK: Okay. Bill
15 Dorsaneo.
16 PROFESSOR DORSANEO: Chip, how does 17 this relate to the recodification draft? We 18 spent a large part of the last two years that 19 we were in session going over that draft. And 20 I guess I'm wondering whether the subcommittee
21 arrangements wouldn't involve the enumeration 22 in that draft as well as in the current Civil 23 Procedure Rules.
24 CHAIRMAN BABCOCK: I'll pitch that 25 to Justice Hecht.

1 JUSTICE HECHT: Of course, we've got 2 the committee's recommendation on the entire 3 recodification. But as we're continuing to 4 consider that in-house at the Court, these are 5 some other issues that have come up that we 6 need to look at at the same time. So that as 7 things progress, we can either work them in 8 or, if the committee feels like they're more 9 important and they should get done sooner, 10 then we can go ahead and do them while the 11 other work is pending.
12 CHAIRMAN BABCOCK: Alex.
13 PROFESSOR ALBRIGHT: In previous 14 years we've gotten these big notebooks with 15 all these letters. This year, is the 16 committee chair just going to keep the stuff
17 for that particular committee and make sure 18 that the committee members have the 19 information before the meeting?
20 JUSTICE HECHT: It's in the back.
21 All the stuff we have that my letter refers 22 to, there's a copy of it for everybody in the 23 back.
24 PROFESSOR ALBRIGHT: Oh, okay. So
25 we still have to schlepp around all this

1 stuff. I was trying to offer an alternative 2 to that.
3 HON. SARAH B. DUNCAN: Aren't you
4 glad you drive a van?
5 CHAIRMAN BABCOCK: You have to 6 schlepp it around. Paula.
7 MS. SWEENEY: Two things. We have 8 had the procedure of "Okay. You're up next 9 Friday. You all have a meeting. It's time."
10 CHAIRMAN BABCOCK: We're going to 11 talk about that in a minute.
12 MS. SWEENEY: Okay. So we'll have 13 specific sort of deadlines and mini-deadlines
14 and subdeadlines and continuances.
15 Secondly, was there any attempt made -- 16 or how was the composition of the 17 subcommittees arrived at? And is it set in 18 concrete? Was there any eye to balance either 19 geographic, political or otherwise?
20 CHAIRMAN BABCOCK: It was darts.
21 Darts was the way we did it.
22 MS. SWEENEY: Do we get some darts
23 to throw? Can we add to our committees?
24 CHAIRMAN BABCOCK: Yeah. It is not 25 set in concrete, Paula. And there was,

1 however, some thought that went into it. And 2 in your case, I think maybe we've got you
3 overloaded a little bit.
4 MS. SWEENEY: It don't look like a
5 fair fight to me.
6 CHAIRMAN BABCOCK: And there are 7 some people that we would entertain shifting 8 responsibilities because you're so overloaded,
9 so that's the answer to that. What else?
10 Anybody else?
11 JUSTICE HECHT: If you have 12 questions about my September 24th letter, 13 you're welcome to call. Please call Bob, if 14 you would. But what we tried to do was just 15 go through all of the letters we've received, 16 some of the legislation that was introduced 17 during the last term, the last session of the 18 Legislature, comments that have been made.
19 And we've all -- I see we've left out
20 something already. The Jury Charge Task Force 21 proposals should be in here.
22 And this is not an exclusive list. If a 23 subcommittee comes up with other things that 24 they think the committee ought to think about, 25 they should add those to the agenda.

1 CHAIRMAN BABCOCK: Okay. In terms 2 of deadlines, there is an issue of whether or 3 not any of these subcommittees has something 4 that they are far enough along with that they 5 would be ready to report to the full committee 6 by November. That's a month from now. If 7 there is, then we'll meet in November. If 8 there isn't, we won't meet until January. And 9 we will take either volunteers or assign 10 projects for the January meeting. 11 So the first question is, is there any 12 subcommittee that has something that is far 13 enough along that it could be ready within a 14 couple of weeks to send out to everybody on 15 this committee and then meet sometime in 16 November to discuss it? 17 HON. F. SCOTT McCOWN: No. 18 CHAIRMAN BABCOCK: The answer to 19 that is no. That's what we thought. But we 20 didn't want to slight anybody, if you've been 21 busily working away the last month or so. 22 PROFESSOR ALBRIGHT: Is there any 23 truth to the rumors that we're going to have 24 new Sanctions and Jury Trial Rules out soon? 25 JUSTICE HECHT: Well, we're working	1 HON. SARAH B. DUNCAN: Can I point 2 out that the 30th is the Super Bowl? It 3 doesn't make any difference at all to me, but 4 there may be people in the room that are not 5 going to be available. 6 MR. YELENOSKY: Because they're 7 preparing to watch? 8 CHAIRMAN BABCOCK: Super Bowl is on 9 Sunday, isn't it? 10 HON. SARAH B. DUNCAN: But it's in 11 Atlanta. There are going to be some people 12 traveling. 13 CHAIRMAN BABCOCK: Do you really 14 think the Cowboys are going to be in it? 15 HON. SARAH B. DUNCAN: I don't 16 know. It never even occurred to me. I'm not 17 even sure what sport it is. All I know is 18 it's on the 30th. 19 CHAIRMAN BABCOCK: We'll take our 20 chances on that. So the next meeting will be 21 January 28th and the morning of the 29th. And 22 I believe, Carrie, that we have a block of 23 rooms at The Four Seasons? We do. We have a 24 block of rooms at The Four Seasons. If you 25 tell them promptly that you're with the
1 on it. They're probably going to come back -- 2 because time has passed -- they're probably 3 going to come back to committee, but I don't 4 know that for sure. 5 PROFESSOR ALBRIGHT: Okay. So we 6 couldn't do that? 7 JUSTICE HECHT: I don't think we 8 could do that in November, no. 9 CHAIRMAN BABCOCK: Okay. So it 10 looks like January for our next meeting. And 11 we need to set that now so that we can reserve 12 hotel space and don't run into the problem 13 that we did this time. 14 So does anybody have any particular 15 preference in January 2000? 16 HON. SCOTT A. BRISTER: The later 17 the better. 18 PROFESSOR CARLSON: How about the 19 28th? 20 CHAIRMAN BABCOCK: Excuse me? 21 PROFESSOR CARLSON: The 28th. 22 CHAIRMAN BABCOCK: The 28th is a 23 Friday and the 29th is a Saturday. What do 24 people think about that? All right. Hearing 25 no dissent, then January 28th --	1 Supreme Court Advisory Committee, we get a 2 better rate, too, don't we? We get a good 3 rate, or a better rate, and a nice hotel and a 4 good room, so make your reservations quickly. 5 So that takes care of that. 6 Anything else on subcommittees? Okay. 7 Let's go to appellate issues. And Justice 8 McClure is going to tell us about appellate 9 issues, and then we're going to sit back and 10 watch Richard and Sarah fight each other for a 11 couple of hours. 12 HON. ANN CRAWFORD McCLURE: We had 13 some discussion at the subcommittee level 14 concerning the appropriate appellate standard 15 of review. The statute does not prescribe a 16 standard of review. Some of the other states 17 that have adopted these provisions have 18 incorporated a standard; others have not. 19 We came to the conclusion that it was 20 better if we remained silent on that issue, 21 except but to say that de novo in our view was 22 not the appropriate standard of review. 23 Part of the difficulty that we faced is 24 in a nutshell this: The trial judges on our 25 subcommittee took the position, a number of

1 them did, that because the statute allows for 2 so little discretion, if they find sufficient 3 evidence to support a conclusion that she is 4 mature enough to make this decision without 5 parental involvement, that they are very much 6 opposed to an abuse of discretion standard. 7 They would prefer that we utilize traditional 8 sufficiency review. That is problematic for a 9 couple of reasons. One, the intermediate 10 courts are not consistent in what we do with 11 traditional sufficiency review and overlapping 12 abuse of discretion. 13 Justice Duncan has written a dissenting 14 opinion on that subject. I've written a 15 majority opinion on the subject incorporating 16 some of Mike Hatchell's comments in an article 17 that he wrote on that issue. And the Supreme 18 Court has not addressed it directly. 19 So rather than fight that battle here or 20 at the subcommittee level, we simply noted the 21 disparity of opinions and did not express a 22 specific standard of review. 23 Does anybody have any questions on that? 24 CHAIRMAN BABCOCK: Any questions on 25 that? Comments? Suggestions? Next.	1 HON. ANN CRAWFORD McCLURE: We took 2 the rules -- my understanding of what you did 3 is you took out the specific references in the 4 rules that the committee drafted -- 5 HON. F. SCOTT McCOWN: No. Exactly 6 the opposite. 7 HON. ANN CRAWFORD McCLURE: -- and 8 simply wanted to incorporate the statutory 9 language. 10 HON. F. SCOTT McCOWN: No. I 11 thought we made exactly the opposite decision, 12 that we decided to agree to leave it just the 13 way the committee had it. 14 HON. ANN CRAWFORD McCLURE: I did 15 not hear that. That's fine. 16 All right. Well, we came up with some of 17 these time frames. We have crafted some 18 distinctions between rulings and opinions that 19 everybody may not agree on. 20 Obviously, whatever the intermediate 21 court does, should there be a situation in 22 which the intermediate court affirms the trial 23 court's denial, there can be an appeal to the 24 Supreme Court. The Supreme Court would need 25 the benefit of the intermediate court's
Page 351 1 HON. ANN CRAWFORD McCLURE: Filing 2 deadlines was next. Now, the subcommittee 3 took the position that we needed to come up 4 with something that could be practically 5 applied in the intermediate courts because 6 we've got a 48-hour -- in some instances a 7 little better than 48 hours, but for purposes 8 of our discussion, let's call it 48 hours of 9 turnaround time between the time the notice 10 was filed and the time the ruling must occur. 11 We had a debate over does ruling give 12 rise to a conclusion that is referencing the 13 opinion? Is it not referencing the opinion? 14 That is highlighted for you in the footnotes, 15 those discussions. 16 We did decide to adopt some appellate 17 timetables, and we have implemented some 18 rules. Given this group's decision to remove 19 the time frames from the trial court process 20 and merely refer to the statute, I suspect 21 that that will be a point you might want to 22 vocalize -- 23 HON. F. SCOTT McCOWN: We didn't 24 vote that way. I thought that's the opposite 25 of what we decided.	Page 353 1 analysis in order to consider those issues, so 2 there is obviously a more stringent time 3 constraint in the event of an affirmance than 4 in the event of a denial, because the denial 5 is not appealable. 6 So we tried to come up with some 7 realistic deadlines, and I'll let you debate 8 the wisdom of our conclusions on that. 9 CHAIRMAN BABCOCK: What rule is that 10 in? 11 HON. ANN CRAWFORD McCLURE: We're in 12 Rule 3.3. 13 HON. F. SCOTT McCOWN: It's on Page 14 25 of the big draft. 15 HON. ANN CRAWFORD McCLURE: It's 16 Rule 3, and then the time frame is 3.3(b). On 17 the annotated version, it's Page 25. 18 CHAIRMAN BABCOCK: If we can, before 19 we get on to the record, let's talk about 20 these deadlines, 3.3(b). Does anybody have 21 any comments or suggestions about these? 22 Were you finished, Ann? I didn't mean to 23 cut you off. 24 HON. ANN CRAWFORD McCLURE: Yes. 25 MS. SWEENEY: Chip.

1 CHAIRMAN BABCOCK: Paula.
 2 MS. SWEENEY: What are the 3 underpinnings of the continuance section?
 4 Where did that come from?
 5 HON. ANN CRAWFORD McCLURE: It comes
 6 from the statute.
 7 MS. SWEENEY: Okay. Well, what are 8 the underpinnings -- I know you all didn't 9 write the statute, but why is that sort of odd 10 looking clause in there?
 11 HON. ANN CRAWFORD McCLURE: What we 12 concluded ultimately was it would give the 13 opportunity for additional investigation, if 14 the ad litem or the applicant wanted to bring 15 other information to the trial court; that 16 they couldn't get the doctor up here in 17 48 hours and it was imperative in their view 18 that that doctor be here to give some 19 insight.
 20 From the appellate standpoint, the 21 opportunity is briefing an oral argument. If 22 the applicant wants, or her lawyer wants to 23 brief it in the court of appeals, that is a 24 mechanism in which to do that.
 25 CHAIRMAN BABCOCK: Justice Duncan.

1 HON. SARAH B. DUNCAN: Haven't we 2 already discussed requiring an opinion? The 3 statute speaks in terms of a ruling.
 4 HON. ANN CRAWFORD McCLURE: We
 5 debated that at the subcommittee. As to 6 whether confidentiality would apply, we 7 haven't discussed the distinctions between 8 ruling and opinion.
 9 CHAIRMAN BABCOCK: Richard tried to 10 make it public, but that failed.
 11 HON. SARAH B. DUNCAN: Whatever it 12 was.
 13 CHAIRMAN BABCOCK: Yeah. The 14 opinion as opposed to the ruling.
 15 MR. ORSINGER: There's just going to 16 be this universe of unknown law that's 17 developing out there.
 18 CHAIRMAN BABCOCK: Representative
 19 Dunnam, yeah.
 20 REPRESENTATIVE DUNNAM: In regard to 21 if the trial court does not rule, there is a 22 provision for automatic instanter
 23 certification to be issued by the clerk.
 24 There is not a similar paragraph with regard 25 to if the court of appeal does not rule.

