

IN THE COURT OF CRIMINAL APPEALS OF TEXAS

NO. PD-0589-19

PEDRO HERNANDEZ JR., Appellant

v.

THE STATE OF TEXAS

ON APPELLANT'S PETITION FOR DISCRETIONARY REVIEW
FROM THE ELEVENTH COURT OF APPEALS
HASKELL COUNTY

Per curiam.

O P I N I O N

Pedro Hernandez Jr. (Appellant) filed a petition for discretionary review asking us to decide whether the evidence is legally sufficient to prove that he had the specific intent to deprive the victim of his cell phone when Appellant ran away with it and whether the trial court erred when it denied his motion for directed verdict.

Having considered the parties' briefs, oral submission argument, and the record, however, we conclude that our decision to grant review was improvident. We therefore dismiss Appellant's petition for discretionary review as improvidently granted.
