295TH JUDICIAL DISTRICT

HARRIS COUNTY, TEXAS

ORDER DECLARING LEEROY M. MYERS AND BARBARA C. MYERS
VEXATIOUS LITIGANTS

The Court considered the Motion for Sanctions and to Declare Plaintiffs Vexatious Litigants filed by Defendants Selene Finance LP and US Bank Trust National Association. Notice of the motion and the hearing on the motion were provided to all parties, in accordance with TEX. CIV. PRAC. & REM. CODE §11.053. A hearing was held before the Court on September 21, 2026. Defendants Selene Finance and US Bank appeared through counsel of record. Plaintiffs, Leeroy M. Myers and Barbara C. Myers attended in person, pro se.

After considering the motion, the evidence provided, the pleadings on file in this case and the response of Plaintiffs, the Court GRANTS the motion and makes the following findings and orders:

FINDINGS

The Court finds that there is no reasonable probability that the Plaintiffs will prevail in this litigation against Defendants.

The Court further finds that in the seven-year period immediately preceding the Defendants filing the motion to declare Plaintiffs vexatious, the Plaintiffs had commenced, prosecuted and/or maintained, as pro se litigants, at least five litigations that were finally determined adversely to them. Such cases include, but are not limited to:

- Plaintiff, Leeroy M. Myers' pro se bankruptcy filing, Case No. 24-32050 on May 3, 2024. On July 29, 2024, the petition was struck by the Court disposing of the case.
- Plaintiff, Leeroy M. Myers' pro se bankruptcy filing, Case No. 24-35507 on November 22, 2024. On February 4, 2025, the Court dismissed the case with prejudice for 180 days.
- Plaintiff, Barbara C. Myers' pro se bankruptcy filing on March 31, 2025, Case No. 25-31745. On June 17, 2025, the Court dismissed the case.
- Plaintiff, Leeroy M. Myers' pro se bankruptcy filing, Case No. 26-30694, on February 2, 2026. On May 14, 2026, the Court dismissed the case.

The Court finds that each of these bankruptcy proceedings were filed immediately after or soon thereafter Defendants had posted the Myers property for foreclosure sale.

The Court further finds that in a separate federal Court case where Plaintiffs' were represented by counsel, Case No. 24-20018, the Myers appealed a Final Judgment against them for foreclosure of their property to the Fifth Circuit Court of Appeals who quickly dispensed with the case on June 9, 2026, affirming the District Court's Amended Final Judgment leaving no question that there is finality in the Final Judgment and any further lawsuits would be barred by res judicata and collateral estoppel.

Nonetheless, the Myers continued their lawsuits:

- On July 31, 2025, Plaintiffs acting pro se filed in Harris County District Court, Cause No. 2025-53861. Plaintiffs raised all the same issues decided and memorialized in the Amended Final Judgment affirmed by the Fifth Circuit. This Court entered a Final Take Nothing Judgment against Plaintiffs. Plaintiffs did not appeal.
- On October 30, 2025, Plaintiffs acting pro se filed in Harris County Cause No. 2025-82768. This is the case currently pending before the Court. After the Court dissolved a TRO, obtained through ancillary, on November 4, 2025, the Myers moved for recusal of the trial judge, which was denied. The Myers moved for a second TRO, and it was again granted through ancillary on July 7, 2026. The second TRO expired by operation of law. This case is currently pending before the Court.

The Court additionally finds that the Plaintiffs have repeatedly, after litigation has been finally determined against them, continued to relitigate or attempted to relitigate, as pro se parties, the cause of action, claims, controversy and/or factual and/or legal determinations against one or more of the same defendants against whom litigation was previously and finally determined. Such cases include all the above referenced cases.

The Court also finds that the Plaintiffs are specifically attempting to re-litigate the same controversy against these specific defendants, and that the Plaintiffs have attempted to repeatedly re-litigate the same factual and legal claims against numerous defendants in both State and Federal Court.

The Court finds that Plaintiff, Leeroy M. Myers, is a vexatious litigant.

The Court finds that Plaintiff, Barbara C. Myers is a vexatious litigant.

The Court finds that the reasonable expenses incurred by the Defendants in this litigation or in connection with the commenced litigation, including costs and attorneys' fees, is $9,867.00.

The Court finds that a reasonable time period for the Plaintiffs to post, as security, the expenses incurred by the Defendant, is thirty (30) days or November 2, 2026.
