

- 2) Contact the Innocence Project of Texas, Texas Criminal Defense Lawyers Association, Texas Indigent Defense Commission, and Texas District and County Attorneys Association to solicit recommendations to the panel on how each potentially affected defendant and/or defense attorney might be notified of the discrepant work found at Houston DPS.

Lerma seconded the motion. The FSC unanimously adopted the motion.

Review and adopt Tarrant County laboratory disclosure investigation final report.

MOTION AND VOTE: Eisenberg moved to adopt the Tarrant County Medical Examiner's Office Crime Laboratory Report with minor amendments as discussed. Barnard seconded the motion. The FSC unanimously adopted the report.

Staff will amend and edit the report as necessary, distribute to parties named in the FSC statute (TEX. CODE CRIM. PROC. art. 38.01 §7) and FSC policies and procedures and post on the FSC's website.

Review and adopt Austin Police Department controlled substance investigation final report.

MOTION AND VOTE: Barnard moved to adopt the Austin Police Department Crime Laboratory Report with amendments as discussed. Kerrigan seconded the motion. The FSC unanimously adopted the report.

Staff will amend and edit the report as necessary, distribute to parties named in the FSC statute (TEX. CODE CRIM. PROC. art. 38.01 §7) and FSC policies and procedures and post on the FSC's website.

Update on status of outsourcing to IFL and feedback on distribution of El Paso Police Department final investigation report.

Members discussed El Paso Police Department Crime Laboratory outsourcing its operation completely to Integrated Forensic Laboratories, Inc., and discussed recommendations from ASCLD-LAB regarding the laboratory's transition.

Discuss and consider recommendations from Complaint Screening Committee concerning complaints and self-disclosures received since last FSC meeting.

- Furo*
1. Nueces County District Attorney's Office - #12-07

MOTION AND VOTE: Lerma moved to dismiss the complaint on jurisdictional grounds, because it does not contain any allegation against a DPS-accredited crime laboratory that would fall within the jurisdiction of the FSC. Kerrigan seconded the motion. The FSC unanimously adopted the motion.