Court Cost and Fee Destinations

(1) State Consolidated Court Cost - Local Gov't Code § 133.102(a)(3)

90% goes to the State and 10% stays with the County as a collection fee, if the County timely remits the State's portion to the comptroller (See Local Gov't Code §133.058(a)).<sup>6</sup> The collecting officer must deposit the money in the county treasury (See Local Gov't Code §133.052). The State's portion is allocated to 19 different accounts and funds as follows: (1) Crime Stoppers Assistance Account [0.2427%]; (2) Breath Alcohol Testing Account [0.3900%]; (3) Bill Blackwood Law Enforcement Management Institute Account [1.4741%]; (4) Texas Commission on Law Enforcement Account [3.4418%]; (5) Law Enforcement And Custodial Officer Supplement Retirement Trust Fund [7.2674%]; (6) Criminal Justice Planning Account [8.5748%]; (7) Center for the Study and Prevention of Juvenile Crime and Delinquency at Prairie View A&M University [0.8540%]; (8) Compensation to Victims of Crime Account [24.6704%]; (9) Emergency Radio Infrastructure Account [3.6913%]; (10) Judicial And Court Personnel Training Account [3.3224%]; (11) Correctional Management Institute of Texas and Criminal Justice Center Account [0.8522%]; (12) Fair Defense Account [17.8857%]; (13) Judicial Fund [12.2667%]; (14) DNA Testing Account [0.1394%]; (15) Specialty Court Account [1.0377%]; (16) Statewide Electronic Filing System Account [0.5485%]; (17) Jury Service Fund [6.4090%]; (18) Truancy Prevention and Diversion Account [2.5956%]; and (19) Transportation Administrative Fee Account [4.3363%].

(2) Local Consolidated Court Cost – Local Gov't Code § 134.103(a)

100% stays with the County and should be deposited in the county treasury. The county treasurer shall allocate the money received under this section to 4 destinations as follows: (1) Courthouse Security Fund [35%]; (2) Local Truancy Prevention & Diversion Fund [35.7143]; (3) Justice Court Technology Fund [28.5714%]; and (4) County Jury Fund [0.7143%]. The county treasurer shall maintain the various funds in the county treasury. Money deposited in the Courthouse Security Fund may be used only for security personnel, services, and items related to buildings that house the operations of justice courts. This includes: (1) the purchase or repair of X-ray machines and conveying systems; (2) handheld metal detectors; (3) walkthrough metal detectors; (4) identification cards and systems; (5) electronic locking and surveillance equipment; (6) video teleconferencing systems; (7) bailiffs, deputy sheriffs, deputy constables, or contract security personnel during times when they are providing appropriate security services; (8) signage; (9) confiscated weapon inventory and tracking systems; (10) locks, chains, alarms, or similar security devices; (11) the purchase or repair of bullet-proof glass; (12) continuing education on security issues for court personnel and security personnel; and (13) warrant officers and related equipment. Money deposited in the Local Truancy Prevention & Diversion Fund may be used to finance the salary, benefits, training, travel expenses, office supplies, and other necessary expenses related to the position of a juvenile case manager, who may be able to use, under certain circumstances, any remaining for justice court judges and clerks regarding technological enhancements for justice courts; (2) the purchase and maintenance of technological enhancements for a justice court, including computer systems, enduced the induced the dow to dow with the money in the County Judges and clerks regarding technological enhancements and otherwise to finance jury services. NOTE: The statute does not indica

(3) Compliance Dismissals Fines - ($10)

100% of the fine stays with the County and should be deposited in the county treasury. Transportation Code § 542.402(a) controls the disposition of fines collected for rules of the road violations, (i.e., violations charged under Transportation Code, Chapters 541 thru 600). Consequently, compliance dismissal fines that are collected under Transp. Code § 547.004(c) – Operating Unsafe Vehicle Dismissal – are subject to § 542.402(a) and must be used: (1) to construct and maintain roads, bridges, and culverts in the County; and (2) to enforce laws regulating the use of highways by motor vehicles.