1 CHAIRMAN BABCOCK: In the statute or 2 in the rules?
 3 REPRESENTATIVE DUNNAM: In the 4 rule. In the rule, under two point something 5 (f), it says that the applicant can go to the 6 clerk, if there has not been a ruling within 7 48 hours, and the clerk will give them a 8 certificate. There's not a similar provision 9 in regards to the court of appeals' failure to 10 rule.
 11 HON. ANN CRAWFORD McCLURE: It's in 12 3.3(b)(3), the last sentence, upon the minor's
 13 request, the court of appeals or its clerk
 14 must issue a certification that the appeal was 15 not ruled on in accordance with 33.004(b), 16 and, therefore, that the application is deemed 17 to be granted.
 18 REPRESENTATIVE DUNNAM: Never mind.
 19 HON. SARAH B. DUNCAN: Is it also 20 upon request in the trial court?
 21 MS. LOPEZ GARCIA: Yes. Upon
 22 request, the court of appeals or its clerk
 23 must issue a certification.
 24 HON. ANN CRAWFORD McCLURE: And the 25 forms include both for the trial court and the

1 appellate court, a format that might want to 2 be utilized to accomplish that.
 3 CHAIRMAN BABCOCK: Richard.
 4 MR. ORSINGER: Technically this 5 isn't on the table, but it's so close I'm 6 going to ask permission to raise it.
 7 On Rule 4.1, you provide that the notice 8 of appeal from the court of appeals to the 9 Supreme Court is to be filed in the Supreme 10 Court, and I think that's ill-advised. I 11 think that the notice of appeal from the court 12 of appeals to the Supreme Court should be 13 filed in the court of appeals, and then the 14 court of appeals will have the obligation to 15 notify the Supreme Court and forward the 16 record within 48 hours.
 17 I can foresee a lot of frantic activity 18 when the Supreme Court Clerk gets a notice and 19 doesn't have a record of trying to get the 20 clerk of the court of appeals to get the 21 record over there within the next 12 hours so 22 that the Supreme Court -- so anyway, it seems 23 logical to me that, like the notice of appeal
 24 to the court of appeals is filed in the trial 25 court, the notice of appeal to the Supreme

1 Court should be filed in the court of appeals
 2 and then forwarded.
 3 HON. ANN CRAWFORD McCLURE: We
 4 talked about that. In fact, the first draft 5 was that.
 6 MR. ORSINGER: Why did you all
 7 change it?
 8 HON. ANN CRAWFORD McCLURE: Because 9 right now all of the notices are filed in the 10 Supreme Court and there hasn't been any 11 difficulty with getting notice to the clerk of 12 the intermediate court. It's been filed again 13 as the record. We make a provision of 14 forwarding the file in 4.2(b). In order to 15 facilitate the delivery, we've utilized the 16 language "must instanter have forwarded to the 17 Supreme Court the portions of the record."
 18 MR. ORSINGER: But the timetable you
 19 guys are operating on is not a 48-hour 20 timetable. So when somebody drops this by at 21 4:30 in the afternoon on a Friday at the 22 Supreme Court, somebody in the Supreme Court 23 is going to desperately try to get ahold of 24 the clerk of the court of appeals to tell them 25 they need to pull the record together and get

1 it to the Supreme Court so they can rule
 2 within 48 hours. Is that not right? Or how 3 long does the Supreme Court have to rule? Oh, 4 is it -- how many business days?
 5 MR. TIPPS: There's no deadline with 6 the Supreme Court.
 7 MR. ORSINGER: Two business days.
 8 Okay. Well, I don't mean 48 hours, I mean two 9 business days. But as a practical matter, 10 shouldn't the party who has the duty to pull 11 the record together and get it out that same 12 day be the one that gets notice of the appeal, 13 and not the recipient, who then has to contact 14 the party that has to get it out to send it 15 back to the recipient.
 16 CHAIRMAN BABCOCK: Could you say 17 "with a copy to the clerk of the court of 18 appeals"?
 19 MR. ORSINGER: That would be okay
 20 with me too. I don't care about that. But it 21 seems to me like the court of appeals is the 22 one that needs to be humping, not the Supreme 23 Court. You're okay now because you've got 24 weeks and weeks and weeks to do it.
 25 CHAIRMAN BABCOCK: That's a well

1 known legal term, "got to be humping."
 2 Justice Duncan.
 3 HON. SARAH B. DUNCAN: This goes 4 back to my earlier question. Why does the 5 applicant have to request a judgment, which is 6 basically what this certification is? In no
 7 other circumstance that I'm aware of do we 8 require a party to ask us to issue a 9 judgment. We simply do. And I don't 10 understand.
 11 HON. ANN CRAWFORD McCLURE: Well, in 12 this instance, there hasn't been the issuance 13 of a judgment adjudicating. It's the 14 failure -- what you're talking about is what 15 you were talking about before. It is some 16 sort of certification that the court did not 17 act within the time constraints, which can be 18 prepared by the clerk.
 19 HON. SARAH B. DUNCAN: But it's sort
 20 of like void ab initio. If it is deemed to be 21 granted, then it is granted, and there is a 22 judgment entered or an order.
 23 HON. ANN CRAWFORD McCLURE: The 24 medical providers wanted to have a piece of 25 paper in their hands by which they could say,

1 "Yes, I have authority to go forward," and 2 some means to compare identity in the order or 3 the certificate from the clerk that it was 4 deemed granted to match it up with the 5 identity of the minor.
 6 HON. SARAH B. DUNCAN: But that's 7 what I'm saying. Why does the minor have to 8 request that? The usual thought is that until 9 the appellate court renders a final judgment 10 in the matter, there is nothing that will 11 merge with and obviate the trial court's 12 order, and we're all of a sudden in this one 13 context requiring a party to request a 14 judgment so that it will then be merged 15 into --
 16 HON. F. SCOTT McCOWN: It's not a
 17 judgment. It's a certificate from the clerk 18 that there was no judgment within the time
 19 allotted by law.
 20 HON. SARAH B. DUNCAN: But if it's 21 deemed to be granted, then it is granted.
 22 HON. F. SCOTT McCOWN: But the 23 provider has to have a piece of paper to go 24 forward.
 25 CHAIRMAN BABCOCK: Elaine Carlson.

1 PROFESSOR CARLSON: I agree with 2 Sarah. I think you just strike the words
3 "Upon the minor's request," and tie it in 4 with the first sentence. Make it obligatory
5 to issue the certificate.

6 HON. SARAH B. DUNCAN: Otherwise
7 there is no judgment. We have trial court
8 order, appeal, and no judgment. It's like it 9 just vanishes into thin air somewhere and 10 there's no resolution of the proceeding if 11 there is no appellate court order, no
12 judgment.

13 MR. PEMBERTON: I think part of the 14 problem is, the reason you don't have a ruling 15 is trial court inaction, and so there was a 16 provision for a party, there having been 17 inaction, to go to the clerk and get something 18 out of them. I mean, otherwise, you'd have 19 people similarly waiting for their 20 certification that never comes.

21 HON. SARAH B. DUNCAN: But that's
22 what I'm saying. I think inaction is action.

23 HON. F. SCOTT McCOWN: But it's not 24 a record of inaction. The certificate is a 25 record of inaction.

1 between the court and the clerk. But the 2 clerk is our appointed employee and in large 3 measure does what we suggest that he or she 4 do.

5 HON. F. SCOTT McCOWN: With 6 independent statutory duties. If we went in 7 to the clerk and said, "Destroy all the 8 records," I'm assuming the clerk wouldn't do 9 it. This is an independent statutory duty, by 10 rule, placed on the clerk, to issue a 11 certificate that you haven't done what the law 12 told you to do.

13 PROFESSOR CARLSON: And if the minor 14 doesn't ask for the certificate, then where is 15 the judgment?

16 MS. LOPEZ GARCIA: There won't be 17 one because there is no mechanism set up.
18 There's no tickler system or anything where 19 the clerk could know when the 48 hours had 20 passed or whatever time has passed that they 21 would know to issue an order or a certificate
22 saying that it's granted as a matter of law
23 because the judge failed to rule on it.

24 HON. SARAH B. DUNCAN: That's an 25 easy things to know. We time stamp things

1 HON. SARAH B. DUNCAN: But the 2 point, it seems to me, is not to make a record 3 of the inaction, but to make a record, the 4 judgment or order, of the effect of the 5 inaction. That application is granted at that 6 point in time.

7 HON. F. SCOTT McCOWN: And who 8 certifies to that?

9 HON. SARAH B. DUNCAN: We issue a 10 judgment, is what we do.

11 HON. F. SCOTT McCOWN: Put here is 12 the problem: You've got two different
13 actors. The court doesn't act within the time 14 required. Now, the doctor needs a piece of 15 paper saying, "I can do this." The court
16 hasn't acted. It doesn't do any good to say 17 that the court will issue a record that it 18 hasn't acted, because if the court is ignoring 19 its duty to act and hasn't acted once, it can 20 ignore its duty to act and not act twice. So 21 you have a second party, which is the clerk, 22 that issues the piece of paper that says the 23 court didn't act.

24 HON. SARAH B. DUNCAN: why do you do
25 that? The court -- maybe this is semantics

1 when they're filed. We note that they were 2 filed and they have a date and time stamp on 3 them.

4 HON. F. SCOTT McCOWN: But if I'm a
5 doctor, I don't know if there's an order in 6 the file or not. I need a piece of paper from 7 the clerk telling me that there is no order in 8 the file.

9 HON. SARAH B. DUNCAN: No. What you
10 need is -- it seems to me, what I would need, 11 as the doctor, is a piece of paper that is the 12 order granting the application because the 13 court failed to act on it.

14 MR. YELENOSKY: Signed by?

15 HON. SARAH B. DUNCAN: Signed by the 16 court.

17 MR. YELENOSKY: But the court
18 doesn't do it.

19 HON. SARAH B. DUNCAN: The court has 20 acted by failing to act.

21 HON. F. SCOTT McCOWN: But they 22 refused to sign it, or they don't sign. They 23 didn't sign the first time. You're acting
24 like how could that possibly happen, yet 25 they've already been told to do it within

1 48 hours. They've already failed once. So 2 assuming they failed once, we're not going to 3 let them fail again.

4 CHAIRMAN BABCOCK: Judge Rhea.

5 HON. BILL RHEA: If you take out
6 that language "upon the minor's request," it
7 seems to me that you're making it more 8 difficult for the minor to get the piece of 9 paper. Because if you take it out, then the 10 clerk has got the obligation to certify it.
11 What are we going to do? Where is the clerk
12 going to get the information that the judge
13 hasn't acted? It may just sit there for a 14 week or two. And then if the minor comes up 15 and asks for it, the clerk says, "What are you 16 talking about?" Then here is this rule that 17 says upon the minor's request the clerk shall 18 do it. It seems to me the minor is at least 19 as well off and probably better off with this 20 on it.

21 PROFESSOR CARLSON: And what if the 22 minor doesn't ever ask?

23 HON. BILL RHEA: Well, she's got an 24 attorney.

25 HON. F. SCOTT McCOWN: If she didn't

1 ask, then she didn't want it. She's changed
2 her mind.

3 PROFESSOR CARLSON: Where is the 4 judgment? In every other instance, I agree
5 with Justice Duncan, you end up with a 6 judgment of the court, and that defines the 7 date and the time and --

8 CHAIRMAN BABCOCK: Well, if this 9 plays out the way that it's kind of playing 10 out, the 48 hours passes, the minor, either by 11 herself or through her attorney, gets her 12 certificate from the clerk. That certificate 13 is taken to the doctor and the procedure is 14 performed. The court may sometime later 15 decide something, although by then it's moot.
16 I mean, you can come up with another piece of 17 paper if you want, but you will have a file 18 that won't be finished in the traditional 19 sense, but what does it matter, because all of 20 the relief that's requested is granted. And 21 it's not like the media is going to come get 22 you, because they can't see it.

23 HON. SARAH B. DUNCAN: I don't know, 24 I maybe we're not communicating. If the 25 statute says the application is deemed

1 granted, then it is granted. And if I'm a 2 provider out there, I don't want to know that 3 you didn't act. I want this statute to be 4 implemented, and I want an order that says
5 that application is granted. That's 6 completely different from saying the court
7 failed to act.

8 CHAIRMAN BABCOCK: That's what the 9 clerk's form says. That's what the clerk's 10 form is supposed to say, right?

11 HON. SARAH B. DUNCAN: Yes, deemed 12 granted.

13 PROFESSOR CARLSON: I understood the 14 legislative intent was that there had to be a 15 judgment granted in the event of inaction.

16 PROFESSOR DORSANELO: There is a form
17 here, isn't there? 3D? Why don't we look at 18 it and see if it would make any sense to a 19 doctor.

20 MS. LOPEZ GARCIA: Form 2D.

21 MR. PEMBERTON: The term "deemed 22 granted" comes from the statute.

23 CHAIRMAN BABCOCK: It's like a 24 motion for new trial, deemed overruled, no
25 order.

1 HON. F. SCOTT McCOWN: I mean, as a
2 trial judge, I can sleep at night even knowing 3 there are so many motions for new trial out 4 there that have been overruled by operation of 5 law and I've not tied up the paperwork.

6 HON. SARAH B. DUNCAN: I'm sorry,
7 but that's completely different. Because if a 8 motion for new trial is overruled by operation
9 of law, there is an extant judgment. It 10 exists. We can look at it. We can touch it.
11 But what we're talking about is a judgment 12 that isn't.

13 PROFESSOR ALBRIGHT: There is no
14 judgment.

15 HON. ANN CRAWFORD McCLURE: It is 16 legislatively granted realistically. It 17 wasn't by the judge. It was deemed granted by 18 the Legislature, because the judge didn't act
19 within the time frame. That's realistically
20 what it is. And I understand your confusion.

21 HON. SARAH B. DUNCAN: But is that 22 in and of itself a judgment? I mean, what 23 we've got here is a clerk issuing what is, in 24 legal effect, a judgment. No, it's a 25 judgment. The application is deemed to be

1 granted. That's a judgment.
 2 CHAIRMAN BABCOCK: That's what the
 3 statute says. Richard.
 4 MR. ORSINGER: Both at the trial
 5 court level and the court of appeals, and now
 6 the court of appeals to the Supreme Court
 7 level, we're saying that the passage of time
 8 is tantamount to a grant. It doesn't say that 9 it's tantamount to a signed order. And it
 10 says that the physician is entitled to go 11 ahead and perform the abortion. So the 12 legislation says that if the court doesn't 13 act, the operation goes forward. And there's 14 no requirement that there be a piece of paper 15 for the operation to go forward, if this 16 clause applies.
 17 And let me say as an aside that I'm 18 bothered by the forms because they don't 19 identify the woman. So if we take this form 20 into the hospital and it's "Jane Doe" and her 21 name isn't anywhere on here, how the hell do 22 they know it's the right Jane Doe?
 23 HON. ANN CRAWFORD McCLURE: Now,
 24 there is a verification page, and I know you 25 all didn't get these in time to thoroughly

1 analyze it, but the concept is there is a
 2 verification page that she has to fill out 3 that gives her identity, that is marked with 4 the docket number. It is removed from the 5 court file and placed under seal or in a vault 6 or someplace secure and separate. She is 7 given a certified copy of her verification
 8 page that has her name on it and the docket 9 number. What the doctors asked for was, "We 10 want some document from the court showing it's 11 either been granted or he didn't act in time 12 and it's deemed to be granted, and some 13 mechanism by which we can match identity."
 14 And that's what we tried to do.
 15 MR. ORSINGER: Okay. So the 16 document the woman has, they can match the 17 cause number up with the order and realize 18 it's the same woman?
 19 HON. ANN CRAWFORD McCLURE: Yes.
 20 MR. ORSINGER: Okay. Then my next 21 question is, who says she has the right to 22 appeal to the Supreme Court? If you read the 23 statute, it only provides for an appeal to the 24 court of appeals, and it doesn't provide for 25 any -- it just says that if the court of

1 appeals fails to act, the operation goes
 2 forward. It doesn't say that there is any 3 appeal to the Supreme Court and that the 4 operation is delayed because of the appeal to 5 the Supreme Court or anything else.
 6 HON. ANN CRAWFORD McCLURE: There is 7 a provision that says, "An expedited
 8 confidential appeal shall be available to any 9 pregnant minor to whom a court of appeals 10 denies an order authorizing the minor to 11 consent." Now, if it's not the Supreme Court, 12 I don't know who it is.
 13 JUSTICE HECHT: The Court of 14 Criminal Appeals, I hope.
 15 CHAIRMAN BABCOCK: It's 33.004(f).
 16 HON. ANN CRAWFORD McCLURE: It's 17 kind of buried in the intermediate paragraph.
 18 MR. ORSINGER: And this means to the 19 Supreme Court of Texas?
 20 HON. ANN CRAWFORD McCLURE: Well,
 21 our subcommittee decided that that was 22 probably the best thing we could recommend.
 23 HON. F. SCOTT McCOWN: Unless it's 24 any court in Texas.
 25 CHAIRMAN BABCOCK: That's right. In

1 this state. Okay. Does that solve your 2 problem?
 3 MR. ORSINGER: Yeah.
 4 CHAIRMAN BABCOCK: All right. Now,
 5 Sarah, have you still got -- yeah, you're 6 bemused by all of this.
 7 HON. SARAH B. DUNCAN: It's just 8 never-never land.
 9 CHAIRMAN BABCOCK: All right.
 10 Richard had raised a point earlier -- 11 HON. SARAH B. DUNCAN: How can you 12 not have --
 13 MR. ORSINGER: You can by being a 14 legislature and passing a law like this.
 15 HON. SARAH B. DUNCAN: But all the 16 statute says is, "If the court of appeals
 17 fails to rule on the appeal within the period 18 specified by this subsection, the appeal is 19 deemed to be granted and the physician may 20 perform the abortion as if the court had 21 issued an order authorizing the minor to 22 consent to the performance of the abortion
 23 without notificaion under Section 33.002."
 24 And that's fine. All they're saying is that 25 it's deemed granted by failure to act.

