

Certified Guardians and Guardianship Programs

Sanction Matrix

Under Texas Government Code Section 153.004, the Judicial Branch Certification Commission (Commission) may reprimand, deny, revoke, suspend, or refuse to renew a certification, registration, or license of a regulated persons, including guardians and guardianship programs, certified by the Commission, for a violation of applicable statutes, rules, and ethical standards, and/or orders issued by the director or Commission. The Commission may place on probation a person whose certification, registration, or license is suspended and may require the person: (1) report regularly to the Commission on matters that are the basis of the probation; (2) limit practice to areas prescribed by the Commission; or (3) continue or review professional education until the person attains a degree of skill satisfactory to the Commission in those areas that are the basis for the probation. Per Texas Government Code Sections 153.051-052, the Commission is also authorized to issue administrative penalties for such violations in the maximum amount of $500. Each day a violation continues or occurs is a separate violation for purposes of imposing an administrative penalty.

The Sanctions Matrix provides general guidelines for the Guardianship Certification Complaint Review Committee (Committee) and the Commission for imposing sanctions and administrative penalties. The Commission and the Committee are not bound by the sanctions specified in this Sanctions Matrix. Upon a finding of mitigating or aggravating facts or circumstances, the Commission and Committee may deviate from these guidelines.

The sanction and/or administrative penalty may be based on:

- The seriousness of the violation, including the nature, circumstances, extent, and gravity of the violation;
- The threat to health or safety caused by the violation;
- Any previous violations;
- The amount necessary to deter a future violation;
- Whether the violator demonstrated good faith, including, when applicable, whether the violator made good faith efforts to correct the violation; and
- Any other matter that justice requires.
