Re: Texas Forensic Science Commission ("Commission") File No. 16.26

Dear Mr. Tienda:

At its July 8, 2016 meeting, the Commission voted unanimously to dismiss your complaint for failure to state an allegation of negligence or misconduct related to the forensic analysis at issue in your complaint. Your complaint makes general allegations of failure to test evidence and failure to ask certain questions related to the evidence at trial that are not subject to review by the Commission.

For general assistance regarding your case, you may consider contacting one of the publicly funded innocence clinics listed below:

Texas Center for Actual Innocence
