

Notes about Data for Statutory County Courts for FY 2012

In 2012, 88 of the state's 254 counties had at least one county court at law in operation. Assuming one report for each county for each month, 1,056 reports were possible.

At the time of publication, there was a 99.6 reporting rate overall for the fiscal year. However, some reports were missing certain sections, or one of the two offices in a county (county clerk or district clerk) may not have reported as required.

All juvenile reports were missing from Denton County.

All probate reports were missing from Tarrant County.

Reports for juvenile cases were missing from Calhoun County for December 2011 to August 2012.

Reports for juvenile, mental health, misdemeanor, and probate cases were missing from Waller County for January through August 2012.

Reports for family cases were missing from Burnet County for January through August 2012.