1 They don't say that the court, by rule, 2 is going to create a class of cases in which 3 the only order in existence is an order that's 4 been reversed.
 5 MR. YELENOSKY: Well, it doesn't say
 6 that.
 7 MR. ORSINGER: No, it gets murky.
 8 MR. YELENOSKY: Presumably you would 9 issue a judgment. But in those courts where 10 you can't get a signed judgment because the 11 court won't do it in a timely manner, you need 12 somebody who has administrative duty to issue a 13 piece of paper for the doctor, and that's the 14 clerk.
 15 HON. SARAH B. DUNCAN: I'm not 16 disagreeing with that.
 17 MR. YELENOSKY: Then what are you
 18 doing?
 19 HON. SARAH B. DUNCAN: The court
 20 must issue an order granting the application 21 if they fail to act within the time specified
 22 by the statute.
 23 MR. YELENOSKY: And if they don't,
 24 the clerk can't make the court do that.
 25 HON. SARAH B. DUNCAN: Well, I would

1 say regardless of whether the court does that 2 or not, fulfills that obligation, of course,
 3 you can always go to the clerk and get a
 4 certified copy of something that exists or a 5 certification by the clerk that it does not 6 exist.
 7 CHAIRMAN BABCOCK: And that's kind
 8 of what they're trying to do. I think maybe 9 we're arguing about that less-than-one-percent 10 of the cases where the court of appeals does 11 not do what the statute and the rules require 12 them to do that.
 13 HON. SARAH B. DUNCAN: These rules
 14 don't require us to issue an order.
 15 CHAIRMAN BABCOCK: Well, but the 16 statute does. The statute gives you two days
 17 to do something. And these rules, as I
 18 understand it, say that if the court itself 19 does not provide the minor with a piece of 20 paper that she can take to the doctor and say,
 21 "See, I win on this," and then the doctor 22 says, "Great, okay, let's go," then in that 23 instance, in that rare instance, which would 24 never happen in the San Antonio Court of 25 Appeals, but in that rare instance, then there

1 is another mechanism where the child can go to 2 the clerk. And the clerk will issue this 3 piece of paper, which the doctors are saying,
 4 "For our protection, we've got to have it."
 5 Right?
 6 HON. ANN CRAWFORD McCLURE: Right.
 7 Part of our concern also was on this time
 8 frame. Let's suppose it's filed in the middle 9 of July and everybody is on vacation or 10 they're all attending the Economic Institute 11 in Lawrence, Kansas, or wherever all of the 12 judges happen to be, and there is inaction.
 13 And now she's got a legislative grant to go
 14 forward, and there's no judge to sign it.
 15 HON. SARAH B. DUNCAN: And I'm not 16 suggesting there should not be a procedure by 17 which the clerk certifies for a lack of 18 action. All I'm suggesting is, in every other 19 kind of case we are required to issue a final 20 order or a judgment disposing of that matter.
 21 I'm not even sure how the Office of Court 22 Administration is going to let us dispose of 23 these statistically.
 24 MR. HATCHELL: One reason you have a 25 judgment as opposed to a record of inaction is

1 because the only extant judgment is a judgment
 2 that contains findings. The only findings 3 made by anybody authorized to make findings in 4 this case --
 5 THE REPORTER: Mr. Hatchell, could 6 you please speak up.
 7 MR. HATCHELL: I was saying the 8 reasons we have a judgment of a case on 9 appeal, as opposed to just an order of 10 inaction, is because you have a live, 11 un-superseded judgment that denies the 12 application, which, under the statute, 13 contains findings which are contrary to the 14 right which is being sought.
 15 There are many cases that hold that if 16 your last judgment is set aside, it is a 17 binding judgment. So basically what you end 18 up with, under our procedure, is something 19 that says, "We have failed to take an action, 20 and we deem it's granted," but on the other 21 hand, this judgment is still alive. And there 22 are cases in Texas which will recognize the 23 existence of two live judgments at the same 24 time.
 25 And this procedure which the legislators

1 set up is impossible. The only way you can 2 solve Sarah's dilemma is to amend our rules to 3 say, you used to on the judgment, but at least 4 setting aside the trial court's judgment.
 5 MR. ORSINGER: But Mike, by that 6 time, it's mooted because the abortion is 7 over, and all you should do at that point is 8 dismiss the whole proceeding.
 9 MR. HATCHELL: That's probably 10 right.
 11 MR. ORSINGER: So you shouldn't be 12 issuing an order, because it's going to be 13 moot by the time you issue it.
 14 PROFESSOR CARLSON: So when does the 15 plenary power of the court of appeals expire?
 16 It could run, under Rule 19, from the day of 17 the judgment. What you have is a certificate 18 from the clerk saying that, well, they didn't 19 act in time. Now what?. I'm not worried about 20 the minor getting the abortion. That's taken 21 place with the certificate. What I'm 22 concerned about is our judicial process and 23 having a judgment of the court.
 24 HON. SARAH B. DUNCAN: It's the 25 conceptual basis of the proceeding. And I

1 don't think it's inconsistent. I rarely
 2 scream at Michael Hatchell, but I don't think 3 it's necessarily inconsistent with the words
 4 of the statute to tell the court of appeals 5 that in this case, like in any other, you will 6 render a judgment. And regardless of whether 7 you do or not, the applicant can go get a 8 certification from the clerk as to whether you 9 acted or not in a timely fashion.
 10 MR. EDWARDS: Why don't you just put 11 in there that if the court doesn't act within 12 the time prescribed, the court will dismiss 13 the case as moot?
 14 MR. ORSINGER: Better dismiss the 15 trial court proceeding as moot, not the 16 appellate proceeding.
 17 HON. F. SCOTT McCOWN: These are 18 stand-alone rules. We're not creating 19 precedent for other cases or other 20 procedures. They are stand-alone rules to 21 meet a legislative mandate of a particular 22 problem, and it's just a very practical a lot 23 way to get it done.
 24 HON. MICHAEL H. SCHNEIDER:
 25 Shouldn't we also keep in mind that this is

1 just a defense to a criminal action? It's not 2 really -- I mean, you can say it's consent, 3 whether or not it's deemed consent or whether 4 or not you obtained consent. When this really 5 becomes relevant is when you go to a criminal 6 trial and a doctor is charged with this. So 7 we may be arguing about something that really 8 doesn't add that much value.
 9 HON. ANN CRAWFORD McCLURE: This 10 whole scheme was set up at the request of the 11 medical care providers on the subcommittee who 12 made it quite clear that they were not going 13 to perform the abortions unless they had 14 something indicating inaction resulting in a 15 deemed granting of the application.
 16 MR. ORSINGER: They wanted a piece
 17 of paper they can look at. They don't want to 18 just count calendar days.
 19 HON. SARAH B. DUNCAN: Well, why
 20 aren't there alternatives? We can certainly 21 provide for certification and also a final 22 order.
 23 CHAIRMAN BABCOCK: The voice of the 24 clerk is speaking.
 25 PROFESSOR DORSANEO: And it's not

1 possible to hear at this end of the room.
 2 CHAIRMAN BABCOCK: Speak up,
 3 everybody.
 4 MS. GROOMER: I have one other
 5 observation with regard to the clerk
 6 certificate that we discussed. One thing that 7 the doctors were very concerned about was the 8 ability to marry up the verification page that 9 is removed from the application and never 10 proceeds with the case from the trial court 11 level. If it goes up to appeal, the 12 verification page is not sent up. It only 13 resides with the trial court clerk.
 14 And the doctors were very concerned about 15 having access to that verification page, 16 matching it up with the correct minor to do 17 the procedure on the correct person. So the 18 certificate is a way to marry up the 19 verification page with a written record from 20 the court that there is no order entered, so 21 it's deemed granted, and here is your 22 verification. And they wanted both of those, 23 of course, a certified copy of the 24 verification page under seal and the notice
 25 under seal. There has to be a way to get back

1 to them the verification of the identity.
 2 CHAIRMAN BABCOCK: Justice McClure,
 3 having heard these concerns, is there anything 4 that you want us to propose, suggest?
 5 HON. ANN CRAWFORD McCLURE: How 6 about legislative amendments?
 7 CHAIRMAN BABCOCK: Short of 8 legislative amendments.
 9 HON. ANN CRAWFORD McCLURE: I think
 10 it's important that -- and we tried to do that 11 by footnote and comment. The difficulty was 12 implementing the scheme at the appellate level 13 certainly, and I don't disagree with the 14 problems that both of you are expressing, and 15 perhaps it would be appropriate for this 16 committee to reinforce those difficulties to 17 the Supreme Court to try and resolve some of 18 the issues.
 19 This was a long process in my committee 20 to come up with something that everybody could 21 sign on to, and I'm uncomfortable at this 22 point making alterations in that scheme on 23 behalf of my subcommittee. So I would 24 encourage you, if you could reach a consensus 25 that you can support, that you do it by way of

1 expressing your opinion.
 2 CHAIRMAN BABCOCK: Okay. I think
 3 what we should do is this: Bob, if you could 4 note for the Court that there is considerable 5 consternation among some of the appellate 6 specialists on our committee concerning this 7 never-never land proceeding; that it is just 8 going to be out there in the ether; and that,
 9 while we won't propose any particular concrete 10 solutions, we think that there's a potential 11 problem there. Is that a fair analysis?
 12 HON. F. SCOTT McCOWN: Well, I'm not 13 sure what you mean by the word "considerable." 14 Are you talking about the strength of their 15 individual feeling or the strength of their 16 numbers?
 17 CHAIRMAN BABCOCK: I was confining
 18 it to a small group of lawyers on our Advisory 19 Committee that specialize in appellate 20 practice. So I would not say that the concern 21 is shared by Anne McNamara, just to pick 22 somebody. Have I got that straight, Anne?
 23 MS. McNAMARA: You've got it right.
 24 MR. ORSINGER: A few are concerned;
 25 the rest don't care.

1 CHAIRMAN BABCOCK: Well, we wouldn't 2 want to say that we're uncaring either.
 3 Bill and then Carl.
 4 PROFESSOR DORSANEO: Well, I'm back
 5 on Form 3D, and I would like that form to say 6 what it means, that the application is 7 granted. Well, I'm looking at 3D, and Nina
 8 tells me 2D is the same thing.
 9 CHAIRMAN BABCOCK: 2D is the trial
 10 court and 3D is the court of appeals.
 11 PROFESSOR DORSANEO: All right. I
 12 guess I'm really talking about 2D and then 13 also talking about 3D. I don't like language, 14 even though the statute uses the language 15 "deemed to be granted," I mean, it either is 16 granted or it isn't granted. Let's have it be 17 granted. And let's say what that means, so 18 somebody reading it can know that it means 19 that you can perform the abortion on getting 20 the consent of the right person. And it might 21 be a good idea to indicate how you ascertain 22 who the right person is.
 23 CHAIRMAN BABCOCK: You would say
 24 "granted by operation of law" or something 25 like that?

1 PROFESSOR DORSANEO: "Granted" is 2 fine with me.
 3 CHAIRMAN BABCOCK: Okay. Carl.
 4 MR. HAMILTON: I just wondered if 5 any thought was given to this question of how 6 the trial court transmits the notice of record
 7 to the court of appeals. Because if this 8 happens, let's say, Monday afternoon at 4:30 9 and the notice of appeal is filed, then the 10 appellate court has to rule by 5:00 o'clock on 11 Wednesday. They're not even going to have the 12 record in most cases or the notice by that 13 time.
 14 CHAIRMAN BABCOCK: That's the next 15 issue on our checklist here, the record on 16 appeal. We'll get to that in one second 17 here. Any other comments? Richard, do you 18 have a comment?
 19 MR. ORSINGER: Bill's suggestion
 20 that we turn the "deemed granted" to "granted" 21 troubles me a little bit, especially if it's 22 signed by a clerk. I think a clerk could sign 23 something that by operation of law is deemed 24 granted, but I don't know. If the court 25 doesn't act and the clerk is certifying that

1 the court didn't act, it seems to me like we 2 shouldn't that the court is acting, we should 3 just say that by law it's as if the court
 4 acted. I know it sounds bizarre.
 5 CHAIRMAN BABCOCK: Ann, do you
 6 accept Bill's recommendation?
 7 HON. ANN CRAWFORD McCLURE: No.
 8 CHAIRMAN BABCOCK: Okay. So we 9 don't need to discuss that.
 10 PROFESSOR DORSANEQ: Why don't we 11 write it in Chinese.
 12 CHAIRMAN BABCOCK: We could do that 13 too.
 14 HON. ANN CRAWFORD McCLURE: Well, we 15 address Vietnamese, English and Spanish. We 16 can put it in Chinese too.
 17 CHAIRMAN BABCOCK: Justice Duncan.
 18 HON. SARAH B. DUNCAN: Well, I would 19 defer to Chief Justice Hardberger on this, but 20 our clerks don't even want to tell you when a 21 brief is due. Now, it's just beyond my 22 imagination that clerks are going to be 23 comfortable with basically granting an 24 application to bypass parental notification.
 25 CHAIRMAN BABCOCK: Well, it's an

1 administerial duty for sure.
 2 MR. ORSINGER: By a non-elected
 3 official, I might add.
 4 CHAIRMAN BABCOCK: A district clerk?
 5 MR. ORSINGER: No. The clerk of the 6 court of appeals who is going to be signing 7 all of these when the court of appeals never 8 rules on them.
 9 HON. ANN CRAWFORD McCLURE: We did 10 have one appellate court clerk on the 11 committee who was comfortable with this 12 language.
 13 CHAIRMAN BABCOCK: Justice McClure,
 14 Richard's point, made several hours ago, that 15 on Rule 4.1 the notice should be filed with 16 the Supreme Court with a copy to the clerk of 17 the court of appeals, is that something you 18 can accept or not?
 19 HON. ANN CRAWFORD McCLURE: Sure.
 20 With a copy to the court of appeals, I think.
 21 CHAIRMAN BABCOCK: To the clerk of 22 the court of appeals. Is that okay with you,
 23 Richard?
 24 MR. ORSINGER: Yeah. But I would 25 make a plea, since the court of appeals is

1 probably going to be in the city where the 2 woman lives or at least close by to it, why 3 don't we file it with the court of appeals and 4 send a copy to the Supreme Court instead of 5 filing it in the Supreme Court. You're going 6 to lose another two days if you mail it to the 7 Supreme Court, and then they're going to 8 contact back to the court of appeals, which is 9 then going to have to mail something back to 10 the Supreme Court. And we've lost five or 11 seven days, and we've got everybody else
 12 running around on a 48-hour or two-business-13 day timetable, and I don't see the logic.
 14 HON. F. SCOTT McCOWN: Does the 15 Supreme Court have fax filing?
 16 MR. PEMBERTON: Not at the present
 17 time.
 18 CHAIRMAN BABCOCK: Do you accept
 19 that change, Justice McClure?
 20 HON. ANN CRAWFORD McCLURE: Not on 21 behalf of the subcommittee, I can't, because 22 we had that debate.
 23 CHAIRMAN BABCOCK: So we'll add the 24 language "with a copy to the clerk of the 25 court of appeals," unless anybody objects.