(4) Compliance Dismissals Fines – ($20)

100% of the fine stays with the County and should be deposited in the county treasury. Transportation Code § 542.402(a) controls the disposition of fines collected for rules of the road violations, (i.e., violations charged under Transportation Code, Chapters 541 thru 600). Consequently, compliance dismissal fines that are collected under Transp. Code § 548.605(e) – Operating Vehicle w/o Complying w/ Inspection Requirements as Certified Dismissal – are subject to § 542.402(a) and must be used to: (1) construct and maintain roads, bridges, and culverts in the County; and (2) enforce laws regulating the use of highways by motor vehicles.

(5) Local Traffic Fine – Transp. Code § 542.403

100% of the fine stays with the County and should be deposited in the county treasury. Transportation Code § 542.402(a) (Disposition of Fines) controls the disposition of traffic fines. Consequently, now, fines collected under § 542.403 must be used: (1) to construct and maintain roads, bridges, and culverts in the countyity or county; and (2) to enforce laws regulating the use of highways by motor vehicles; and (3) defray the expense of county traffic officers.

&lt;sup>6</sup> A county or county that maintains a certified breath alcohol testing program but does not use the services of a certified technical supervisor employed by the department may, to defray the costs of maintaining and supporting a certified breath alcohol testing program, retain $22.50 of the state consolidated court cost collected on conviction of an offense under Chapter 49, Penal Code, other than an offense that is a Class C misdemeanor. (See Code of Criminal Procedure art. 102.016(b)).

(6) State Traffic Fine – Transp. Code, § 542.4031

4% to the County as a service fee for collection and 96% is directed to the State as follows: (1) 70% to the credit of the undedicated portion of the General Revenue Fund; and (2) 30% to the credit of the designated trauma and emergency medical services account under Section 780.003, Health & Safety Code. Note: The Legislature reduced the percentage amount that a County may retain as a service fee for the collection of the fine and changed the allocation of the state traffic fine to the General Revenue Fund and the designated trauma and emergency medical services account. If deposits to the General Revenue Fund from collections of the fine exceed $250 million in any given year, any remaining deposits for that year shall be to the Texas Mobility Fund.

(7) Compliance Dismissals Fine – Transp. Code § 521.026(b)

100% of the fine stays with the County and should be deposited in the county treasury. Transportation Code § 542.402(a) controls the disposition of fines collected for rules of the road violations, (i.e., violations charged under Transportation Code, Chapters 541 thru 600). Consequently, compliance dismissal fines that are collected under Transp. Code § 548.605(e) – Operating Vehicle w/o Complying w/ Inspection Requirements as Certified Dismissal – are subject to § 542.402(a) and must be used to: (1) construct and maintain roads, bridges, and culverts in the County; and (2) enforce laws regulating the use of highways by motor vehicles.

(8) Criminal Enforcement of a Toll – Trans. Code. § 284.2031(a)

100% of the fine stays with the County. In a county with a population of 3.3 million or more, the money must be deposited in the county treasury in a special fund to be administered by the county attorney or district attorney, who at his or her sole discretion, must use the money only to defray the salaries and expenses of the prosecutor's office. However, the county or district attorney may not use the money to supplement his or her own salary. In a county with a population of less than 3.3 million, the money must be deposited in the general fund of the county.

(9) Collection of a Toll (County w/ population >3.3 million) - Trans. Code. § 284.2032(a)

100% of the money stays with the County. The money must be deposited in the county treasury in a special fund to be administered by the county attorney. Expenditures from the fund are at the sole discretion of the county attorney and may be used only to defray the salaries and expenses of the county attorney's office, but in no event may the county attorney supplement his or her own salary from the fund.

Court Cost and Fee Destinations

(1) State Consolidated Court Cost - Local Gov't Code § 133.102(a)(3)

