Re: Texas Forensic Science Commission ("Commission") File No. 16.29

Dear Mr. Garcia:

At its July 8, 2016 meeting, the Commission voted unanimously to dismiss your complaint for failure to state an allegation of negligence or misconduct related to the forensic analyses in your case. Your complaint makes general allegations of misconduct and fabricated evidence that is unsupported by the materials provided. Moreover, findings by a medical examiner or other forensic pathologist are not subject to review by the Commission.

For general assistance regarding your case, you may consider contacting one of the publicly funded innocence clinics listed below:

Texas Center for Actual Innocence