1 Does anybody object? No objections.
 2 MR. ORSINGER: Can I make a comment
 3 on record, or have you moved on from record?
 4 CHAIRMAN BABCOCK: No, we're going
 5 to the record, but let's let Justice McClure 6 tell us what their thinking was on that.
 7 HON. ANN CRAWFORD McCLURE: There
 8 was a great deal of interest in whether we 9 would permit audiotape recordings of the trial
 10 proceeding in the event that the recorder's 11 record could not be prepared. After a 12 considerable amount of debate and a great deal 13 of input from appellate judges, who are 14 adamantly opposed almost universally to 15 disallowing audiotapes, and after consultation 16 with the court reporters that the record could 17 be transcribed immediately after the 18 proceeding, we opted to require the 19 preparation of a formal reporter's record 20 instant after the proceedings, at which 21 point no one yet will know whether there is 22 going to be an appeal. Now, obviously, if 23 there's a denial, you can pretty much 24 guarantee that there will be.
 25 But in any event, the reporters are going

1 to go ahead, in our version of the rules, and 2 prepare a reporter's record for transmission
 3 to the court of appeals.
 4 CHAIRMAN BABCOCK: Richard.
 5 MR. ORSINGER: My first comment is 6 that under Rule 3.2(b), the trial clerk has to 7 forward the reporter's record, but there's no
 8 duty on the reporter to prepare the reporter's 9 record. And so I can foresee that there's a 10 conflict there where the district clerk is the 11 one who has the duty to comply and no power to 12 comply. And should we not have a sentence in 13 here that requires the court reporter to 14 prepare it?
 15 HON. ANN CRAWFORD McCLURE: There
 16 is. Let me find it for you.
 17 PROFESSOR ALBRIGHT: 2.4(d).
 18 MR. ORSINGER: 2.4(d) just says that 19 the court reporter has to make a record. It 20 doesn't say it has to transcribe it.
 21 HON. F. SCOTT McCOWN: It says the 22 recording must be transcribed.
 23 MR. ORSINGER: Well, I'm reading
 24 something that says, "The hearing must be 25 transcribed." What are you looking at?

1 that have no sexual abuse and no dispute, and 2 the court reporters are going to all do that?
 3 HON. HARVEY G. BROWN, JR.: And the 4 State of Texas is going to have to pay for 5 it. The court reporters are paid by the State
 6 of Texas under the statute.
 7 HON. ANN CRAWFORD McCLURE: Under
 8 the statute, the Department of Health is going 9 to be responsible for payment of the ad litem 10 and the reporters. We've drafted forms to 11 that effect. The Department of Health did not 12 receive explicit appropriations in the budget
 13 process for that. They do have the ability 14 under their budget to juggle. I have gotten a 15 letter from the director of the department.
 16 They are trying to come up with some sort of 17 uniformity.
 18 They had asked our subcommittee to draft
 19 some sort of guideline on ascertaining fees 20 for ad litem and for the guardians and for 21 the court reporters, which we declined to do, 22 but we put them in touch with the people that 23 keep those records, OCA in particular.
 24 CHAIRMAN BABCOCK: Judge Rhea.
 25 HON. BILL RHEA: I think that's

1 HON. F. SCOTT McCOWN: "The hearing
 2 must be transcribed."
 3 MR. ORSINGER: In my view that means 4 that the court reporter makes a record of 5 what's said. That doesn't mean that you type 6 it. You only type it up in the event that 7 there's going to be an appeal.
 8 HON. F. SCOTT McCOWN: "Transcribe"
 9 means to type it up.
 10 MR. ORSINGER: So this means that 11 every time there's a hearing, they have to 12 type it up, even if it's granted?
 13 HON. ANN CRAWFORD McCLURE: Yes.
 14 MR. ORSINGER: Why?
 15 HON. ANN CRAWFORD McCLURE: Because
 16 there is a provision that, to the extent 17 there's sexual assault on the child or abuse, 18 the court has a duty to refer that for 19 investigation and potential prosecution. And 20 the concept was those notes may be necessary 21 in order to facilitate that provision of the 22 statute.
 23 MR. ORSINGER: So because of the 24 instances in which we have suspected sexual 25 abuse, we're going to transcribe all of them

1 potentially a very large expense. I have no
 2 idea how many of these will be filed, but if 3 it's any significant number, and then we 4 could -- I could envision getting into a long 5 hearing on it and having a long record.
 6 JUSTICE HECHT: The estimates are 7 2,000 cases a year statewide. Our state 8 agency people project that, and that the 9 average hearing is 15 minutes.
 10 HON. ANN CRAWFORD McCLURE: Fifteen
 11 to 30, I think, is what they predicted.
 12 JUSTICE HECHT: So you would have 13 probably a 15- or 20-page record, that would 14 be the average. If you had 2,000 cases, it 15 might be $100 for the record, so you're 16 looking at $20,000 -- $200,000.
 17 HON. F. SCOTT McCOWN: Could we 18 limit it? Could we say the hearing must be 19 transcribed when there is any concern about 20 physical, sexual or emotional abuse, tracking 21 the language of the statute? Instead of 22 transcribing it in every single case, just 23 transcribe it in those cases where that has 24 been an issue.
 25 MR. YELENOSKY: Or where there has

1 been a denial.
 2 MR. ORSINGER: Where it's been 3 denied or where the court finds reason to be 4 concerned about the safety of the child or 5 something.
 6 HON. F. SCOTT McCOWN: Because one
 7 problem, particularly in a county where by 8 local rule you're going to maybe limit the 9 number of judges who are hearing these cases, 10 is you're going to tie your court reporter up 11 in the preparation. These are presumably 12 shorter records, but you're going to be tying 13 your court reporter up in the preparation of 14 those records. And $200,000 is not an 15 inconsiderable sum, particularly since the 16 Department of Health is taking it out of some 17 important line items. So why can't we limit 18 it to when we need it?
 19 CHAIRMAN BABCOCK: Judge Medina.
 20 HON. SAMUEL A. MEDINA: One of the 21 other concerns, Scott, was the fact that often 22 times court reporters have their own
 23 shorthand, and if they don't get it done now, 24 if they put it up, something results later, 25 where maybe they found abuse and they want to

1 Cindy, do you recall explicitly what the 2 other language was on retention, records
 3 retention? It was two years past majority 4 and --
 5 MS. GROOMER: And then 60 days after 6 the retention period has expired after the age 7 of majority.
 8 MR. YELENOSKY: What's the purpose
 9 of that? If it's been granted, the abortion 10 has been performed, it's moot, why are we 11 retaining -- why did we transcribe them, and 12 why are we retaining them?
 13 HON. ANN CRAWFORD McCLURE: There
 14 was a concern expressed about liability
 15 issues, ad litem liability issues.
 16 MS. SWEENEY: What about doctor
 17 liability issues?
 18 HON. ANN CRAWFORD McCLURE: And
 19 doctor liability issues, too.
 20 MS. GROOMER: And also the need of 21 the record for potential criminal
 22 proceedings.
 23 MR. ORSINGER: Where is the 24 retention requirement?
 25 MR. PEMBERTON: It's 1.6.

1 know more about it in this hearing, and for 2 whatever reason, that court reporter is no
 3 longer there, you can't find them, they die, 4 something, and it's very difficult to 5 transcribe their notes with their shorthand.
 6 HON. F. SCOTT McCOWN: Well, I
 7 understand that.
 8 HON. SAMUEL A. MEDINA: So it says
 9 they need to get it done like that.
 10 HON. F. SCOTT McCOWN: But I hear a 11 regular docket of child abuse cases where all 12 we're talking about are allegations of 13 physical, sexual and emotional abuse, and 14 there's no requirement that those hearings be 15 transcribed. And yet here, where it might 16 come up, we're requiring that they all be 17 transcribed.
 18 CHAIRMAN BABCOCK: Judge Rhea.
 19 HON. BILL RHEA: And didn't we hear
 20 somewhere that these records were destroyed
 21 after 60 days? Is that right?
 22 HON. ANN CRAWFORD McCLURE: No.
 23 There is a retention period for a minor, two 24 years past the age of majority. I forget 25 precisely what the other language is.

1 CHAIRMAN BABCOCK: Okay. To the 2 extent that Judge McCown is making a proposal 3 to limit the number of cases that are 4 transcribed by the clerk, does the 5 subcommittee accept that suggestion?
 6 HON. ANN CRAWFORD McCLURE: No.
 7 CHAIRMAN BABCOCK: Anything else.
 8 MR. ORSINGER: I'm sure going to 9 second that. I think that's important.
 10 CHAIRMAN BABCOCK: Do we want to 11 have a vote? Okay. How many people think 12 that the number of cases that should be 13 transcribed by the court reporter should be 14 limited in some fashion to cases of denial and 15 allegations of abuse? Raise your hand.
 16 MR. YELENOSKY: I mean, we were just 17 told, sort of as an afterthought, that the 18 doctors wanted this, and I've just heard that 19 now. Originally, it was because there may be 20 sexual abuse that we would need to refer. In 21 mulling that over, I couldn't see why to keep 22 it. But now there's an argument that we do 23 need them in every instance because the 24 doctors, the providers, are saying that. And 25 so I want to --

1 CHAIRMAN BABCOCK: Well, that's what
2 Judge Medina was saying.

3 HON. SAMUEL A. MEDINA: No. I'm 4 saying that the court reporters -- what 5 happens if you need it later on and you don't 6 have that same court reporter? It's not -- I 7 mean, this court reporter may not be able to 8 transcribe somebody else's notes because they 9 all have their own shorthand.

10 MR. YELENOSKY: Well, I understand
11 that. But unless I misunderstood, I thought 12 the reason why we needed a transcription in 13 retention was because of potential liability, 14 which is a problem or a potential in every 15 case, and so that would persuade me to 16 transcribe it in every instance, if in fact 17 that's a good argument. But it was just 18 thrown out as an afterthought. So I feel kind 19 of caught up without a chance to even discuss 20 that to understand where that came from, and 21 if in fact that was the providers saying that 22 we need this protection or we're not going to 23 do the procedure.

24 HON. ANN CRAWFORD MCCLURE: There
25 was some concern expressed by the providers to

1 that effect, a record of the proceeding.

2 MR. ORSINGER: What difference does
3 it make to the doctors?

4 HON. BILL RHEA: They have the 5 order.

6 CHAIRMAN BABCOCK: Hang on, hold on.
7 One at a time. Judge Medina.

8 HON. SAMUEL A. MEDINA: Okay. And 9 so this child is 13. She's going to be -- 10 what, two years after she's 18, she's now 20.
11 That's seven years. You've got that record 12 there. It's already transcribed. It's been 13 there for seven years. Something happens.
14 That court reporter is no longer available.
15 It's transcribed. It's there.

16 CHAIRMAN BABCOCK: Is that two years
17 meant to tie to the statute of limitations for 18 medical negligence?

19 MR. YELENOSKY: And what about the 20 proceeding concerned them that it be 21 preserved?

22 HON. SCOTT A. BRISTER: The claim
23 against the doctor is going to be by the minor 24 that "You forced me into getting this 25 abortion."

1 MS. SWEENEY: The concern on
2 liability, I think, is that the doctors may 3 have thought that they were protecting
4 themselves. But with all due respect, it goes 5 other way, and you're building in malpractice
6 cases by creating all these records.

7 HON. SAMUEL A. MEDINA: But the 8 minor has a right. I would rather -- if she 9 has a basis for it, there ought to be a record 10 there. If she doesn't, there shouldn't be.
11 It cuts both ways.

12 CHAIRMAN BABCOCK: Judge Rhea.

13 HON. BILL RHEA: And to add in, I 14 think it's still the rule, at least it used to 15 be, but the court reporter standard, and I 16 don't see David still here, was that they, by 17 statute, could destroy their records after 18 three years. So if we're talking seven years 19 down the line, those records may not only be 20 untranscribable; they may not exist anymore.

21 PROFESSOR DORSANELO: Well, they 22 would be destroyed in three years, unless 23 somebody tells the court reporter not to do
24 that under the case law, I believe.

25 CHAIRMAN BABCOCK: Buddy Low and

1 then Judge Peeples and then Richard.

2 MR. LOW: Well, it doesn't matter
3 what we vote to do. But if the doctors say
4 they're not going to perform an abortion
5 without a record being typed, and some of them 6 take that, the girl is not going to get one.
7 So I mean, it's not just a question -- it
8 might be more than just the legal issues 9 involved. And I know a lot of doctors, if 10 they're going to do something like that, they 11 want a record. They want a lot more than just 12 one piece of paper, if they get sued civilly 13 or criminally.

14 CHAIRMAN BABCOCK: Judge Peeples.

15 HON. DAVID PEEPLES: I support the 16 McCown motion because I'm very concerned that 17 trial judges, who need their court reporters 18 to be in court reporting, are going to have to 19 make arrangements for the reporter to be 20 preparing these records that are absolutely 21 useless unless there is denial or abuse.

22 CHAIRMAN BABCOCK: Okay. Richard.

23 MR. ORSINGER: It seems to me like 24 the medical professionals ought to be secure 25 in getting a ruling from the court, or a

1 deemed ruling from the court, without having 2 to be concerned about going back and second 3 guessing the court's ruling by looking at the 4 evidence that led to the court's ruling. Why 5 doesn't the ruling of the court answer the 6 questions about whether the doctor should be 7 able to do the abortion. I think it's a false
 8 issue. I really wonder if doctors really care 9 about this.

10 And I can see court reporters having to 11 stay around until 7:30 or 8:00 at night typing 12 up useless transcripts because somebody walks 13 in at 4:30 and wants to have one of these 14 hearing for 15 minutes. Why should we do that 15 when we don't need it?

16 HON. DAVID PEEPLES: Amen.

17 CHAIRMAN BABCOCK: I think the 18 sentiments have been fully expressed. Justice
 19 McClure does not accept this amendment, so 20 what we're doing now is advising the Supreme 21 Court about the sense of this committee as to 22 Judge McCown's suggestion that the 23 transcription should be limited to cases of 24 denial and abuse.

25 So everybody that's in favor of that

1 raise their hand.

2 Everybody against. By 25 to five, it is 3 the sense of this committee that it should be 4 so limited. And so we'll need to report that 5 to the Court. Richard.

6 MR. ORSINGER: Can I ask about this 7 retention period? I may be just having 8 trouble thinking at this late hour.

9 CHAIRMAN BABCOCK: Are you limiting 10 it to this late hour?

11 MR. ORSINGER: When will we ever 12 have one year after the conclusion of an 13 action that occurs more than two years after 14 the child obtains majority? In other words, 15 you don't need this if you're already 18. And 16 if you add 18 plus two, and if all of this is 17 going to happen in seven days anyway, we're 18 never going to be more -- I mean, aren't we 19 always going to be destroying it two years
 20 after the child turns 18 and not one year 21 after the proceeding goes final? Why do we 22 even need (a)(2)?

23 HON. SARAH B. DUNCAN: What if you
 24 had an ongoing criminal proceeding that 25 extended past, more than two years past

1 attainment of majority?

2 MR. ORSINGER: No. It's an action
 3 arising from a proceeding under these rules.
 4 Are you talking about derivative lawsuits, or 5 are you talking about this court proceeding, 6 which lasts 15 minutes in the courtroom,
 7 48 hours in the court of appeals, and two 8 business days in the Supreme Court?

9 HON. SARAH B. DUNCAN: I guess I 10 don't read "in this proceeding" as narrowly as 11 you do.

12 MR. ORSINGER: So this records
 13 retention requirement on the clerk or the 14 court reporter is they have to somehow figure 15 out whether a lawsuit has been filed or 16 whether there's a criminal investigation or a 17 criminal proceeding, and then they have to be 18 sure that they don't destroy while any of 19 that's going on? That's not reasonable.

20 The only thing that the employees of the 21 government are going to know is when this 22 proceeding is over. And it seems to me like 23 you're always going to have the proceeding
 24 terminate less than two years after the child 25 turns 18. We're talking about -- it's going

1 to terminate within seven to 10 days of when 2 it's filed, and then it will be all over in 3 the Texas Supreme Court. So how are we ever 4 going to be more than two years out after the 5 18th birthday? Let's just take (a)(2) out of 6 there, because it shouldn't be in there.

