

Judicial Internships

The Texas Court of Criminal Appeals is the State's highest court for criminal cases. The Court accepts applications for judicial internships for the fall school semester, the spring school semester, and the summer. Interns primarily conduct research and prepare memoranda to assist the Court in making decisions. An intern's work is supervised by the judge's staff attorney and law clerk.

To apply, email a cover letter, résumé, unofficial law-school transcript, and writing sample in separate PDF attachments to each Judge you wish to apply to, using the following email addresses: KellerApps@txcourts.gov; HerveyApps@txcourts.gov; RichardsonApps@txcourts.gov; YearyApps@txcourts.gov; NewellApps@txcourts.gov; KeelApps@txcourts.gov; WalkerApps@txcourts.gov; SlaughterApps@txcourts.gov; McClureApps@txcourts.gov.

The subject line of your email must include your name, "Internship Application," and the semester for which you are applying.

There are no application deadlines. Each judge hires on his or her own timetable. We do not respond to questions about the status of an application or whether internships are still available.
