3. Judges or court staff who feel feverish or have measured temperatures equal to or greater than 99.6°F, or with new or worsening signs or symptoms of COVID-19 such as cough, shortness of breath or difficulty breathing, chills, repeated shaking with chills, muscle pain, headache, sore throat, loss of taste or smell, diarrhea, or having known close contact with a person who is confirmed to have COVID-19 will not be permitted to enter the building and should seek medical advice.

Scheduling

1. The following court schedules are established to reduce occupancy in the court building:

Court is normally conducted once per month; however, in order to reduce occupancy, the Court will offer defendants the option of appearing virtually. In addition, if needed, the Court will reduce the number of defendants per docket and increase the number of dockets conducted per month.

Vulnerable Populations

1. Individuals who are over age 65 and individuals with serious underlying health conditions, such as high blood pressure, chronic lung disease, diabetes, obesity, asthma, and those whose immune systems are compromised such as by chemotherapy for cancer or other conditions requiring such therapy are considered to be vulnerable populations.
2. Each judge will include information on orders setting hearings, dockets notices, and in other communications notifying individuals who are in vulnerable populations of the ability to contact the court to identify themselves as a vulnerable individual and receive accommodations. A notice with this information will be posted on the courts' websites and in conspicuous locations around the court building (a copy of which is attached).
3. Vulnerable populations who are scheduled for court will be accommodated by either allowing such individuals to enter the courtroom alone without others or they will be offered virtual court options. Depending on the need, the Court will modify its docket to allow vulnerable defendants to come to court before or after the general public or will schedule a separate docket for vulnerable defendants.

Our municipal court has only one courtroom; however, I have notified the assistant judges of this Operating Plan. In developing the plan, I consulted with the local health authority and mayor, documentation of which is attached to this plan. I will ensure that all of our municipalities' judges covered by this Operating Plan conduct proceedings consistent with the plan.

Date: 8/19/2020

Greg Bertrand
Presiding Judge of Municipal Court