7 CHAIRMAN BABCOCK: Justice McClure?

8 HON. ANN CRAWFORD McCLURE: It is my 9 recollection that it was put in there at the 10 request of DPRS and the Department of Health.

11 CHAIRMAN BABCOCK: That's what the 12 annotations indicate.

13 HON. ANN CRAWFORD McCLURE: And I'm 14 uncomfortable removing it.

15 MR. ORSINGER: Okay. Good.

16 CHAIRMAN BABCOCK: Does anyone else
 17 feel strongly about that?

18 Okay. Then let's move on quickly to 19 rulings, Justice McClure, and that would be 20 Paragraph 4 on Page 7 of our memo.

21 MR. HAMILTON: I still have a 22 question on forwarding the record. It just 23 says forwarded instanter. It doesn't say how 24 it is to be forwarded.

25 CHAIRMAN BABCOCK: Let's back up.

1 Sorry, Carl. I forgot about that.
 2 MR. HAMILTON: And if you mail it
 3 from Hidalgo County or Starr County, it will 4 take two or three days to get there, so that 5 makes the whole point moot.
 6 HON. ANN CRAWFORD McCLURE: Our 7 concept of using "instanter" was to allow for 8 fax transmission and email transmission. To 9 the counties that have electronic filing, it 10 can be forwarded to the court of appeals if 11 the capability exists. We tried to draft 12 these somewhat broadly, recognizing the 13 limitations of our imagination as to what 14 technology might come up with next. But the 15 concept is it's got to get there and be 16 transmitted in whatever form and how quickly 17 in whatever medium is necessary to facilitate 18 that.
 19 MR. HAMILTON: Could we put a 20 requirement in there that it has to be 21 transmitted so that it's received within 22 24 hours?
 23 HON. ANN CRAWFORD McCLURE: I'm not
 24 opposed to that.
 25 CHAIRMAN BABCOCK: What rule are you

1 talking about, Carl?
 2 MR. HAMILTON: 3.2(b).
 3 MR. PEMBERTON: At one point we did
 4 have some language in there specifying fax or 5 email or hand delivery, but we took that out
 6 because we thought "instanter" kind of covered 7 that.
 8 HON. MICHAEL H. SCHNEIDER: I share
 9 his concern. I know exactly, because we want
 10 to get the record as quickly as possible. I 11 just wonder if we couldn't word it in a way
 12 where it doesn't look like we're giving them 13 24 hours to get it there.
 14 MR. HAMILTON: The sooner the 15 better.
 16 CHAIRMAN BABCOCK: That's instanter.
 17 HON. ANN CRAWFORD McCLURE: That's
 18 why we chose instanter.
 19 MR. HAMILTON: But I don't know what 20 it means to a lot of clerks, but to a lot of 21 clerks that means put it in the mail as soon 22 as you can.
 23 HON. ANN CRAWFORD McCLURE: That was 24 not the analysis of the clerks that were on 25 the subcommittee.

1 MS. WOLBRUECK: I believe in our 2 training to the clerks we will definitely tell 3 them what "instanter" means. And I think the 4 intent is that we will probably fax it. The 5 court of appeals will accept a fax, you know.
 6 The last alternative would be overnight mail.
 7 CHAIRMAN BABCOCK: Richard.
 8 MR. ORSINGER: The statute only 9 requires an expedited appeal from the court of 10 appeals to the Supreme Court. The 11 subcommittee has decided that "expedited"
 12 means that the record should be shipped 13 instanter. I'm not sure what the deadline is 14 for the opinion, and then the Supreme Court 15 has two business days after it receives the 16 opinion. So we really have to -- under your 17 rule, we have to get both the record and the 18 opinion up there, and then the Supreme Court 19 has got two business days to act.
 20 And do we have a timing requirement on 21 when the opinion by the court of appeals has 22 to be issued and forwarded? Because there's 23 no reason to get the record up there in 24 24 hours if the opinion isn't up there for 25 three or four days. What's the time limit on

1 the opinion?
 2 HON. ANN CRAWFORD McCLURE: You'll
 3 find it on Page 26 of the annotated rules.
 4 It's 3.3(c). The opinion must issue not later 5 than ten business days after the day on which 6 a notice of appeal is filed in the Supreme 7 Court, if an appeal is taken to the Supreme 8 Court; or 60 days after the day on which the 9 court of appeals issued its order under 3.3(a)
 10 if no appeal is taken.
 11 MR. ORSINGER: Okay. Well, there's 12 no point in getting the record up there in 13 24 hours if the opinion doesn't have to be up 14 there for 10 days and the Supreme Court isn't 15 going to rule until it gets an opinion.
 16 MR. HAMILTON: How about from the 17 trial court, from the trial court to the court 18 of appeals?
 19 MR. ORSINGER: Well, I don't know
 20 about that. I thought we were talking about 21 from the court of appeals to the Supreme 22 Court.
 23 CHAIRMAN BABCOCK: We're talking
 24 about 3.2(b). We're talking about the trial 25 court record now. That's what Carl was

1 talking about.
 2 PROFESSOR DORSANEO: I don't know
 3 what "instanter" means. I suspect, if I went 4 and looked it up, it would say right away,
 5 don't go to lunch, and not within 24 hours.
 6 And I would rather use English words that we 7 maybe have a shot at understanding --
 8 CHAIRMAN BABCOCK: Bill, before
 9 Scott leaves, Scott, I think that it's 10 unlikely that we're going to be meeting
 11 tomorrow.
 12 HON. F. SCOTT McCOWN: Okay. Well,
 13 now that you've called attention to me
 14 sneaking out, I'm a single dad today, and I've 15 got to take my boy to the Halloween Hoot.
 16 CHAIRMAN BABCOCK: I tried to do it
 17 to Latting, but he didn't stop. Okay.
 18 MR. HAMILTON: You have a lot of 19 places that don't even have faxes or 20 electronic transmission. So if they put it in 21 the mail, it's going to be two days or more 22 before it gets to them.
 23 CHAIRMAN BABCOCK: Well, there is 24 Federal Express or UPS or other -- 25 MR. HAMILTON: Well, I know. That's

1 what I'm saying. There needs to be something
 2 in here that ensures that it gets there no
 3 later than.
 4 MR. YELENOSKY: I second the motion
 5 to use language that Bill Dorsaneo and the 6 clerks would understand.
 7 HON. ANN CRAWFORD McCLURE: The
 8 "instanter" came from the clerks.
 9 MR. YELENOSKY: I thought you were 10 saying, Bonnie, that you would have to train 11 on that.
 12 MS. WOLBRUECK: No. We would do
 13 training to the clerks explaining instanter.
 14 MR. LOW: If we do put two days,
 15 what would be the effect if the record didn't 16 get there in three days then? Is it moot?
 17 What's the effect?
 18 MR. ORSINGER: It's deemed granted
 19 at the end of two days.
 20 MR. LOW: Well, that would be crazy
 21 just because it got lost in the mail a day.
 22 CHAIRMAN BABCOCK: Well, here is the 23 question: Do we want to change "instanter" to 24 "within 24 hours"?
 25 MR. LOW: No.

1 CHAIRMAN BABCOCK: Buddy says no.
 2 MR. ORSINGER: And also, Chip,
 3 they're talking about changing it from 4 "forward" to "be received by." That's 5 another change. To send it instanter could 6 take three days, or you can have it received
 7 within 24 hours. Two different things.
 8 CHAIRMAN BABCOCK: Okay. That's a 9 good point. Where do you want to go with 10 that, Judge?
 11 HON. ANN CRAWFORD McCLURE: Well,
 12 given the direction of the clerks who 13 participated in this discussion, that they 14 were comfortable with instanter, I'm 15 comfortable leaving it instanter.
 16 MR. ORSINGER: Are you comfortable
 17 leaving it "forward" and not "received," or do 18 you want, since we have -- since the court of 19 appeals clock is running from the date the 20 notice of appeal is given, not the date the 21 record is received, should the deadline be 22 when it's received and not when it's sent?
 23 HON. ANN CRAWFORD McCLURE: No, I
 24 don't think so.
 25 MR. ORSINGER: A lot of these, then,

1 are going to be deemed granted because the 2 record isn't there on time.
 3 CHAIRMAN BABCOCK: Does everybody
 4 feel so strongly about it that we should vote
 5 on that issue?
 6 MR. ORSINGER: No.
 7 CHAIRMAN BABCOCK: Okay.
 8 MR. HATCHELL: Chip, I have a
 9 comment that dovetails with this and Carl's
 10 comment in particular. Does the mailing rule 11 apply to the notice of appeal?
 12 HON. ANN CRAWFORD McCLURE: No. We 13 have -- Bob, do you remember the footnote 14 number?
 15 HON. SARAH B. DUNCAN: But footnotes
 16 are just footnotes.
 17 HON. ANN CRAWFORD McCLURE: I
 18 understand that.
 19 MR. PEMBERTON: At some point this 20 issue comes up and we draw up a footnote to 21 explain.
 22 CHAIRMAN BABCOCK: A footnote or a
 23 comment?
 24 MR. PEMBERTON: A footnote referring 25 back to whatever text we have, and I can't

1 remember exactly where it is, to clarify that 2 you can't get an appeal deemed granted by 3 virtue of the mailbox rule. We have language 4 in there that basically trumps 21a. 5 HON. SARAH B. DUNCAN: That's just a 6 footnote, right, and we have otherwise 7 incorporated the Rules of Civil Procedure? 8 CHAIRMAN BABCOCK: The footnotes 9 aren't going to be available to people, so 10 it's got to be either a comment or in the 11 rule. 12 JUSTICE HECHT: It's Footnote 57 on 13 Page 20. 14 HON. ANN CRAWFORD McCLURE: It says, 15 "For purposes of this subsection (f), the 16 date the application is received by the clerk 17 is the date on which the application is 18 filed." 19 CHAIRMAN BABCOCK: That needs to go 20 in a comment, it seems to me. 21 HON. ANN CRAWFORD McCLURE: But that 22 was rule. 23 CHAIRMAN BABCOCK: Oh, I'm sorry. 24 HON. SARAH B. DUNCAN: But under the 25 Rules of Procedure --	1 MR. HAMILTON: I would think that we 2 at least ought to have a requirement that they 3 forward it by overnight delivery. 4 HON. HARVEY G. BROWN, JR.: Could we 5 have a comment here? Leave the word 6 "instanter" in here, but a comment explaining 7 that, where available, it should be faxed to 8 the court of appeals? And then, I don't know, 9 maybe even some distance, if fax isn't 10 available and you're within 60 miles, it 11 should be taken by courier? At least 12 something that gives some direction and 13 guidance to what we mean by instanter that's a 14 comment and not as a binding rule? 15 MR. ORSINGER: What about a 16 courier? 17 HON. ANN CRAWFORD McCLURE: I don't 18 want to broaden it to include a requirement to 19 do that. I'm comfortable with it. I mean, it 20 may not work, but as it stands now, the 21 committee was comfortable with it. 22 MS. WOLBRUECK: Chip, I think to me, 23 and I think that we will do the best that we 24 can to train all of the clerks, that means do 25 it now; that it needs to get there now. So
1 HON. ANN CRAWFORD McCLURE: And 2 Footnote 57 says it's intended to clarify the 3 mailbox rule. 4 MR. PEMBERTON: And I guess we need 5 counterpart language for the rules governing 6 the intermediate courts of appeal and the 7 Supreme Court. We probably don't have that, 8 or I'm not sure we do. 9 HON. SARAH B. DUNCAN: Don't the 10 Appellate Rules actually say that if it's 11 mailed and received within 10 days, it's 12 deemed filed on the date that it's mailed? 13 MR. PEMBERTON: Right. 14 HON. SARAH B. DUNCAN: Super. 15 MR. HAMILTON: But the statute runs 16 from the time of the filing of the notice. In 17 the statute, the court of appeals has to act 18 within two business days after the filing of 19 the notice, regardless of any mailing rule or 20 anything else. 21 MR. EDWARDS: Filing of the notice 22 in the court that denied the application. 23 MR. HAMILTON: The trial court. 24 HON. SARAH B. DUNCAN: But it's 25 deemed filed on the date it was mailed.	1 that means you find a fax machine and you fax 2 it to the court of appeals now. And if you 3 can't do that, you get in your car -- or you 4 take it upstairs, if the court of appeals is 5 in the same courthouse, as it is in many 6 counties, or it's down the street or 7 something, but it's to be delivered 8 immediately. Because as long as the clerks 9 know that the time is again tracking and it's 10 happening, that there's only two days again, I 11 think that that's just going to have to be 12 understood. 13 CHAIRMAN BABCOCK: Nina. 14 MS. CORTELL: I have a question. It 15 covers this and it sort of covers a lot of 16 other things, and that is the cost aspect of 17 everything. I mean, couriers, fax, court 18 reporters, getting the record up, the ad 19 litem, everybody, I mean, how -- are costs at 20 all covered here? I mean, the court reporter 21 is just going to do this not getting paid? 22 HON. ANN CRAWFORD McCLURE: They 23 will be paid through the Department of 24 Health. 25 HON. SARAH B. DUNCAN: 33.007.

1 HON. ANN CRAWFORD McCLURE: There
 2 was a fiscal note attached to the legislation.
 3 CHAIRMAN BABCOCK: Yeah. But that's 4 not our concern.
 5 MS. CORTELL: It's only our 6 concern -- I mean, I'm not worried about the 7 funding so much as, obviously, a lot of court 8 reporters, just as a practical matter, don't 9 like to give you their record, et cetera, 10 until they're paid. I mean, is this an 11 exception to that? I mean, that's built into 12 the Appellate Rules.
 13 HON. ANN CRAWFORD McCLURE: What was 14 presented to the LBD was that, at the trial
 15 court level, total court costs incurred by TDH 16 for minors would be $259,200 for the fiscal 17 year. As for the appellate process, they 18 envision 207,360 per year. Total estimated 19 fiscal impact, 466,650.
 20 MS. CORTELL: So this will be, then,
 21 an exception to the normal Appellate Rules
 22 where you have to arrange for payment and all 23 that? That's automatically provided for?
 24 HON. ANN CRAWFORD McCLURE: Well,
 25 the minor cannot be charged anything. She

1 cannot be charged filing fees, court costs.
 2 There can be no requirement of any payment for 3 her for the reporter's record or any of it.
 4 It is all done by court order process through 5 a request to TDH.
 6 CHAIRMAN BABCOCK: Justice Duncan.
 7 HON. SARAH B. DUNCAN: I thought
 8 what Nina was referring to, the Appellate 9 Rules that would have been incorporated by 10 reference, do not even require the court 11 reporter to start working on the record until 12 the requesting party has paid or made 13 arrangements to pay.
 14 JUSTICE HECHT: But the statute 15 requires that the court reporter be paid in 16 state money every time.
 17 MR. HALL: But who is going to train 18 the court reporters, if that's what they have 19 to be doing?
 20 HON. BILL RHEA: The arrangement has 21 been made by the statute.
 22 CHAIRMAN BABCOCK: Judge Schneider.
 23 HON. MICHAEL H. SCHNEIDER: Well, I
 24 think that's a good point. What's the 25 practical effect when a reporter just doesn't

1 get the record to you? I mean, you're sitting 2 there in appeals court and it just doesn't get 3 there. It happens all the time.
 4 MR. ORSINGER: It gets deemed
 5 granted.
 6 HON. MICHAEL H. SCHNEIDER: Well, I
 7 know that. But I'm just saying at some point 8 in time it seems to me that the appellate 9 court needs to protect its jurisdiction after 10 so many hours of not having a transcript. I 11 don't want to superimpose that on this 12 committee, but I think it is an issue.
 13 HON. ANN CRAWFORD McCLURE: We have 14 some real concerns about it. Representations
 15 to us by representatives of the court
 16 reporters association was that it would not be 17 difficult having those transcripts prepared 18 and filed instanter.
 19 CHAIRMAN BABCOCK: And maybe in a 20 lot of cases it won't, but there will be some 21 that it will, I bet.
 22 HON. ANN CRAWFORD McCLURE: I'm sure
 23 that's true.
 24 CHAIRMAN BABCOCK: Nina.
 25 MS. CORTELL: I guess, again, the

1 issue of the Appellate Rules and how they 2 contemplate arrangements being made for 3 payment of the appellate record. I don't know 4 whether we need a footnote or a comment that 5 this operates outside of this mechanism.
 6 HON. ANN CRAWFORD McCLURE: I'm not
 7 uncomfortable with that in a comment.
 8 CHAIRMAN BABCOCK: Don't we already 9 have that? That's what we talked about this 10 morning, and there's going to be language
 11 added to that effect. Buddy.
 12 MR. LOW: Chip, could I ask a
 13 question? Why does the court of appeals time 14 start when the notice is filed in the trial
 15 court rather than when received? The statute 16 requires that?
 17 JUSTICE HECHT: Yes.
 18 MR. LOW: Oh, well, that makes 19 sense.
 20 CHAIRMAN BABCOCK: If there's 21 nothing else on the record on appeal, let's 22 quickly move to rulings.
 23 MR. EDWARDS: While you're on 24 rulings, could I get you to look at 2.4(e)(2), 25 because I think it could create a problem.