90% goes to the State and 10% stays with the County as a collection fee, if the County timely remits the State's portion to the comptroller (See Local Gov't Code §133.058(a)).<sup>13</sup> The collecting officer must deposit the money in the County treasury (See Local Gov't Code §133.052). The State's portion is allocated to 19 different accounts and funds as follows: (1) Crime Stoppers Assistance Account [0.2427%]; (2) Breath Alcohol Testing Account [0.3900%]; (3) Bill Blackwood Law Enforcement Management Institute Account [1.4741%]; (4) Texas Commission on Law Enforcement Account [3.4418%]; (5) Law Enforcement And Custodial Officer Supplement Retirement Trust Fund [7.2674%]; (6) Criminal Justice Planning Account [8.5748%]; (7) Center for the Study and Prevention of Juvenile Crime and Delinquency at Prairie View A&M University [0.8540%]; (8) Compensation to Victims of Crime Account [24.6704%]; (9) Emergency Radio Infrastructure Account [3.6913%]; (10) Judicial And Court Personnel Training Account [3.3224%]; (11) Correctional Management Institute of Texas and Criminal Justice Center Account [0.8522%]; (12) Fair Defense Account [17.8857%]; (13) Judicial Fund [12.2667%]; (14) DNA Testing Account [0.1394%]; (15) Specialty Court Account [1.0377%]; (16) Statewide Electronic Filing System Account [0.5485%]; (17) Jury Service Fund [6.4090%]; (18) Truancy Prevention and Diversion Account [2.5956%]; and (19) Transportation Administrative Fee Account [4.3363%].

(2) Local Consolidated Court Cost – Local Gov't Code § 134.103(a)

100% stays with the County and should be deposited in the County treasury. The County treasurer shall allocate the money received under this section to 4 destinations as follows: (1) Municipal Court Building Security Fund [35%]; (2) Local Truancy Prevention & Diversion Fund [35.7143]; (3) Municipal Court Technology Fund [28.5714%]; and (4) Municipal Jury Fund [0.7143%]. The municipal treasurer shall maintain the various funds in the municipal treasury. Money deposited in the Municipal Court Building Security Fund may be used only for security personnel, services, and items related to buildings that house the operations of municipal courts. This includes: (1) the purchase or repair of X-ray machines and conveying systems; (2) handheld metal detectors; (3) walkthrough metal detectors; (4) identification cards and systems; (5) electronic locking and surveillance equipment; (6) video teleconferencing systems; (10) locks, chains, alarns, or similar security personnel during times when they are providing appropriate security services; (8) signage; (9) confiscated weapon inventory and tracking systems; (10) locks, chains, alarns, or similar security devices; (11) the purchase or repair of bullet-proof glass; (12) continuing education on security issues for court personnel and security personnel; and (13) warrant officers and related equipment. Money deposited in the Local Truancy Prevention & Diversion Fund may be used to finance the salary, benefits, training, travel expenses, office supplies, and other necessary expenses related to the position of a juvenile case manager, who may be able to use, under certain circumstances, any remaining money in the fund for programs directly related to the juvenile case manager's duties. Money in the Truancy Fund may not be used to supplement the income of an employee whose primary role is not that of a juvenile case manager. Money deposited in the Municipal Jury Fund may be used only to finance the purchase of ro maintain technological enhancements for a municipal court or

(3) Compliance Dismissals Fines - ($10)

100% of the fine stays with the County and should be deposited in the County treasury. Transportation Code § 542.402(a) controls the disposition of fines collected for rules of the road violations, (i.e., violations charged under Transportation Code, Chapters 541 thru 600). Consequently, compliance dismissal fines that are collected under Transp. Code § 547.004(c) – Operating Unsafe Vehicle Dismissal – are subject to § 542.402(a) and must be used: (1) to construct and maintain roads, bridges, and culverts in the County; and (2) to enforce laws regulating the use of highways by motor vehicles.

(4) Compliance Dismissals Fines – ($20)

100% of the fine stays with the County and should be deposited in the County treasury. Transportation Code § 542.402(a) controls the disposition of fines collected for rules of the road violations, (i.e., violations charged under Transportation Code, Chapters 541 thru 600). Consequently, compliance dismissal fines that are collected under Transp. Code § 548.605(e) – Operating Vehicle w/o Complying w/ Inspection Requirements as Certified Dismissal – are subject to § 542.402(a) and must be used to: (1) construct and maintain roads, bridges, and culverts in the County; and (2) enforce laws regulating the use of highways by motor vehicles.

(5) Local Traffic Fine – Transp. Code § 542.403

100% of the fine stays with the County and should be deposited in the County treasury. Transportation Code § 542.402(a) (Disposition of Fines) controls the disposition of traffic fines. Consequently, now, fines collected under § 542.403 must be used: (1) to construct and maintain roads, bridges, and culverts in the municipality or County; and (2) to enforce laws regulating the use of highways by motor vehicles; and (3) defray the expense of County traffic officers.

