Misc. Docket No. 22-9039

Amendment to Order Establishing the Executive Committee of the Texas Access to Justice Commission

ORDERED that:

The Order Establishing the Executive Committee of the Texas Access to Justice Commission (the “Commission”), Misc. Docket No. 20-9010 (February 7, 2020), effective immediately, is amended as follows:

The Executive Committee shall:

- Engage in decision making and act on behalf of the Commission between Commission meetings when action is urgently needed before a meeting of the Commission reasonably can be called.
- Assist in establishing agendas for Commission meetings and provide input on potential agenda items, with particular attention to progress on the Commission’s strategic goals and initiatives as well as implementation of its policies and governance systems.
- Meet and confer as the Committee deems appropriate with the Executive Director and her/his designated staff to provide support and counsel on executive decisions between Commission meetings.
- Perform an assessment of committees, task forces, and committee chairs at least once every three years to ensure maximum utilization of their potential and function within the organization.
- Recommend the establishment and elimination of committees and changes to committee charges.
- Oversee the process of evaluating the Executive Director.

The following Commissioners are reappointed to the Executive Committee of the Texas Access to Justice Commission, effective immediately, and shall serve until May 31, 2025 or until their term on the Commission expires, whichever occurs sooner:

Harriet Miers
Dallas, Texas
Chair

Alistair Dawson
Houston, Texas