1 CHAIRMAN BABCOCK: 2.4(e)(2),
 2 Conduct of hearing, denial. "If the minor
 3 fails to establish any of these grounds by a 4 preponderance of the evidence, the court must 5 deny the application."
 6 MR. EDWARDS: Okay. You could 7 interpret that to mean that the minor has to 8 establish all three. And it should say, I 9 think, if the minor fails to establish at 10 least one of these grounds, because the (A), 11 (B) and (C) are alternatives.
 12 CHAIRMAN BABCOCK: Justice McClure,
 13 do you accept that?
 14 HON. ANN CRAWFORD McCLURE: Yes.
 15 CHAIRMAN BABCOCK: Has anybody got a 16 problem with that?
 17 HON. DAVID PEEPLES: Did you say if 18 you fail to establish one?
 19 CHAIRMAN BABCOCK: At least one. If 20 you fail to prove one.
 21 MR. EDWARDS: This could be 22 interpreted, the way it was, that it requires 23 you to establish all three.
 24 CHAIRMAN BABCOCK: Good point.
 25 Okay. What else about rulings, Judge

Page 423

1 McClure?
 2 HON. ANN CRAWFORD McCLURE: Well,
 3 the debate obviously is over the opinions,
 4 whether ruling is tantamount to an opinion.
 5 We took the position that, in order to 6 facilitate review realistically, the Supreme 7 Court needed the benefit of the intermediate 8 court's analysis, and we have tailored rules
 9 to that effect, whether you agree or disagree.
 10 CHAIRMAN BABCOCK: All right.
 11 That's the issue.
 12 REPRESENTATIVE DUNNAM: I would just 13 point out that that gives you up to a 24-day
 14 time period from the initial application. It 15 could be longer if you have holidays on 16 Mondays or Fridays or whenever. But ten 17 working days is two weeks, and then if you've 18 got two four-day weekends, that's a long time.
 19 HON. ANN CRAWFORD McCLURE: The 20 ruling will come within the statutory time
 21 frame.
 22 REPRESENTATIVE DUNNAM: But the 23 Supreme Court does not have to act for 24 10 days, at least 10 days, so you've got a 25 24-day potential window, maybe up, no more

1 than 30, but I appreciate you all's -- I heard 2 the same thing from the appellate judges at 3 home. That's an awful lot to ask. And I
 4 don't have much consolation -- I mean, I don't 5 know what to say about that. 24 days is a 6 long time.
 7 HON. ANN CRAWFORD McCLURE: Well,
 8 the debate that we had internally was, do we 9 want to facilitate the development of some 10 sort of a body of law that will be 11 transmitting confidentially to the Supreme 12 Court, and in their wisdom, they can 13 incorporate into guidelines, comments, however 14 they want to implement it, if that's the 15 overriding concern behind the legislation?
 16 And we heard some indications that there 17 was an interest in that. Then we tried to 18 come up with a way that we could fulfill that 19 while still ruling within the window that was 20 created by the statute. That was about the 21 best our committee could do.
 22 REPRESENTATIVE DUNNAM: Well, the 23 statute doesn't really speak to time limits on 24 the Supreme Court, does it?
 25 HON. ANN CRAWFORD McCLURE: No, not

1 to the Supreme Court, it doesn't.
 2 REPRESENTATIVE DUNNAM: The Supreme
 3 Court has as much time as they want.
 4 HON. ANN CRAWFORD McCLURE: Yes.
 5 REPRESENTATIVE DUNNAM: So it
 6 probably should encompass them.
 7 CHAIRMAN BABCOCK: Bill.
 8 PROFESSOR DORSANEJO: Well, I guess
 9 somebody will look this over carefully, but 10 I'm noticing the word "petition" kind of 11 appearing here occasionally. On Page 11, it 12 appears in the clean draft, (e)(3) and 13 (f)(1). Unless that is something different 14 from the application, it probably ought to say
 15 application.
 16 JUSTICE HECHT: But you like that,
 17 don't you? The more petitions, the merrier.
 18 You want it to go to fewer applications.
 19 MR. ORSINGER: Well, if you say
 20 petition, it's scary, because we have petition 21 provisions in other parts of the Rules of 22 Civil Procedure. I would rather use the word 23 application so that no one confuses it with an 24 original petition.
 25 HON. ANN CRAWFORD McCLURE: I'm not

1 opposed to that at all.
 2 MR. PEMBERTON: It was our intent to 3 use "application." I'll run a word search and 4 get it fixed.
 5 CHAIRMAN BABCOCK: Okay. That's 6 good. Sarah Duncan.
 7 HON. SARAH B. DUNCAN: Does everyone
 8 else agree that ruling includes opinion?
 9 MR. ORSINGER: No.
 10 HON. SARAH B. DUNCAN: To me a 11 ruling is a judgment or order. It is not at 12 all an opinion. And I don't see that the 13 statute requires anything more or less than a 14 ruling.
 15 MR. PEMBERTON: And I guess the 16 subcommittee takes somewhat inconsistent
 17 positions. On one hand they say for purposes 18 of confidentiality the appellate level ruling 19 encompasses opinion. And yet for purposes of 20 what the court of appeals has to do, we're 21 saying ruling and opinion.
 22 CHAIRMAN BABCOCK: That was 23 Richard's point this morning.
 24 MR. PEMBERTON: Well, it stuck. It
 25 was good.

1 CHAIRMAN BABCOCK: Alex.
 2 PROFESSOR ALBRIGHT: I'd like to 3 know why we need an opinion. I mean, this 4 says an opinion is required. The statute only 5 refers to a ruling, so it seems like all this 6 does is kind of slow down the process of 7 getting to the Supreme Court.
 8 HON. ANN CRAWFORD McCLURE: The
 9 original draft that was presented was simply a 10 ruling, that we would rule up or down on 11 affirming or denying. In meeting with the 12 representatives of Senator Shapiro and 13 Representative Delisi's office, there was a 14 great deal of interest in developing in Texas 15 the case law that we have coming out of other 16 jurisdictions on these issues. The only way 17 we could think of to accomplish that is 18 through an opinion process.
 19 Additionally, if we're going to be ruling 20 on issues of constitutionality or statutory 21 interpretation and it goes forward to the 22 Supreme Court, then perhaps there was some 23 interest in having the benefit of the analysis 24 behind those decisions available to the 25 Supreme Court for consideration.

1 PROFESSOR ALBRIGHT: Well, couldn't 2 a court of appeals write an opinion if they 3 wanted to, but without requiring it?
 4 HON. ANN CRAWFORD McCLURE: That was 5 the second draft. In the third draft, the 6 consensus was, if we give them a choice, they 7 aren't going to do it. And if the legislative 8 intent was to develop that, have the Supreme 9 Court have the benefit of it, then we needed 10 to make it a requirement. That's what the 11 subcommittee's consensus was.
 12 CHAIRMAN BABCOCK: Bill Dorsaneo.
 13 PROFESSOR DORSANEO: These opinions
 14 will be dealing, I suppose, in a number of 15 cases, with factual insufficiency complaints, 16 so they won't be easy to write necessarily 17 under the Poole standard. I really wonder 18 whether it's worth the trouble to go to that 19 much work.
 20 PROFESSOR ALBRIGHT: I would move to 21 either -- I would go for either deleting or 22 making it an option.
 23 CHAIRMAN BABCOCK: Do you accept
 24 that, Judge McClure?
 25 HON. ANN CRAWFORD McCLURE: No. I

1 understand the motivation, and keep debating
 2 it, but I cannot accept that.
 3 MR. EDWARDS: How about having the 4 Supreme Court act on the basis of the order, 5 but still requiring opinions so you get your 6 body of law?
 7 CHAIRMAN BABCOCK: I think under 8 these rules, the Court has that option, 9 doesn't it?
 10 MR. EDWARDS: I think it does, yeah.
 11 CHAIRMAN BABCOCK: Steve.
 12 MR. YELENOSKY: Well, I just wanted
 13 to make the point about the legislative intent 14 that there be a body of law. That sounds to 15 me to be an indication that the Legislature 16 did not intend the confidentiality that we 17 were talking about earlier. How can it be 18 that they intended a body of law yet all of 19 this was to be secret?
 20 HON. ANN CRAWFORD McCLURE: I asked 21 them that.
 22 MR. YELENOSKY: That seems to me to 23 relate very directly to our conversation
 24 earlier today and to argue strongly that maybe 25 the judges' names could be confidential, but I

1 don't see how, consistent with that 2 legislative intent, anything else could be,
3 except the anonymity of the girl.

4 REPRESENTATIVE DUNNAM: I would urge 5 that we try to find the legislative intent of 6 that nature on the record somewhere, I agree, 7 because I don't think you will find it on it.

8 CHAIRMAN BABCOCK: Richard.

9 MR. ORSINGER: If you don't have an 10 opinion, then the Supreme Court is going to 11 operate as a de novo review. In other words, 12 they will not be sitting in review of a court 13 of appeals error. They will be looking at the 14 underlying record and they will be making 15 their own decision. That's not the way the 16 Constitution has set our judicial system up.
17 And an important part of the opinion process
18 is for the court of appeals to state what law 19 it's applying and how it's applying it to the 20 facts. And if you don't have that and you
21 just have the record, then the Supreme Court 22 is basically serving as a court of appeals.

23 HON. MICHAEL H. SCHNEIDER: We have 24 that in mandamuses now. We do not mandamus,
25 we don't write -- well, I guess we can write

1 is. I don't think whether the court of 2 appeals writes an opinion or not or discloses 3 its reasoning has anything to do with whether 4 the Supreme Court exercises de novo review
5 powers. The Supreme Court can, with or 6 without a court of appeals opinion, defer to 7 findings of fact made by the trial court and 8 review the questions of law de novo.

9 CHAIRMAN BABCOCK: John Martin, do
10 you have an opinion about this?

11 MR. MARTIN: Not a strong one. I do 12 not think the court of appeals ought to be 13 required to write an opinion. I don't see any 14 point in having that discussion.

15 CHAIRMAN BABCOCK: Well, Justice
16 McClure has not accepted this friendly 17 amendment, so we're going to vote. And the 18 first thing we'll vote on is whether or not we 19 should recommend to the Supreme Court that the 20 court of appeals' opinion should be in its 21 discretion. In other words, they can write 22 one if they want to and they don't have to 23 write one if they don't want to. So everybody 24 who is in favor of that raise their hand.
25 Discretionary. The opinion is discretionary

1 one down but it's not --

2 MR. ORSINGER: But if you deny a
3 mandamus, the Supreme Court looks at 4 mandamuses the same way they --

5 HON. MICHAEL H. SCHNEIDER: They 6 look at a record. We don't have to write an 7 opinion.

8 MR. ORSINGER: But it's not an 9 appeal either, it's an original proceeding.

10 HON. MICHAEL H. SCHNEIDER: But this 11 isn't an appeal either, if you really want to 12 know the truth.

13 CHAIRMAN BABCOCK: Judge Patterson.

14 HON. JAN P. PATTERSON: I don't 15 think the courts of appeals are going to avoid 16 writing if it's called for, and I would like 17 to propose that we say "may issue a memorandum 18 opinion," and that way it kind of gives the 19 full spectrum of opportunity, but not the 20 requirement.

21 CHAIRMAN BABCOCK: Yeah. We're 22 headed for a vote on that in a minute.

23 HON. SARAH B. DUNCAN: I guess
24 Richard and I have a differing view on yet
25 another topic, and that is what de novo review

1 with the court of appeals.

2 All right. And against. That passes 23
3 to five, so our report will indicate to the 4 Court that by a vote of 23 to five, this 5 committee believes that the court of appeals
6 should have the discretion to write an opinion 7 or not.

8 Okay. Anything else on the rulings?

9 MR. ORSINGER: Then we need to 10 change the timetable in the Supreme Court if 11 we're not going to have an opinion now, 12 because right now it's triggered by --

13 CHAIRMAN BABCOCK: That's right.

14 And that's why, this rule that's going up to 15 them, this is just something that we're going 16 to tell the Court that, although the 17 subcommittee wouldn't agree to it, we think by 18 that margin that discretionary --

19 HON. ANN CRAWFORD McCLURE: -- that 20 we were arbitrary and unreasonable.

21 CHAIRMAN BABCOCK: Capricious is the 22 word that I would use. Alex.

23 PROFESSOR ALBRIGHT: I'd just like 24 to make one more comment that these opinions, 25 if they're going to be on factual sufficiency,

1 it would be virtually impossible to have an 2 opinion that gives any guidance to anybody
 3 without giving a whole lot of facts that are 4 specifically prohibited from being 5 disseminated to the public.
 6 MR. ORSINGER: But we voted this 7 morning that no one is going to read the 8 opinions but the nine justices on the Supreme 9 Court anyway, so what difference does it 10 make?
 11 CHAIRMAN BABCOCK: That's right.
 12 That was the other point. Nobody much is 13 going to read them. Mike.
 14 MR. HATCHELL: As I understand
 15 Rule 3.3(a), if an appeal is successful, when 16 the court of appeals reverses, it has no power 17 to remand. So in the situations we have 18 discussed today, if a judge is 19 constitutionally disqualified, his order is 20 void, you appeal that and you win, or it's not 21 filed in the proper court. All basic remand 22 issues, including against the weight and the 23 preponderance of the evidence, are basically 24 halted. Where is the authority in the statute 25 to do that?

