NUMBER 13-20-00245-CV

COURT OF APPEALS

THIRTEENTH DISTRICT OF TEXAS

CORPUS CHRISTI – EDINBURG

STALLION PRODUCTION SERVICES, L.P.,

Appellant,

v.

ATREYU MUNIZ,

Appellee.

On appeal from the 24th District Court of DeWitt County, Texas.

ORDER

Before Justices Hinojosa, Perkes, and Tijerina Order Per Curiam

In appellate cause number 13-19-00615-CV, appellant Stallion Productions, L.P. sought review of a final judgment in favor of Atreyu Muniz and Lloyd Kulik rendered by the 24th Judicial District Court, DeWitt County. Stallion and Muniz filed a joint motion signed by their attorneys informing the Court that the parties have reached a settlement agreement and asking that we dismiss the appeal against Muniz and vacate the trial court's judgment as it pertains to Muniz. Texas Rule of Appellate Procedure 42.1 allows the Court to partially dismiss an appeal in accordance with an agreement if doing so will not prejudice the remaining parties. TEX. R. APP. P. 42.1(a)(2), (b). More than thirty days have passed since the motion was filed and Kulik has not filed a response to the motion.

Accordingly, Stallion's appeal with respect to Muniz is hereby SEVERED from appellate cause number 13-19-00615-CV, placed into appellate cause number 13-20-00245-CV, and styled Stallion Production Services, L.P. v. Atreyu Muniz. The appeal between Stallion and Kulik remains docketed under original cause number 13-19-00615-CV and will proceed in due course.