(6) State Traffic Fine - Transp. Code, § 542.4031

4% to the County as a service fee for collection and 96% is directed to the State as follows: (1) 70% to the credit of the undedicated portion of the General Revenue Fund; and (2) 30% to the credit of the designated trauma and emergency medical services account under Section 780.003, Health & Safety Code. Note: The Legislature reduced the percentage amount that a County may retain as a service fee for the collection of the fine and changed the allocation of the state traffic fine to the General Revenue Fund and the designated trauma and emergency medical services account. If deposits to the General Revenue Fund from collections of the fine exceed $250 million in any given year, any remaining deposits for that year shall be to the Texas Mobility Fund.

(7) Compliance Dismissals Fine – Transp. Code § 521.026(b)

100% of the fine stays with the County and should be deposited in the County treasury. Transportation Code § 542.402(a) controls the disposition of fines collected for rules of the road violations, (i.e., violations charged under Transportation Code, Chapters 541 thru 600). Consequently, compliance dismissal fines that are collected under Transp. Code § 548.605(e) – Operating Vehicle w/o Complying w/

&lt;sup>13</sup> A County or County that maintains a certified breath alcohol testing program but does not use the services of a certified technical supervisor employed by the department may, to defray the costs of maintaining and supporting a certified breath alcohol testing program, retain $22.50 of the state consolidated court cost collected on conviction of an offense under Chapter 49, Penal Code, other than an offense that is a Class C misdemeanor. (See Code of Criminal Procedure art. 102.016(b)).

Inspection Requirements as Certified Dismissal – are subject to § 542.402(a) and must be used to: (1) construct and maintain roads, bridges, and culverts in the County; and (2) enforce laws regulating the use of highways by motor vehicles.

(8) Criminal Enforcement of a Toll – Trans. Code. § 284.2031(a)

100% of the fine stays with the County. In a County with a population of 3.3 million or more, the money must be deposited in the County treasury in a special fund to be administered by the County attorney or district attorney, who at his or her sole discretion, must use the money only to defray the salaries and expenses of the prosecutor's office. However, the County or district attorney may not use the money to supplement his or her own salary. In a County with a population of less than 3.3 million, the money must be deposited in the general fund of the County.

(9) Collection of a Toll (County w/ population >3.3 million) - Trans. Code. § 284.2032(a)

100% of the money stays with the County. The money must be deposited in the County treasury in a special fund to be administered by the County attorney. Expenditures from the fund are at the sole discretion of the County attorney and may be used only to defray the salaries and expenses of the County attorney's office, but in no event may the County attorney supplement his or her own salary from the fund.

(10) Deferred Disposition Fine – Code Crim. Proc. art. 45.051(a)

100% of the money stays with the County and should be deposited in the County treasury.

- (11) Driving Safety Course (Permissive DSC) Code Crim. Proc. art. 45.0511(f)(2) 100% of the money stays with the County and should be deposited in the County treasury.
- (12) Administrative Fee (Failure to Appear) a/k/a Omni Fee Transp. Code § 706.006(a)

(NEW) 100% of the money stays with the County. Several portions of Transportation Code § 706.007 (i.e., subsections b, c, and e) have been repealed. As a result, the fee is reduced to $10 (down from $30). The state will no longer receive a portion of the fee, and the County no longer has to provide annual reports regarding the fee. The officer collecting the fee must remit it to the County treasurer, who must deposit it to the credit of the County's general fund and use it to compensate private vendors hired by DPS to perform services under the contract. See Transportation Code 706.008.

(13) Administrative Fee (Failure to Pay Fine and Cost) a/k/a Omni Fee - Transp. Code § 706.006(b)

(NEW) 100% of the money stays with the County. Several portions of Transportation Code § 706.007 (i.e., subsections b, c, and e) have been repealed. As a result, the fee is $10 (down from $30). The state will no longer receive a portion of the fee, and the County no longer has to provide annual reports regarding the fee. The officer collecting the fee must remit it to the County treasurer, who must deposit it to the credit of the County's general fund and use it to compensate private vendors hired by DPS to perform services under the contract. See Transportation Code 706.008.

- (14) Cost for Impoundment Transp. Code § 601.263 100% of the fee money remains with the County to reimburse the cost of impoundment.