1 HON. ANN CRAWFORD McCLURE: There
 2 isn't any. There isn't any. But it does not 3 give us the option of reversing and 4 remanding. It gives us the option to reverse
 5 and grant.
 6 HON. SARAH B. DUNCAN: It says to
 7 rule.
 8 HON. ANN CRAWFORD McCLURE: I think
 9 there's language to the extent of reverse and 10 grant the application.
 11 CHAIRMAN BABCOCK: 33.004(b).
 12 HON. SARAH B. DUNCAN: It just says
 13 rule.
 14 MR. ORSINGER: Just as an aside, if 15 they decide that this is not a case or 16 controversy, they're going to reverse and 17 dismiss anyway regardless.
 18 CHAIRMAN BABCOCK: So Mike, restate
 19 your point again.
 20 MR. HATCHELL: It was really more a
 21 point of clarification. I've read the statute 22 three times. I can't find this language that 23 limits the power of an appellate court to 24 remand. I just can't find it. And it's fine 25 if that's the way they want to do it, and if

1 everybody agrees that's what they should do.
 2 But it seems to me like there are inherent 3 errors that you can complain about. We talked 4 about two today. One, the judge is 5 constitutionally disqualified; two, you filed 6 it in the wrong court --
 7 MR. EDWARDS: You can't file it in 8 the wrong court.
 9 MR. HATCHELL: Yes, you can. So
 10 that's an issue.
 11 MR. EDWARDS: Well, it says any 12 court.
 13 MR. HATCHELL: Well, but that's an 14 issue.
 15 HON. SARAH B. DUNCAN: But over 16 there, they're saying that "any court" doesn't 17 mean any court.
 18 MR. EDWARDS: Well, the other final 19 thing is that if it isn't ruled on within two 20 days after the thing has been filed, 48 hours 21 after it's been filed, you know, it's 22 granted. So if you remand it, it's going to 23 take you more than two days. It's already 24 moot.
 25 HON. ANN CRAWFORD McCLURE: What

Page 437

1 they're saying is that is a ruling.
 2 HON. SARAH B. DUNCAN: To reverse
 3 and remand would be ruling, and it would avoid 4 the default ruling of grant.
 5 MR. EDWARDS: Now, if it's remanded,
 6 it hasn't been decided in the trial court
 7 within the time specified.
 8 HON. SARAH B. DUNCAN: But all the 9 statute says is if the court of appeal fails
 10 to rule on the appeal.
 11 MR. EDWARDS: I understand that.
 12 But the other one says if the trial court 13 doesn't rule within the time -- well, not if 14 it's remanded, he didn't. Well, but there's 15 no provision for an extension of time in the 16 trial court by virtue of a remand.
 17 CHAIRMAN BABCOCK: The point is that 18 you start the clock ticking again perhaps if 19 you remand.
 20 MR. EDWARDS: It doesn't say that.
 21 CHAIRMAN BABCOCK: It doesn't say
 22 that, but that's arguably the effect of it, so 23 that's something you've got to think about.
 24 It may be, as you say, that the effect of 25 reversing and remanding has no effect because

1 48 hours have passed and now it's just 2 granted, but that's not necessarily so.
3 HON. ANN CRAWFORD McCLURE: We got 4 into this in talking about the standard of 5 review. And one of the reasons we didn't want 6 to get into the standard of review was that 7 very issue in terms are we going to advocate 8 facile sufficiency review, which the remedy
9 for is review.
10 CHAIRMAN BABCOCK: Okay. Mike, did
11 you have a fix for this, or was this just -- 12 MR. HATCHELL: No. I'm just raising
13 the question. We need to be very certain that 14 we are limiting the power of the courts of 15 appeals which they would otherwise have. And 16 as far as I can determine, it's not authorized
17 by the statute.
18 CHAIRMAN BABCOCK: Well, that's 19 always a problem.
20 HON. SARAH B. DUNCAN: If there is 21 constitutional disqualification, the order, at 22 least according to Texas case law, would be 23 void ab initio. So how can you not vacate 24 that order and remand the case for further 25 consideration?

1 CHAIRMAN BABCOCK: Bill's point is,
2 if it's a void order, then they haven't gotten 3 it done within 48 hours, so it's granted if 4 it's a void order.
5 MR. EDWARDS: If it's a void order,
6 they haven't ruled.
7 HON. SARAH B. DUNCAN: But if it's 8 filed in the wrong court, it's only voidable.
9 MR. EDWARDS: But how can you get it
10 in the wrong court?
11 CHAIRMAN BABCOCK: He's just fixing
12 one problem at a time.
13 HON. SARAH B. DUNCAN: They're going 14 to transfer it to some other court.
15 HON. ANN CRAWFORD McCLURE: We
16 talked about transfer.
17 CHAIRMAN BABCOCK: Okay. Well,
18 we're not talking about transfer now. We're 19 not going to get into transfer right now.
20 HON. SARAH B. DUNCAN: An exchange
21 of benches.
22 CHAIRMAN BABCOCK: Do you want to 23 entertain a fix for this, or do you want to 24 merely note it for the Court and dump it in 25 their lap, which I have always thought was a

1 great idea.
2 HON. DAVID PEEPLES: Let's leave one
3 or two imperfections.
4 CHAIRMAN BABCOCK: Sarah.
5 HON. SARAH B. DUNCAN: This is one 6 that I would actually vote in favor of the 7 suggestion to the Court that it not decide,
8 because it's a fairly serious, not just a 9 little technical problem if you're going to 10 limit the court's ability to either reverse
11 and render or affirm.
12 CHAIRMAN BABCOCK: Did you want to 13 vote on something, Sarah? Do you want our 14 committee to vote on it?
15 HON. SARAH B. DUNCAN: Yes.
16 CHAIRMAN BABCOCK: Okay. Tell us
17 what you want to vote on.
18 HON. SARAH B. DUNCAN: The deletion
19 of the second sentence in 3.3(a).
20 CHAIRMAN BABCOCK: Okay. This is 21 only advisory, because Justice McClure does 22 not accept this amendment.
23 HON. SARAH B. DUNCAN: I
24 understand.
25 CHAIRMAN BABCOCK: Okay. So

1 everybody who votes to delete the second
2 sentence in Rule 3.3(a) raise their hand.
3 Okay. Hang on, keep them up. Some hands
4 started popping up there all of a sudden.
5 All against. 13. It loses 13 to 12.
6 Do you want me to count again?
7 PROFESSOR DORSANEO: Yes.
8 CHAIRMAN BABCOCK: Okay. Let's do
9 it again.
10 HON. SARAH B. DUNCAN: First can we 11 hear the reasoning for leaving it in?
12 MR. EDWARDS: Prompt disposition.
13 PROFESSOR ALBRIGHT: And this is a 14 different proceeding. I don't think this has 15 the impact that you think it does on regular 16 appellate procedure.
17 CHAIRMAN BABCOCK: Okay. All in 18 favor raise their hand. This is in favor of 19 taking it out. Everybody who wants to take it 20 out raise your hand. You guys lost a vote.
21 Okay. All in favor of leaving it in.
22 By a 14-11 vote, the vote is to leave it 23 in. 14 to 11 the sentence stays in, is the 24 recommendation of this committee.
25 Okay. Anything else?

1 HON. ANN CRAWFORD McCLURE: No,
 2 nothing more. You've pooped me out.
 3 CHAIRMAN BABCOCK: Yeah, Scott.
 4 HON. SCOTT A. BRISTER: We never 5 did -- we discussed it a lot, but we never did 6 vote, and we need to, on whether the hearing 7 has to be closed to the public and in 8 chambers. I, for one, don't want to hold -- I 9 don't want a rule that says you can't hold it
 10 in chambers, and I don't want a rule that says 11 you have to hold it in chambers. It appears 12 to me this says I have to do it in chambers.
 13 I'm concerned for all kinds of reasons about 14 that. That's 2.4(b) and (c). 2.4(b) and (c).
 15 CHAIRMAN BABCOCK: And that gets 16 back to the argument that we had earlier under 17 (k), that the court proceedings should be 18 conducted in a manner.
 19 HON. SCOTT A. BRISTER: Yeah. We 20 kind of discussed that, and I don't know that 21 we need to vote again. My recommendation is 22 that you just say what the statute says. The 23 court must make proceedings -- court
 24 proceedings shall be conducted in a manner
 25 that protects the anonymity of the minor, and

1 let case law work out whether it has to be in 2 chambers, whether it has to be in secret.
 3 You know, the DA can't be there under 4 this. Should that be an exception? There's 5 nothing in the statute that says the DA can't 6 be there, but this rule will say you can't.
 7 CHAIRMAN BABCOCK: It strikes me as 8 incredible that you could have your court of 9 appeals opinion and the identity of the judges 10 confidential, and yet you could have a 11 proceeding in open court. They would know who 12 the judge was, for one thing.
 13 HON. SCOTT A. BRISTER: In fact, it
 14 doesn't say the judge is confidential.
 15 MR. ORSINGER: Maybe we could 16 conduct it in such a way you can't identify 17 the judge.
 18 CHAIRMAN BABCOCK: Richard Orsinger
 19 has a smart-a remark about this, but we're not 20 going to get into that right now on the 21 record.
 22 Okay. Do you accept Judge Brister's
 23 recommendation?
 24 HON. ANN CRAWFORD McCLURE: No.
 25 CHAIRMAN BABCOCK: No. Do you want

1 to bring it to a vote, Scott?
 2 HON. SCOTT A. BRISTER: Sure.
 3 CHAIRMAN BABCOCK: Okay. The 4 proposition which we're going to vote on is 5 that the provisions of section -- what number 6 is that?
 7 HON. SCOTT A. BRISTER: 2.4(b) and 8 (c) be replaced by the second sentence from 9 the statute, 33.003(k), the second sentence of 10 that subparagraph.
 11 CHAIRMAN BABCOCK: All in favor of 12 that raise your hands.
 13 Everybody against. That fails by a vote 14 of 14 to eight. Yeah, Steve.
 15 MR. YELENOSKY: I think I've got 16 just a typo, but then I also have a point, if 17 we're allowed to bring up extraneous little 18 things.
 19 CHAIRMAN BABCOCK: Bring the typos
 20 up to Bob later.
 21 MR. YELENOSKY: Okay. Well, the 22 other point that I alluded to earlier was that 23 in the rules, and I'm looking at Page 14 of 24 the annotated, the contents of the application 25 adds two things, one thing which is fine, it's

1 informational. The other thing is (3)(F). It
 2 refers to a statement of the grounds or 3 grounds for which the minor is seeking the 4 order.
 5 I don't see that requirement in the 6 statute, and when you put it in the 7 application, in the form, it's either
 8 meaningless because they're just checking it 9 off, or it may be something that has to be 10 explained to the applicant. And in every 11 instance where an applicant is seeking this, 12 presumably they think it's in their best
 13 interest. So I don't see the point of making 14 that pleading, what I see as a pleading
 15 requirement in the application that I meet one 16 of these grounds. So I was wondering why the 17 subcommittee put that in there?
 18 HON. ANN CRAWFORD McCLURE: There
 19 was some consideration given to, by 20 identifying the grounds in the application, it 21 would give the trial court the benefit of some 22 wisdom in what type of individual to appoint 23 as an ad litem.
 24 MR. YELENOSKY: But the form doesn't 25 have you specify which of the grounds. It

1 just has a checkpoint for one of the following 2 grounds, so it doesn't provide any 3 information, except that you have one of the 4 following grounds, which is statutorially --
5 well, presumably they proved up. But it 6 doesn't have a check for which of those three 7 grounds.

8 HON. ANN CRAWFORD McCLURE: I
9 thought it did.

10 MR. YELENOSKY: Not in the one I'm 11 looking at, which is Form 2A. It just has a 12 checkmark, "I am requesting this order for one 13 or more of the following reasons," one, two, 14 three. And that seems to me to be a 15 meaningless hoop to jump through. If you want 16 them to check off the others, I guess you 17 could. But my concern is also presumably at 18 this point most of them will not be 19 represented by an attorney, and I don't know 20 what information you would get that would 21 necessarily be that meaningful. And again, 22 it's not required by the statute, so I would 23 suggest eliminating that.

24 MR. PEMBERTON: The subcommittee
25 went back and forth on that. In the original

1 version of this Form 2A there was a checkmark 2 or check blank beside each of the three 3 enumerated grounds. I think there was a 4 concern with arguments or problems with 5 technically waiving some ground if the minor 6 didn't check the right one and having to 7 amend, and so just to simplify things, we 8 moved back toward just one check off --

9 MR. YELENOSKY: Well, I understand
10 why you went from a check for each one to 11 something else, but what I don't understand is 12 why you didn't go to just eliminating it.

13 CHAIRMAN BABCOCK: All right. So
14 the proposal is to eliminate (F). And Judge, 15 what do you think about that?

16 HON. ANN CRAWFORD McCLURE: The
17 forms, I didn't have a great hand in the 18 forms. The forms were done predominantly by 19 the trial judges in our community, and I'm not 20 going to deviate from their recommendations.

21 CHAIRMAN BABCOCK: Sarah.

22 HON. SARAH B. DUNCAN: Chip, as a
23 procedural matter, I guess I'm confused. Do 24 ex officio members vote or not vote?

25 JUSTICE HECHT: They vote.

1 CHAIRMAN BABCOCK: They do vote.
2 PROFESSOR DORSANEO: There is no
3 2.4(e)(2)(A), by the way.
4 MR. YELENOSKY: That was my typo.
5 It refers to (e) (1) instead of (2)(A). But I
6 guess if that's not to be accepted, and I 7 don't see it as that big of a point, but it's 8 just a meaningless hoop to jump through, a 9 check spot. And the footnotes say that 10 technical violations will not be overlooked, 11 so presumably an application where they 12 haven't checked this is defective, and I just 13 find that to be putting form over substance.
14 They wouldn't be there putting an application 15 in if they didn't think one of these three 16 things existed.

17 CHAIRMAN BABCOCK: Should we vote on 18 it, Steve?

19 MR. YELENOSKY: I would suggest we 20 do.

21 CHAIRMAN BABCOCK: Okay. Let's vote
22 on this, and the vote is to delete
23 subparagraph (F) from 2.1(b)(3). So
24 2.1(b)(3)(F), the vote is to delete it. All 25 in favor of deleting that provision raise your

1 hand. All against.
2 Mike, do you have your hand up or not?
3 By a vote of 19 to eight, the Advisory 4 Committee is in favor of deleting it. By a 5 vote of 19 to nine, the Advisory --

6 REPRESENTATIVE DUNNAM: No, I'm not 7 voting. I've got a comment.

8 CHAIRMAN BABCOCK: Hang on, let me
9 just finish reporting the vote. By a vote of 10 19 to eight, the Advisory Committee advises 11 the Court that this provision should be 12 deleted. Okay.

13 REPRESENTATIVE DUNNAM: Along that 14 line, this is an application, and there's no 15 requirement that I see in the statute that 16 requires that the minor personally make the 17 application as opposed to the attorney filing 18 it for them, like you would do with an 19 application for writ of garnishment or 20 application for injunction. Those are all 21 applications too. The statute does not say 22 that the minor -- and you all can see it.
23 I've read it a couple of times. I don't see 24 where it says that the minor has to personally 25 sign the application. It also specifically

1 does not say that the oath has to be made by 2 the minor. It simply has to be made like in 3 any other case by a person with personal 4 knowledge and able to swear under oath.

5 The application form you have requires 6 that the minor sign it. It requires that the 7 minor be the one that makes the statements
8 under oath. The reason I think this might 9 be -- and I did not draft this and I wouldn't 10 claim it, but under 33.003(c), one of the 11 things that you have to have in the 12 application that is noticeably missing is the 13 minor's name. And obviously, I'm not speaking 14 for the Legislature on this, but this rule, as 15 you all are proposing it, requires the minor's 16 name to be stated, requires the minor to sign 17 the application, requires the minor to do it 18 under oath, and I don't see that in the 19 statute.

20 HON. ANN CRAWFORD McCLURE: What we 21 did in drafting these was to look to the other 22 jurisdictions additionally that have 23 implemented them. The doctors had some 24 concern about there being a verification page 25 which did contain the name, and that's where

1 disagree with you.

2 REPRESENTATIVE DUNNAM: I think
3 that's a substantive change from the statute.

4 CHAIRMAN BABCOCK: Well, the only
5 thing I would say is that if you look at 3(C), 6 it says, "A statement that the minor wishes to 7 have an abortion." It's very subjective. I
8 suppose an attorney could sign under oath
9 saying, "She told me that she wanted it."

