	§	BELL COUNTY, TEXAS

ORDER DECLARING DEJANEE HOLLOWAY A VEXATIOUS LITIGANT, ORDER REQUIRING SECURITY, AND STAY OF PROCEEDINGS

On Sept. 30, 2026, the Court considered Joseph Harper's Motion to Declare DeJanee Holloway a Vexatious Litigant. After hearing and receiving evidence and the argument of the parties, and reviewing the file, the Court GRANTS the motion and declares DEJANEE HOLLOWAY a vexations litigant, and Orders the following:

1. Posting Security Bond. DeJanee Holloway shall deposit the amount of One Thousand Dollars ($1,000.00) into the registry of the Bell County District Court Clerk as a security bond in this cause of action prior to and as a condition of filing any pleadings or setting for hearing any pending motions or pleadings for affirmative relief after this date. The security bond is to assure payment to Joseph Harper for anticipated and reasonable expenses, including attorney fees and costs of court.
2. Prohibition Against New Filings without Prior Approval. In addition to the condition of first posting a security bond, as ordered herein, DeJanee Holloway shall not file any new pleadings for affirmative relief as a pro se litigatnt against Joseph Harper, unless DeJanee Holloway first identifies in her request that she has posted the security bond set forth in #1 above, and obtains authority and permission from the local administrative judge as required under Texas Civil Practices and Remedies Code § 11.102(a).
3. The Bell County District Clerk shall furnish a copy of this Order to the Office of Court Administration of the Texas Judicial System.
