

Order filed May 20, 2020.

In The
Sixth Court of Appeals

---

ORDER EXTENDING TIME TO FILE BRIEFS

Having considered the challenges presented by the network outage and temporary lack of access to the Texas Appellate Management and e-Filing System, part of the statewide judicial branch network operated and maintained by the Office of Court Administration, the court finds that the effective and efficient administration of justice will be served by extending the time for parties to file briefs in certain cases pending in this court. Accordingly, with the exceptions noted below, the court grants all pending motions to extend time to file a brief until June 30, 2020, and extends the time for filing briefs in pending appeals until June 30, 2020, without the necessity of parties filing motions to extend time to file a brief in these cases. This order shall not apply to (1) original proceedings, (2) appeals in parental-rights termination and child protection cases, and (3) appeals from the transfer of a juvenile offender to criminal district court for prosecution.

IT IS SO ORDERED.

BY THE COURT