10 REPRESENTATIVE DUNNAM: Well, a 11 friend could do it. Anybody with personal 12 knowledge. We do that all the time. Every 13 time we have somebody sign an affidavit, 14 they're saying what other people want,
15 generally, or what other people did. That's a 16 fair point. Linda.

17 MS. EADS: I think if you're going 18 to require the minor to verify under oath, 19 you're not taking into account a lot of 20 different kinds of minors you're going to be 21 dealing with. Some of them will be 22 incompetent mentally. I think the statute is 23 a better way of having this, which is the 24 application is verified, rather than requiring 25 the minor be the one who verifies it.

1 that is going to be listed. Under oath was 2 something that we talked about to some 3 extent.

4 It was, as I recall, Sam who developed it
5 in the subcommittee, the editorial committee,
6 and drafted it. So if you want to address
7 that?

8 HON. SAMUEL A. MEDINA: Well, it was 9 basically more out of concern of trying to 10 marry people up, and if you're going to try 11 to -- you know, the same individual here as 12 there, and that's what came out of it.

13 REPRESENTATIVE DUNNAM: I
14 understand. Well, there was some talk about 15 you stamp the verification or something with 16 the same number and this and that, but I was 17 just -- my personal reading of this was that I 18 could file this on behalf -- absent the rule 19 that's being proposed, I could file this on 20 behalf of a client, I could have a friend of 21 theirs verify it under oath, and I could 22 proceed under this statute. That's the way I 23 read the statute, just like I could for any 24 other writ of garnishment or anything else.

25 HON. SAMUEL A. MEDINA: I don't

1 CHAIRMAN BABCOCK: Do you accept
2 accept that, Judge?

3 HON. ANN CRAWFORD McCLURE: No.

4 REPRESENTATIVE DUNNAM: The other
5 thing I'd like to point out, if you all decide 6 to make this change, then I would sure urge 7 that something be put on the application in 8 pretty big letters informing the minor, "Your 9 name will not be released to anybody" 10 somewhere.

11 CHAIRMAN BABCOCK: Let's do it one 12 at a time. Let's have a vote on whether or 13 not -- the suggestion that the minor should 14 not be required to file the application under 15 oath but just somebody with personal 16 knowledge.

17 REPRESENTATIVE DUNNAM: I think
18 there are two issues. One, does the applicant 19 have to file that application? The 20 application is signed, not by a lawyer, not 21 by -- so if somebody comes in to see me, I'm 22 not signing the application. Fine. And then 23 the second point is the oath. Does the oath
24 have to be made by the minor? I think there 25 are two things that are being added to the

1 statute that aren't there.
 2 CHAIRMAN BABCOCK: Okay. I
 3 understand the oath part. But what's the 4 first part again?
 5 REPRESENTATIVE DUNNAM: The first 6 part, the application, the formal application, 7 is to be signed by the minor under the rule.
 8 Under the rule the minor signs the 9 application.
 10 CHAIRMAN BABCOCK: Right. Under 11 oath.
 12 REPRESENTATIVE DUNNAM: Right. So I
 13 think there's two issues. One, does the minor 14 have to be given the oath; and number two,
 15 does the minor have to sign the application.
 16 CHAIRMAN BABCOCK: Let's split it
 17 into two, though, so we're clear about what 18 we're voting on. The first proposal is that 19 we should delete the requirement from the 20 rules and the form that the minor must sign 21 the application. Everybody in favor of that 22 raise their hand.
 23 HON. BILL RHEA: Chip, can I make a
 24 comment first? I think we're missing perhaps 25 33.003(a), which to me is very specific. It

1 says a pregnant minor may file an 2 application. In the Rules of Civil Procedure, 3 for the most part it's very clear that it's 4 the attorney who can file on behalf in this or 5 that type of action, but that's real 6 explicit.
 7 REPRESENTATIVE DUNNAM: If we look 8 at the garnishment statute, the Civil 9 Procedure rule on garnishment, it says the 10 plaintiff may file an application for writ of 11 garnishment. But in every garnishment, I'm 12 signing it. It's not my client's signature.
 13 I think it's a drafting problem in the 14 statute.
 15 MR. MEADOWS: Before I vote on this,
 16 there have been a number of votes today, and 17 in many instances I've been guided by what the 18 subcommittee decided because they had more 19 opportunity to think about it and hear from 20 other people. The points that I found to be 21 most significant were when we voted on things 22 that really seemed like departures, when the 23 rule departed from the statute. And so I've 24 been interested in what the subcommittee had 25 to say about it. In this instance, what I've

1 heard is that it's been done this way because 2 other jurisdictions did it that have similar 3 statutes. I can't --
 4 HON. ANN CRAWFORD McCLURE: Well,
 5 there's another issue, too, that I thought I 6 made clear and perhaps I didn't. The 7 application has to be under oath by statute.
 8 The question is, who is going to do the oath?
 9 Is it going to be the lawyer on behalf of the 10 minor, or must it be the minor?
 11 We took the position at the subcommittee
 12 level that in all likelihood these are going 13 to be filed before the attorney is appointed.
 14 The number of instances in which she has 15 sought independent counsel before she files it 16 is going to be in our view less frequent. In 17 order to come up with forms, which we were 18 required, the two forms we were required to 19 come up with, one of them is the application; 20 that if we had an application, that it ought 21 to be providing for her verification.
 22 The doctors expressed some concern about 23 having the verification by something other 24 than the minor.
 25 CHAIRMAN BABCOCK: Could the father

1 file the application?
 2 MS. EADS: What are you going to do 3 about the retarded 14-year-old who has been 4 raped by the father? I mean, this rule 5 requires that that retarded 14-year-old sign 6 the application. That makes no sense to me.
 7 Why is it mandatory that that's the person who 8 signs it, when the statute just says the 9 application has to be verified? I mean, that 10 puts an enormous burden on the system, and I 11 don't see any reason for it.
 12 PROFESSOR DORSANEO: It's the same
 13 as the civil procedure rule saying that a next 14 friend can institute the proceeding on behalf 15 of a minor. It isn't going to apply to this.
 16 HON. ANN CRAWFORD McCLURE:
 17 Depending on how you construe the next friend, 18 depending on the nature of their ability to 19 act on behalf of the minor, it may implicate.
 20 PROFESSOR DORSANEO: Well, our 21 next-friend law generally doesn't impose any 22 particular requirements on somebody to be the 23 next friend. It may not be a good idea for 24 somebody who might want to be in this business 25 to be acting as a next friend. Then again,

1 you know, that's kind of prejudging
2 circumstances that aren't present.

3 REPRESENTATIVE DUNNAM: One thing
4 that was discussed, in this situation, I'm 5 informed that many of these girls don't come 6 from traditional families. They live with 7 grandparents and things like that. I envision 8 most of these applications being things where 9 another family member is the one that assists
10 the minor in filing this application. I know 11 there will be other times where various 12 organizations will assist them. But with 13 regard to the other bypasses that were 14 discussed, I can see a grandmother who has 15 basically raised the child go in, either to a 16 lawyer or on their own. Not many young women 17 are going to be able to do this by themselves 18 without assistance from somebody.

19 CHAIRMAN BABCOCK: Judge Lawrence.

20 HON. TOM LAWRENCE: It seems like 21 we're trying to expand the statute
22 unnecessarily. If the judge is going to have 23 the applicant perform for the hearing, I don't 24 see that having the applicant swear to the 25 affidavit gives it any more weight or

1 credibility.

2 HON. SAMUEL A. MEDINA:
3 Mr. Chairman, may I say something?

4 CHAIRMAN BABCOCK: Yes.

5 HON. SAMUEL A. MEDINA: For what 6 it's worth to the rest of committee, basically 7 some judges from Harris County, myself and 8 others, and a judge from Austin, basically 9 that was taken from Section A, I believe. And 10 it was not a matter of, oh, it's got to be 11 this way. There was not a whole lot of 12 discussion. I don't know if that makes any 13 difference. It was more like, okay, we have 14 to look at it. A pregnant minor. Okay.
15 We're we go. But there was not debate over 16 this. So take that for whatever it's worth to 17 you. You make decisions.

18 CHAIRMAN BABCOCK: Judge Brown.

19 HON. HARVEY G. BROWN, JR.: I do
20 think we're adding to the statute a little bit 21 by saying the application has to be sworn to 22 and signed completely by the minor. But I
23 don't think we're adding to it when we say 24 that subpart (3) needs to be sworn to by the 25 minor. Only the minor can say if the minor

1 wishes this. An attorney doesn't have 2 personal knowledge of what the minor wants.
3 If the attorney is told what the minor wants,
4 that is still, it seems to me, hearsay, not 5 personal knowledge. It can only be the person 6 who says they want it.

7 MS. SWEENEY: But we speak for our 8 clients on a fairly regular basis on things 9 like that when we say what they say they want.

10 CHAIRMAN BABCOCK: I can envision a 11 situation where the teenage father goes in 12 there and files the application and swears to 13 it because the girl has told him that's what 14 she wants, and then they go before the judge 15 and there's some potential for abuse there,
16 particularly if there's a snafu and there's no 17 actual hearing but it's deemed granted by 18 operation of law, so that the young woman is 19 never before the judge, so he never really 20 gets to ask the woman himself. That strikes 21 me as potential for abuse. So that's my 22 comment, Judge.

23 JUSTICE HECHT: Or the incestuous
24 father, like Linda raised. What if the 25 father, who has abused the child, he makes the

1 application?

2 CHAIRMAN BABCOCK: Of course, that 3 would be somewhat incongruous since it's 4 parental notification.

5 JUSTICE HECHT: Well, the stepfather
6 or the boyfriend or uncle.

7 MR. LOW: Any part of the affidavit
8 that's signed by somebody mentally
9 incompetent, I don't know that they want 10 that. How can somebody incompetent sign an 11 affidavit, no matter what it is? That's the 12 first thing.

13 MR. YELENOSKY: But that's always an 14 issue, and there are all kinds of requirements 15 that people sign an affidavit to something 16 that they have to take into account that 17 potentially someone is incompetent, and then a 18 guardian is appointed or some other
19 accommodation is made as somebody requires it.

20 HON. JAN PATTERSON: What is 21 meaningful to me is the face-to-face, the 22 hearing, the judge and the girl. The 23 application gets them there. And so I think 24 we ought to facilitate getting them to the 25 judge as soon as possible so that the judge

1 can make an informed decision.
 2 CHAIRMAN BABCOCK: Judge Rhea.
 3 HON. BILL RHEA: I agree with Chip,
 4 and that's that it never happens. That's the 5 danger. This could be so easy for some family 6 member, either the abuser or just somebody who 7 doesn't want the trouble, to push something on 8 a girl who may not want it. We have to leave 9 that option open to the minor as well.
 10 MS. EADS: Well, there's abuse on 11 both sides. And the statute says
 12 "application," it doesn't say "applicant 13 verifies," so I mean, we can argue abuse on 14 both sides of this question obviously.
 15 CHAIRMAN BABCOCK: Yeah. This is a 16 very interesting issue at 5:15. Bill
 17 Dorsaneo.
 18 PROFESSOR DORSANEO: Frankly, the 19 statute doesn't say -- I don't find it in the 20 statute anywhere, although I think it's a good 21 idea, that the minor would appear at this 22 hearing, but I don't see that the statute says
 23 anything about that. I mean, we're 24 embroidering on the statute quite a bit.
 25 CHAIRMAN BABCOCK: Well, let's stick

1 All right. And all those who believe to 2 the contrary, that the rule and form as 3 drafted should include or require the minor to 4 sign it under oath, raise their hand.
 5 By a vote of 13 to 14, the sense of this 6 committee is that it should be dropped, that 7 the minor should not be required to sign it
 8 under oath. Did you got that, Bob?
 9 MR. PEMBERTON: Got it.
 10 MR. ORSINGER: The very last rule in 11 here, about when the Supreme Court exercises
 12 its rule making authority, I think is negated 13 by our decision to make all of the opinions in 14 private, because it says the Supreme Court 15 should promulgate rules in cases where there's 16 no appeal from the court of appeals to the 17 Supreme Court, but that the court of appeals 18 interpreted this Family Code provision as 19 otherwise. But in light of the fact that it's 20 never going to be published or revealed to 21 anybody, the Supreme Court will never know 22 about that category of cases, and shouldn't we 23 delete that now?
 24 MR. PEMBERTON: There's a provision
 25 in Rule 3 for forwarding a court of appeals

1 to this issue. Judge Dorsaneo raises a great 2 point. Okay. Is it still the sense of the 3 subcommittee that they don't wish to entertain 4 this amendment?
 5 HON. ANN CRAWFORD McCLURE: Yes.
 6 CHAIRMAN BABCOCK: Okay. So we're 7 going to vote first on whether or not the 8 application must be signed by the minor. And 9 so the issue will be if you are in favor of 10 deleting the requirement in the rule, in the 11 form, that the minor must sign the 12 application, raise your hand.
 13 All right. All those who are in favor of 14 the rule in the form as drafted, which 15 requires the minor to sign the form, raise 16 your hand.
 17 By 16 to 12, the sense of this committee
 18 is that the application should not -- it 19 should not be a requirement that the minor 20 sign.
 21 All right. Now, the next issue is, all 22 those who believe that the rule and the form 23 should be changed to delete that the minor 24 swear to the application under oath raise 25 their hand.

1 opinion to the Supreme Court, even -- well,
 2 assuming that at the time we provided there
 3 would be an opinion in every court of appeals 4 case. It would always be forwarded, whether 5 the case went up or not, to the Supreme Court, 6 so they would take it into account in issuing 7 their guidelines.
 8 CHAIRMAN BABCOCK: I think that's 9 the answer to that. Paula.
 10 MS. SWEENEY: In those two votes,
 11 did we solve the problem of the mentally
 12 incompetent minor? If the Court would follow 13 that suggestion, then somebody else could 14 speak for the mentally incompetent?
 15 CHAIRMAN BABCOCK: If the Court
 16 followed that suggestion, that's right.
 17 Okay. I think the sense of Justice Hecht 18 and myself and Justice McClure is that we have 19 answered the major substantive issues with 20 respect to these rules, thus obviating the 21 need for a meeting tomorrow morning, which I 22 know will disappoint many of you. However, if 23 anyone spots something in these rules that 24 needs to be fixed, either a substantive issue, 25 or the thing I worry about is that there's

1 some word dropped out or there's a typo or 2 there's some inconsistency, please tell either
3 myself or Justice McClure or Bob Pemberton
4 just as soon as you can.

5 And I think for my sake, this level of 6 discussion has been on a very high plain, and 7 I thank everybody for it, and I hope my first 8 meeting hasn't been a disaster as I feared it 9 might.

10 MS. SWEENEY: You did really good.

11 JUSTICE HECHT: Let me tell you that 12 we appreciate, Judge Baker and I, appreciate 13 your looking at this on such short notice.
14 And the Court is going to expedite its own 15 consideration of this, and then almost 16 immediately, as soon as we can finish, ask for 17 public comment, since we have such a short 18 time. And that request will probably go out 19 about the same time that you get the product 20 of all of these comments and reworks that we 21 heard today. So we're not going to be able to 22 come back to you with a revised version ahead
23 of the time that we ask for public comment.
24 That doesn't mean that we don't want your 25 comments during that period. It's just that

1 we have such a short time to get these 2 finished that that's the way we'll have to do
3 it.

4 CHAIRMAN BABCOCK: And I think we 5 probably, as long as we're clapping, ought to 6 clap for Judge McClure and her subcommittee.

7 Thanks. We're adjourned.
