Re: Disposition of TFSC Complaint No. 1177.16.52

Dear Mr. Resendez:

This is to let you know that your complaint against the Texas DPS in Austin has been dismissed for failure to state an allegation of negligence or misconduct for a forensic discipline over which the Commission has jurisdiction. Your complaint alleges improper behavior on the part of law enforcement, evidence introduced at trial by the prosecution, your inability to procure records and reports in connection with your case, and a lack of DNA evidence connecting you to the crime. None of these allegations are within the jurisdiction of this commission to evaluate or investigate. Further, review of your complaint reflects no allegations at all of wrongdoing against a forensic laboratory or entity subject to the Commission's jurisdiction. Please note the Commission has no jurisdiction over autopsies and no ability to order DNA testing in your case.

Because your complaint involves issues for resolution by a court, I am enclosing a list of innocence clinics operating in Texas should you wish to submit your case for review to one of them. Thank you and let me know if I may be of any additional assistance.

Sincerely,
